PRAISE IS NEEDED

Sh! Can't you keep still?—These might be famous sayings of some of the high school teachers, especially if they have home-rooms, but do you think it goes for the Sophomore think it goes for the class too? You won't have to guess, they will tell you.

As soon as the five-minute bell rings, each person of the Sophomore class goes to his or her seat and keeps quiet. How many of the othclasses do this?

bell, and displaying an orderly and studious atmosphere? They are setting a good example for the lower classes to follow and we might suggest that a visitor would get a much better impression of our school if upper classmen followed their example.

There's not much time left this year to do it, but those little five visits to the school of the schoo minutes will help prepare for the tests that are coming.

Altho making 13 errors, Andover nanaged to overcome a seven-rur lead by staging a six-run rally in the sixth and one more in the seventh, to tie the ball game and win in one extra inning.

Charles Burgett pitched good ball

Andover's detense resembled a sieve for five innings and then collected, to keep Canaseraga scoreless during the remainder of the game. For Andover Burgett pitched very good ball as did his successor Kemy while Joyce and Pease collected a towering triple, a double and a walk in their trips to the plate, while Pease hit three timely singles. Meher classes do this?

Don't you think that we should praise the Sophomore class for their leads work thruout the year for keeping quiet after the five-minute summary:

Dear Uncle Abner:

I am music instructor by vocation. I go with a boy named Jo. He is a policeman, you know—the man who whistles on the whistle as we whistle by. Well, anyway, my girl friend "Do," and her boy friend "Re," came over to visit "Mi" last night, and they don't think that I should "picello" life fellow such as Jo to go a. "round" with. They kept "harping" and "drumming" about it. They say I'll go round and round it. I am music instructor by voca

"harping" and "drumming" about it. They say I'll go round and round and end up nowhere.

Jo sends me such lovely love "notes." They are always so full and never "sharp" or "flat."

Please tell me if I should "ban-Jo" from my house or should I keep playing "second-fiddle" to my conplaying science? Yours, VI OLIN.

Dear Vi:

I wouldn't give up going with Jo.

If he is a policeman he certainly should know his "beats."

I wouldn't let any bigh "flute"ing notions spoil my life. Remember, the old saving "Life is just a bowl of "cello" and we're all knee deep Give Jo a look of sweet a"chord" and perhaps he will "scale" up to where you are. I don't like that job you got anyway. There's a great deal of "wind," and too many "strings" connected with it. Why don't you marry Jo and be "fife?"
