CITATION FOR PROBATE OF WILL

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK: By the Grace of God Free and Independent

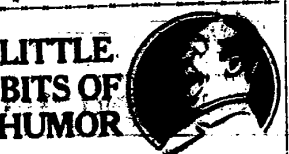

To Robert Searles, Will Searles, B. L. Searles, Charles E. Searles, Will Miller, R. R. Miller, Jennie Bowiby, heirs at law and next of kin of Benjamin W. Conley, send GREETING: Whereas, Hattie Conley, who resides at Andover, N. Y., has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of our County of Allegany, to have a certain instrument in writing, relating to both real and personal property, duly proved as the last Will and Testament of Benjamin W. Conley, who was at the time of his death a resident of Andover, N. Y., deceased.

Therefore, you and each of you are cited to show cause before the Surrogate's Court of our County of Allegany, at the Surrogate's Office in the Village of Belmont, N. Y., on the 23rd day of July, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the said Will and Testament should not be admitted to probate as a will of real and personal property.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have caused the Seal of the Surrogate's Court of the said County of Allegany to be hereunto affixed. WITNESS, HON. WARD M. HOPKINS, Surrogate of said County, at Belmont, N. Y., this 11th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven. LEON A. ACKERMAN, Clerk of the Surrogate Court.

MICKIE SAYS—

WHEN HIS STOVE GREW COLD, A MERCHANT SAID, "NO MORE COAL FOR YOU, STOVE, UNTIL YOU GIVE OUT LOTS OF HEAT!" AND SO HE Froze! DID YA EVER TELL A NEWSPAPER GUY THAT YOU WEREN'T GOIN' TO ADVERTISE 'TILL BUSINESS GOT GOOD?

LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

The Complete Hunter: An autumn nirod asked permission of a farmer to hunt on his property. "You're welcome to," said the honest ruralite, "but I want you to do me a favor. There's a horse out in the back pasture. He's too old to work and has lost all his teeth; so he's barely able to eat enough to stay alive. I want you to shoot him, as none of us has the heart to do it." The hunter went back to his companions, but said nothing of the proposal. They hunted and at eventide turned toward the farmhouse. When they reached the pasture the leader said: "I've got a rabbit and a couple of birds; now I think I'll shoot a horse." Aiming carefully, he fired and the ancient steed fell dead. Reloading, the hunter remarked casually, "I never shot a man either." The rest of the party tackled him high and low, took the gun from him and left him prone beside his kill. He went back to the farmer and they had a good laugh at the joke. His erstwhile friends, however, refused to ride back with him. Keeping his gun, they hitchhiked home. The Good Provider: The young bride was extolling the virtues of her husband to a friend. "John is just the most generous man in the world," she declared. "He gives me everything credit can buy." What Resistance! "First I got tonsillitis, followed with appendicitis and pneumonia. After that I got erysipelas with hemorrhomatosis. Following that I got poliomyelitis and finally ended with neuritis. Then they gave me
