

South Hill

(Mrs. Margaret Depp, Reporter)
 June 30.—June of 1937 is now of the past, and has been most variable in weather changes. Days of excessive heat and again very cooling. The curtain also drops on June's many graduates. Some idea of the vast number may be had from the many lists and group pictures we have seen in our state papers alone. Tony Dougherty and little sons were Wellsville visitors one day last week. Mrs. John Danieher of Wellsville was a South Hill visitor, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. H. Kamboltz and family of Salamanca visited the hill last Friday and were callers of the Dean family. Mrs. Kamboltz will be remembered as Miss Veronica Forness, a former resident here. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dean were among Hornell's business callers Friday. Miss Lenora Dean, Ann and Mary Dean and Charles Dougherty, enjoyed the Wellsville circus last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Joyce were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when a happy company arrived to help them celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary. A fine luncheon was an enjoyable feature of the good time. A gift was presented to the bride and groom as a memento of the occasion. Besides their hill neighbors, the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burns and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hyland, Mr. and Mrs. R. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Merle McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harkender. Mr. Watson of Andover motored over the hill Monday. Louis Dean was a Hornell visitor Tuesday. Some work is in progress at the Andover water system on the John Wahl farm. Miss Lenora Dean and mother, spent Wednesday afternoon with the Anthony Dean family of Hornell. Mrs. Dean died Monday evening.

LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

No Better Off
 A Yankee was on a Christmas walking tour in Scotland. Snow had fallen and he was struggling along a narrow road when he met a Highlander.
 "I guess, friend, I sure am lost!" he said, plaintively.
 Scot: "Is there a reward out for ye?"
 American: "Nope."
 Scot: "Well, ye're still lost."
 Visitor: "Why are you watching me so closely, Robert?"
 Bobbie: "I was just waiting to see you tackle your glass of water. Daddy says you drink like a fish."
 Comparing Occupations
 He: "I suppose you dance?"
 She: "Oh, yes, I love to."
 He: "Great! That's better than dancing anyway."
 Valodictory
 Angry Employer (to Irishman who insisted on leaving his service): "Well, good-by, Pat, and bad luck to you."
 Pat: "Good luck to you, sir, and may neither of us be right."
 "Don't be bashful, Willie," said Mrs. Tyte. "Won't you have some more of anything?"
 "No, thank you," replied the young guest. "I filled up on cookies before I came, cause I heard daddy tell me we wouldn't get much here."
 All Gone
 Artist: "That, sir, is a cow grazing."
 Visitor: "Where is the grass?"
 Artist: "The cow has eaten it."
 Visitor: "But where is the cow?"
 Artist: "You don't suppose she'd be fool enough to stay here after she'd eaten all the grass, do you?"
