HARVEST HOME NEXT THURSDAY

Arrangements Completed for the Annual Harvest Home Day of the Presbyterian Church.

There is something about the locust that reminds vacation days are nearing and home looms large on once again. Vacationers might chorus, "It's going away, but it's certainly home again."

Harvest Home is "the" for many. This event with a history of 61 years of friendships, will be celebrated this year. The celebratory dinner will be served at the home of the Presbyterian church on Thursday, August 12. O. Snyder and Mr. Harder are the co-chairmen directing the work of the year.

The young people will serve home-made ice cream and refreshments. This annual event has been a long opportunity to meet old friends and to enjoy a ship in a spot hallowed memories and many such before.

From an early copy of the year read: "Formerly come to know Harvest Home date to make their home then they see more of friends and acquaintance other day of the year."

Plan to spend the day with friends and neighbors Thursday, August 12th. The church has put on cost for the occasion.

The American Legion furnish the music during the hour as usual and a program is being arranged committees in charge.

Deer Hunting Case

William Bailey, 57, Pa., was killed instantly day evening when his son in mistake, for a deer.

The Baileys have a deer molesting crops of and in the early evening in a field nearby. The son to take a gun as could shoot it. Mr. Bailey another gun and went other direction.

The son, seeing some move in the brush, mistook the deer and fired, killing him instantly.

Edwards -

Miss Evelyn Louise daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of West Union, Pa., was married to Rev. F. Hann, son of Rev. F. Hann of West Union, Pa., at the Presbyterian church in Corning, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

They were attended by Mrs. Edwards, sister of the bride and Lavern VanSkiver and Mr. and Mrs. Hann their home in Andover. Friends extend congratulatory wishes.
