HARVEST HOME

USUAL SUCCESS

Fine Dinner Served by City Crowd. Finely Enjoyed. Legions Gives Concert.

The Harvest Home on the lawn of the Church last Thursday was a success. The church had prepared the Chicken Pie Dinner and was waiting on the church partake of it even before the hour of noon. The serving and the well-organized committee, still using plans made for the Harvest Home, had the dinner waiting to be eaten. It was large and many visitors were present.

The American Legion provided its usual high class and did its share in making a real gala community young people again so ice cream which, it is stampled before hand turned the freezer.

At the close of the company gathered upon the back of the church. E. E. Dronsfeld presided. Informal program of Excerpts from the old of the church were read to mind the founding of Andover, (New Alfred), the of the Congress which later became the in Church, and the church organ, and incidents. Then a number of out-of-town guests upon to recount their memories of the "good times" of the early days.
