LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

Sergeant: "Did you shave this morning, James?"
Recruit: "Yes, Sergeant."
Sergeant: "Well, next times stand a bit closer to the razor."

Mrs. June: "What makes you think your husband wasn't sober when he came home last night?"
Mrs. March: "He was watering the flowers on the linoleum."

She: "Say something soft and sweet to me, dearest."
He: "Custard pie."

"What did your wife say when you came home last night?"
"The darling never said a word. And I was going to have those two front teeth pulled out anyhow."

Senior: "How long you been shaving?"
Frosh: "Four year now."
Senior: "Gwan!"
Frosh: "Yep. Cut myself both times."

Of all the give-me-a-sentence-with-the-word jokes we've heard, we give the prize to the lad who put effervescent and fiddlestick in one sentence. He said: "Efervescent enough covers on the bed your fiddlestick out."

Tourist: "Fine corn you have here."
Farmer: "Best in Massachusetts."
Tourist: "How do you plow that steep field?"
Farmer: "Don plow it. When the spring thaws come the rocks roll down hill and tear it up so we can plant corn."
Tourist: "And how do you plant it?"
Farmer: "Don't really plant it. Jes stand in my back door and shoot the seed in with a shotgun."

First Negro: "What fo' dat de-tah-comin' outa yoa' house?"
Second Negro: "Ah, down here ah's gotta inkling."

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are the blood filters. They waste matter from the blood and they ridays sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended. If you are more impure than if you are, you poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling of ankles, itchy, sore eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wise than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nationwide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
