Oramel Blaze

High Wind Hampers Bucket Brigade and 13 Volunteer Companies in Fight to Save Village

Eight dwellings were burned to the ground and the Methodist Episcopal church hadly damaged Sunday lafternoon when flames, driven by a 140-mile-an-hour gale, swept the main street of the village of Oramel The fire, which defied the efforts of 13 volunteer fire companies from neighboring towns, left 22 men, women and children homeless. Starting on the roof of the home owned by Miss Clara Fox and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Petty land Jack Francis, the wind-lashed blaze spread quickly to adjoining properties, despite a hastily-organlized bucket brigade, which tried to Istem the advance until fire apparatus Within 15 minutes of the time the fire was discovered by Grover Hall, who was working in the yard next door to the Petty residence, and Charles G. Wells, who was walking in the main street, fire apparatus began pouring in from Belfast, Canleadea and Rushford.

Later, companies from Fillmore. Wellsville, Scio, Cuba, Angelica, Belmont and Houghton augmented the Igroup of nearly 500 volunteers who were fighting the blaze. Lack of water hampered the fire-
