ANDOVERNEWS

Published Weekly BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

Congress, at the Postoffice at Andover, New York.

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There Is Not A Way, Cut A Way"

Six months $1.00 - Three months 50c

America's Legion

ago they returned triumphant from the Great War and chance to succeed himself." became citizens to whom we point with pride. Today we can look upon them doubly proud because the tively interested in the question, which will be sub-American Legion has demonstrated itself as typifying mitted to voters of the state in referendum as a conthe true spirit of Americanism upon which this nation stitutional amendment at the coming election. was founded.

In New York City recently some 300,000 Legionnaires paraded that spirit up fabulous Fifth Avenue; for 18 hours in the most amazing demonstration ever MOMPARED to the roads of a generation ago, modern witnessed by that blase metropolis. Up that fashionable be highways are marvels of excellence. Yet, in spite thorofare scene of May Day parades when the red of this phenomenal development, today's system is woeflag of Communism is flaunted and where the flags and fully inadequate, as Frank T. Sheets pointed out in an soan box champions of other "isms" beg attention and article in Public Safety. followers the American Legion paraded the American this nation's 130 million citizens.

In convention the Legion delegates did not ponder ways and build safety into them." political and partisan issues, but voted on matters of ! the protection of the humblest citizen.

this been possible there would not be a rean, we man trunk treffic which has business in the metropolitan or grow re youth in In the today who we ld not feel mion reassured that there is a strong particle force for date to at individual theory Industria the o

" (I metgered off) C give another customer your new spring hat. day off. He goes to the movies and sits directly in front of us pelled to abandon his resolution when he learned that gian's 14 hours. there are laws against bigamy.

and take notice.

Why Not?

THE sheriff of your county, the man whose office is, I symbolic of law and order, holds a title that is one lof the oldest in the world today. Far back in history, in those stirring days of the [Norman and Plantagenet kings of Britain, the sheriff] |was the shire-reeve, vested with the highest of execu-,

The office of sheriff, important part of the English with the Office of Information constitution, was borrowed by the Americans and since the New York State Colleges of Agthen has been synonymous with law and order in the riculture and Home Economics It is an office which has restrictions, answer questions about problems c the last 121 years states specifically that the sheriff self-addressed, stamped envelope and

For many years no one, it developed, even thought will receive a direct reply to your night, to aid them in of inquiring the reason for the law. Recently the New query from the colleges. Do not York State Sheriffs' Association, with headquarters in ask more than one question in one York State Sherins' Association, with headquarters in ask more than one question in one urday night, P. Delaney, H. A. Bene- was dead when picked up by fellow Lewis, former sheriff of Albany county and president questions as you like, but dict, Timothy Hyland and B. S. workmen. nt of the association, has to say about it:

"Members of our Association have talked with a cation. great many persons who were astonished to learn that such a law was on the books. 'Why not?', was invarliably their first reaction. 'Why can't a sheriff succeed. Other office-holders go on being re-elected, Isheriff's term should be restricted to one term without the chance to succeed himself."

"There in a nutshell is the sentiment. We haven't THIS community, like every other, has its contingent heard one argument giving a concrete reason why the square feet? The walls and ceiling A broken truck ditched 21 freight of American Legionnaires. Nearly a score of years sheriff's term should be restricted to once without the are plastered. The New York State Sheriffs' Association is ac-

Highways of Tomorrow

"Progressive strides have been taken and musiflag and demonstrated to the millions who lined the continue to be taken in driver education and in provide avenue that there is still a deep patriotic reverence for ing safety regulation for vehicles," says Mr. Sheets. that flag and the Constitutional rights of every one of but the ultimate in traffic convenience and safety will not be reached until we actually provide adequate high

Today's engineers have designed tomorrow's highfar greater national import. They voted to ask Con ways. These magnificent roads will include terminal gress for an investigation and deportation of those facilities in cities whereby traffic will move to various alien "ism" groups, and they reaffirmed their faith in points with a minimum of congestion; main super highthe Bill of Rights as a living document designed for ways of many lanes, with divisions in the center to prevent head-on collisions, will carry cross-country traffic, This community is fortunate to have among its avoiding congested areas enroute; intermediate highcitizens a number of these true Americans, the We-ways will serve local traffic needs; even the lowest gionnaires. However, it is regrettable that the Legion's grade, little used roads will be given some cheap form gigantic made up Fiful Avenue could not have been of all-weather surface; reterial urban streets will carry made the entire length of the Lincoln Highway. Had into and thre cities and towns that part of rural main

This seems a far off ideal, but not long ago the automobile, the radie, the airplane, the telephone seem jed so too. The cost of developing highways and streets tof maximum safety on a national scale, will be tremen-It san unusual person who can say: That's none dous - but it will be spent over a long period of time of my hariners and I'm going to keep my ness out of and no form of expenditure by government can better serve the people. Better highways are not a cure-all for the accident problem—but when we develop our Talk about torture—can you think of anything roads to the point where the chance of accidents is re- The vines were severely pruned Two Danes have turned the caste are in New York this week attendmore agonizing than sitting in the barber's chair with duced to a minimum, a long step toward lowering our carly this spring, and there were of Hvidoere where Empress Dag- ing Grand Lodge. your mouth full of lather, watching the boy trying to ghastly annual toll of deaths will be taken.

We'd like to see a prize fight or football game that dried out, leaving only one or two hot dog stand. Well we know what the circus giant does on his was half as exciting as the radio announcer's version. | grapes on a bunch. What was

It is estimated that the American steel worker Professor M. B. Hoffman of the earns in one and one-half hours an amount equal in pomology department replies: "From The man who had determined to lead a handsome buying power to English workman's three and three-the description of the trouble, I feel girl and a wonderful cook to the altar was finally com- fourths hours, the German's seven hours and the Bel-sure that the fruit has been attack-

In 1836 the first railroad sleeping car was used Cornell bulletin E-306 on the di-People will sit up and take notice of you if you on a run between Harrisburg and Chambersburg, Pa. seases and insects of small fruits will sit up and take notice of what makes them sit up Twelve bunks with rough mattresses were provided for which has suggestions on the conthe passengers.

HOW, WHAT AND WHY?

The Andover News has arranged has stood on the books for farm and home. If you enclose mention the name of this paper, you make each one a separate communi-

Walls and Ceiling

Miss K. J. M. writes: "The ceil- mittee. ing and walls of our print shop have Miss Jennie Comstock underwent become so darkened by smoke that an operation for appendicitis last they absorb considerable light. What Friday. Dr. F. E. Comstock preparation would be best to refinish Wellsville performed the operation, inated at the Republican the, walls and ceiling, about 1200 assisted by Dr. E. J. Loughlen.

"The orginal finish is peeling in over depot Sunday morning. No one Richardson and E. R. Carpenter some places. Should this be removed was injured. before a new coating is applied and Mrs. D. E. Randolph is visiting in Highway Superintendent: what method is advised in applying Angelica and Nunda. the new coating?" Professor B. B. Robb of the de- employ of P. Cannon and Son.

partment of agricultural engineering Miss Nellie Potter is spending two the Poor; David Slocum, Calvin Si answers: "If the plaster is coming or three weeks with relatives in El-|cum, J. J. Brown, LeRoy Brundage off, new plaster is needed; or it may ton. N. Y. be better to use hard wall boards. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens and "If the plaster is good and the old Miss Fannie Spaulding visited last paint is dirty and peeling only in week in Oramel and Belfast. spots, remove all loose paint and Rev. V. L. Eggleston and Misses sandpaper the area smoothly. should be washed with sponge and vention in Elmira. water. Add some mild soap or lin- Miss Mary Doran left last Thurs-|seed oil soap to the water, also a day for several months visit small amount of washingpowder or relatives in Pittsburg, Pa. sal soda and a little flour and water Mr. and Mrs. William R. Orvis paste. Brush this mixture onto the are visiting in Elmira. wall with a wide brush, from the bottom upwards. Let it stand for three or four minutes and then

The flour paste tends to hold lenough to dissolve the dirt. "Some painters prefer to use a glue size, and we have also sent di-

"After the walls are thoroughly of huld " I be inted with any of the of stock, int dealer will undoubtedly have 🖹 good inside white in stock."

Grapes Attacked Mrs. S. D. inquires about grapes. prevent this loss. plenty of grapes this fall. They were mar of Russia used to live and spotted black, however, and some where royalty often visited, into a War never kills the ones who need ed by black rot. Our mailing room has sent you Itrol of black rot."

New Faculty Members at Houghton College

Houghton College, opening with the largest enrollment in its history starts this year with four new faculmembers. Dr. Harry Emerson Rosenberger comes to the Theological seminary of Houghton College Nazarene Wollaston, Mass. His undergraduate days were spent at John Fletcher College. His graduate study was taken at Columbia and New York universities, receiving his Ph.D. from the latter institution. Miss Helen Herr of Lancaster 'a., has been hired as an assistant in the voice department. Miss Herr took her professional training Westminister Choir School where for three years she sang in the world famous Westminister choir, which traveled extensively thruout Europe 1935-36. Miss Herr is assistant Wilfred C. Bain who has been! onductor of the Houghton College choir for the past six years. Mr. Harold Boon of Newcastle, Pa., is a new member of the Hough ton faculty. His instructorship in the fields of economics and sociol ogy. Mr. Boon graduated from Houghton College in 1935, and since has pursued his graduate study at

New York University. Mr. Harold McNeese heads Geneva College, Pa. His -

FORTY YEARS AGO OCT. 6, 1897

Moshor & Greene, Editor & Publisher J. Harvey Backus, Owner & Editor and Mrs. Lyman Baham made them While taking down an oil rig on an agreeable surprise last Saturday the Frisbey farm, John Burdick was their 32nd wedding anniversary. blew the walking beam down strikcars near the tower just below And- John Common, Town Clerk: 1

Miss Ella Garvin has entered the Assessors; Thomas M. Comstant

Minnie Clair and Rena Slocum are "Perhaps the walls and ceiling attending the Y.P.S.C.E. State Con-

Agrigraphs sponge off with clear warm water cut silage corn should never be left day by the serious illness of their in the field over night, as the loss of daughter, Mrs. C. C. Demmer. Isap means poorer quality.

f improved permanent pasture, and Mrs. Frank Crandall at Wells ied and reaned and the rough properly managed, is enough for each! ville. lear or ler equivalent in other kinds An inch of top soil may be lost guests of Mrs. Clarke's parents, Mr. from a slope under cultivation in and Mrs. Wm. Fulmer Monday and one year, whereas it took nature 400 Tuesday. years to develop that same inch of l

International Agent

Our own Uncle Sam small and dark and has many in his employ, and they for a native in any of the Spanish

a certain background that is need-"Yes," he said "I have

THRTY YEARS AGO OCT. 11, 1907

5-Minute Biographies L

Author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

glance every day.

He was proud of the fact that he little girl no one had ever looked at l eted passport to the Ziegfelt stage.

The glamor was supplied by Zieg-

He Borrowed $5,000 to Hire a Special Train

You answered it?"

showed the rest.

from Ed Wynn and spent that five thousand, borrowed money to hire

He made women feel beautiful l twice and transformed her on the served. He often took some drab the naughty Nineties.

FLORENZ ZIEGFELD

He Knew the Telephone Numbers of

More Beautiful Girls Than Any

Man in History

Wild West Show.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. John Burdick Instantly Killed celebrating instantly killed when a gust of wind At the Democratic caucus last Sat- ing him squarely on the head. He the county convention. James P. and daughter, five brothers and four Cannon, Frank Prest and T. K. Re-Isisters, and his mother. gan were chosen as the town com- Services were held at the home Monday afternoon.

> The following officers were , Orange Smith, Supervisor: Justices of the Peace; J. J. Warfield Hincer, J. C. Greene, E. E. Clarke Collector; C. E. Hann, Overseer L. E. Howland, Constables.

Albert Potter and Vaughn Starr have purchased the bakery and r turant business of E. G. Hall. J. Harvey Backus was in Buffalo on business Friday and Saturday. Andrew Fuller passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Fu Mrs. W. G. Kaple passed Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Lean Cook of Wellsville.

Mrs. C. W. Williams is visiting relatives and friends in Plainfield

Mrs. LaRue Crandall and daugh-When pasture improvement is in ter Jennie passed Sunday guests of 'full swing, an acre or a little more Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerr and Mr Mr. and Mrs. Will Clarke and son Charles of Little Genesee ere

Mrs. G. B. Proper D. D. G. M. and 'soil. Conservation measures help to Mrs. Lottie Richardson, Matron o Anna, McArthur Chapter O. E. S.

sometimes called spies, United States and joined the Unit-

"Later I served in Chile, at Valpariso and many other cities. My

I stopped in Wilmington, Delaware on my way and talked with a big official of a well known company. plans, but that because of the un-

Auto Group Backs Flat Three Dollar License Fee

Police Force, Favors

flat $3 state registration fee for all

Florenz Ziegfeld knew the tele-ja week; but under his profligate used only for traffic work. nhone numbers of more beautiful reign, femine pulchritude reached girls than any other man living. In a market price of $125 a week. seven-point program adopted by the association the past year and pre- Mrs. S. L. Travis, Miss Ellen numbers of thousands of glamorous age of fourteen. Running away The association elected Binghamwas called the Glorifier of the Amer- cleaning up a fortune as manager version of motor vehicle tax funds president, Mrs. George McKinley, business visitor in Geneva.

Opposes the use of parking me-i Two years later, he was in Lon-! ters and asks that the legislature, don-broke-without a shilling to Being penniless never worried this fixing". great entrepreneur. By the sheer Opposes proposed legalized fin-

Opposes compulsory sensational star in Europe—the—vivacious scintillating, the palpitating The association named six direc-Anna Held-the Mae West of her tors, including William J. Gottieb, Ogdensburg; James M. Mangan, The most canny producers America had been cabling and plead-Rochester: Ernest W. Manning. ing with Anna Held to come to Albany: Edwin C. Tierney, Bing-New York. They had tempted her hamton; and J. Mack Young, New with extravagant offers. Yet it was York City. Florenz Ziegfeld, only twenty-seven | Six zone directors named this years old, practically unknown, and vear for the first time were J. R.

walked into her dressing room, Stevenson, Buffalo; charmed her, got her name on a ger, Corning; R. Roland Barrett, contract and started skyrocketing to Ithaca: Carl Willmsen, Newburgh, and Jaseph M. Coffey, Schenectady. Anna Held was an immediated sensation. She took America b. storm. Corsets, face powder, hats, trash of today becomes the antique perfumes, horses, cocktails, puppies treasure of tomorrow. land cigars were named in her honor. She was toasted in champagne from coast to coast. And within a year. Florenz Ziegfeld married her.

tate. He squandered millions of dollars on costumes, combing the mar- complete stock to her home-sent for the most beautiful fabrics orchids and carnations to the orange of dresses had to be of the finest Billie Burke told him that she had feel really beautiful unless she just had not been able to because his had beautiful cloth against her skin. line was busy, he had a golden He did everything on a lavish phone installed with a special ring scale. Although he communicated for her private use. with hundreds of people he never Ziegfeld loved indecision. He troubled to dictate a letter. Tele- hated to make up his mind. He grams and cables fluttered in his used to keep a box of licorice drops wake like autumn leaves in a gale on his desk; and when a friend of wind. Wherever he went, he asked him if he really liked licorice carried with him a telegraph blank. he said: I'll tell you why I eat them. He used to get on a train at Grand They're all black, so I don't have Central Terminal and use a whole to make up my mind which color pad of telegraph blanks before he like hest." grams to people who were within could make him crack a smile. out of his window and yelled at a the nickname of "Ice Water!" man in the window opposite: "Say,

"Curtain!" he cried. "Fast Music! Street without batting an eye. He Lights! Ready for the last finale!" once borrowed five thousand dollars "|And finally he murmured: "Great: The show looks good __The show

For Sale in Andover at

Would Increase the State

dorsed Saturday a proposal for a new charge.

Both proposals were part of a wards was vice president of the his Blue Book of Beauty were listed Ziegfeld's first venture into show association at the final session of its sided at the meeting Saturday. the names, addresses and telephone business was made at the precocious annual convention.

mystery and seduction. Form and his name. He'd staked his luck at provision for local voting on their Condemns the practice of "ticket-1

Ziegfeld was as regal in his ex-travagances as an Oriental poten- witchery of his manner, he got to-gether another show and sailed back class legislation. in triumph to America with the most

New York City; J. Gerald Dubrule,, without a dime in his pocket, who Crossley, New York City;

Uncle Ab says the second-hand

IN THE MORNING

WITH MILK!

When you've been working too sons accumulate in your system, and jumpy. Next time, just drink

Tree to bed, some more in the you feel fresher and beener. The Bureau

a glass or two of milk before you definite affealine effect, it helps to map you back to par, miskes hard or losing sleep, acid poi-

'. Many years later, after he had ally in love with Billie Burke. The very day he met her, he bought out an entire flower shop and sent the kets of Europe and India and Asia her everything from sweet peas and money could buy. Even the linings trees in the window. And when silk, for he claimed no woman could tried to thank him by telephone but

He hired most of the famous sat in the orchestra during rehearlies; but he himself never laughed the satisfactor of sals and sent telegrams to people at their antics. Neither Ed Wynn across the footlights. He sent tele- nor Eddie Cantor not Will Rogers range of his voice. He once leaned was so cool that his actors gave him Ziegfeld died in 1932 in Califor-

I sent you a telegram. Why haven't nia and as he slipped into the delirium of death, he imagined he was It was almost impossible for himi directing a revue. He staged it in to walk past a telehpone booth with- a white hospital room, his orchestra out stopping to call up a dozen peo- was only a radio, and for a stage ple; and he got out of bed almost crew he had nothing but his terrievery morning at six o'clock in order fied valet. His lips were parched, and his eyes were glowing He could scheme for hours to fever, but he sat up in bed and save seventeen or eighteen dollars; shouted his directions to an invisand the next day, he'd drop a hun-lible cast.

THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Minister Is Transfered Rev. Shirley L. Travis, who has Mrs. Cook. W. G. Kellogg extended thodist Church for the past five Mr. McCarty, Vice-principal res- sociation here Thursday evening. field. Rev. E. L. Haws of Cohocton troduced each member of the fac- ill at the home of her daughter, Fees for Other Than Roads will become pastor of the Church ulty. Mr. Hussey, Superintendent of Mrs. J. H. Goodno, does not show next Sunday. Their many Green-Schools sang a solo. Mrs. Charles much improvement. Saranac Lake—The New York wood friends wish Rev. and Mrs. Bassett gave a humorous reading. Carroll Wallace underwent an State Automobile Association en Travis success and happiness in their A social hour followed during which operation for appendicitis at St. lice cream and cake were served.

Attend Genesco Luncheen Mrs. Daniel Redmond, Mrs. H. C. Fay Taylor, who has been under Westfield, Pa., to Rochester where At the same time the Association McCaffery, Miss Grace Young, Miss observation and treatment in Strong they visited their father, Fay Taylor. went on record in favor of increas- Luella Edwards and Miss Virgil Memorial Hospital, Rochester for Mr. and Mrs. George Wearkley ing the state police force by 250 Slaght were in Andover Saturday to more than three weeks underwent and son John of Wayland spent men, the additional members to be attend the luncheon of Allegany an operation last week from which Tuesday with relatives here. County Geneseo Alumni. Miss Ed- he is making satisfactory recovery.

Young and Miss Grace Young . Fifty or sixty aspiring young from home he became a trick rider ton as the site of its 1938 meeting.

S paraded before his critical and favor shoctor in Purcle Bills | The course point record Diagrams | Parent-Leachers Association | Rochester Sunday.

More than one hundred people | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | BITS OF | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young spent | Mr. and Mrs. Wm. And Mrs. Wm. Young spent | Venuses paraded before his critical and fancy shooter in Buffalo Bill's The seven-point program also: attended the first meeting of the the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E Urges a state constitutional Greenwood Parent - Teachers Asso- mer Gifford in Buffalo. At the age of twenty-five he was amendment designed to prevent di-ciation last Thursday evening. The Orville Matthews was a recent ican Girl. It was a title richly de- to Sandow, the husky strong man of to any but highway building pur- presided. The meeting opened with Mrs. Clarence Stephens and infant a selection by the Central School son, Lavern Clarence have returned home from Bethesda Hospital. Mrs. M. L. Brundage and Mrs. Stewart Muchler were called to West Union Thursday by the sudden Mr. and Mrs. Umberto Clavelli of a cordial welcome to the teachers. Bolivar attended Parent-Teachers as-' Mrs. Sarah Redmond, who is very

Miss Louise Taylor accompanied

Results the Same Barber, to customer: "Is the razor

Customer: "Oh, no, it's just hanging on and you're doing the pull-

Rather Pointed It was at a press banquet. The following toast was offered:

"Here's to the ladies, second only Exact Directions A farmer who had engaged a city farmer got some paint and proceeded to mark the boards for the guidance of his hired hand. "There," he said, "now you can't 'go wrong. The one with that B on for 'before' and the other one youth for work experienced much trouble. The boy continually put the end boards in the wagon box wrong. Finally the exasperated lwith the B on is for 'behind' Safety First "We're going to New York after our first appearance on the radio." "That's a good idea. They say that a big city is the best place for

THERE'S A REASON ... There's a reason why you instincception. It's the only expenditure a business tively turn to the merchant who edvertises when you want depend-

'Advertising builds his sales, increases his business. The lower When you see a local storekeeper's ad in your home town paper, you can be sure he has considered the buyer's interest as well as his own.

THE EDITOR

merchandise at reasonable taking it in. Expense items are headaches for the business man, with one exception. Money paid for advertising is the single ex-executive will regard with pleasure, for he knows his money is being invested, not lost.

Paying money out is always less pleasant than

Advertising is an investment — something paid out today to assure more income tomorrow. Building demand for merchandise thru advertising is just as important as buying goods. Advertising not only creates demand and builds good-will; it makes money

THE ANDOVER NEWS