Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Truman Burdick Married 50 Years
Open House Received Nearly 200 Guests

On October 12, 1887, Truman Burdick and Miss Mary L. Hines, both of the town of Andover, united in marriage by the Rev. J. W. Saunders at the home of Mrs. J. W. Saunders Randolph on South Main street where they began their married life together and where their first child, Elwood, was born. When Elwood was born, the young couple were married and their eldest child, Elwood, was born in the same apartment. One interesting fact about these worthy people is that their homes were but two miles apart, and lived at no time more than a few miles distant from their old home. Mr. and Mrs. Burdick and their friends with them and nearly 200 guests called on the afternoon of Tuesday at their home. A very interesting program was presented, consisting of a quartet, Messrs. Ira F. Bond, Wayland Pierce, and Mrs. M. J. Pierce. Instrumental music was furnished by the grandchild following original poem by Mrs. I. Pierce:

In a neat little home
Of the road
Lives our neighbor
Honest, industrious,
Living an abundant
Life of 50 years as tea
They have traveled
Together
Facing the storms
Joyous in fairer
Living each day just
Till the end
Being the best that
Life has to offer
Loved by their friends
Here the friends and
