SUPPORT A. H. S. ACTIVITIES

One of the outstanding events of the high school year is the Junior play. It is being produced soon, November 18th and 19th, in fact. Give it your support. Buy at least one ticket. Remember, it is up to the entire student body to patronize and support all school activities.

Our Homemakers

WHAT IS HOME MAKING?
By Miss Mary Wood

Homemaking education has changed greatly since the time when foods and clothing were the only subjects that were studied. From the third grade thru college. It was after the home-making curriculum was criticized for lack of intellectual material for high school and college training that the scientific aspects of homemaking were emphasized, and the scientific laboratory set up in modified form was adopted to homemaking education centers.

"Yimmie Yonson" To Be In Town Next Week

"Yimmie Yonson," blond woolly headed Swede from "Mannasota" will appear in person on the Andover High school stage next Thursday and Friday evenings, in one of the cleverest, most riotous productions a high school class has ever put on.

Bits of Knowledge

English IV.—One of the most interesting movements in British drama of the present period has been the attempt to found an Irish National theatre. This is an attempt on the part of several writers of Irish nationality to preserve Irish folklore, traditions and superstitions in dramatic form.

ARMISTICE DAY

Noted Speaker on Assembly Program

George Elias, famous lecturer and adventurer, gave a very interesting and informative talk in assembly Monday, Nov. 8th.

1937-38 Basketball Prospects

When the Class of 1937 received their diplomas from Andover High School and went on to other educational institutions, Andover's hopes for a championship basketball team went with them.

Charles Burgett has shown flashes of his real ability at guard position, but the erratic play of Frankie Witter and the lackadaisical movements of Gerald Dolan are fast dropping them to the reserve squad.

ANDOVER GETS OUTSTANDING PICTURE

The most distinguished motion picture to reach the screen since the beginning of talkies comes to the Andover theatre Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 13-14, in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer photoplay version of Pearl S. Buck's widely read novel "The Good Earth."

What's In A Surname?

Do you know how there came to be such a variety of names? It is not known how long family names have been in use, but it is believed that the Normans, about the year 1000, adopted this method of identifying people for nobility.
