

Supervisors Have Finished Work of Annual Session

Nearly All Agencies Ask For Increase in Their Appropriations. Becomes Problem of the Supervisors

The Allegany County Board of Supervisors has completed its work of its annual session. Here are the highlights of its completed work: The county clerk's office had an increase of $20,744 during the past year. Expenses of the office were $15,000, leaving a profit to the county of $5,000.

The report of Child Welfare cared for from 105 to 124 children at a time last year at a cost of 11.14 per month each. It asks for $10,000 for the coming year.

Some difficulty with milk and bread weights was reported by Allen W. Corwin, Wellsville, county sealer, in his comprehensive annual report. He tested 6,810 scales and found but 512 defective, traveling 5,348 miles to do so.

The county laboratory, in the year past, examined 8,331 specimens, the largest number since its inception in 1916, a gain of 7.3 per cent over the number last year.

The county laboratory, in the year past, examined 8,331 specimens, the largest number since its inception in 1916, a gain of 7.3 per cent over the number last year.

Penitentiary prisoners will be sent to Monroe county this coming year, authorization being given by board of fees to sign contracts with that institution.

The annual report of Sheriff F. VanDyke Jones showed that 225 prisoners had been received and 4,361 days had been served with fines totaling $1,299 collected.

The three county public health nurses made 3,714 calls last year, their report showed. Five hundred and eight persons were examined for tuberculosis; maternity cases accounted for 165 calls, new mothers for 103, and other mothers, 983.

County Treasurer's Report: County Treasurer Claude I. Cummings presented his report of income and outlay according to the state accepted form, including 24 pages of complicated figures.

Welfare Outlays to be Higher: One of the important budgets of the session was that brought in for welfare outlays during the coming year. It calls for $174,378 which is some $46,000 more than was given last year.

The rates for various towns, prepared by the equalization committee, were approved. They are: Alfred, 97 per cent; Allen, 99; Alma and Almond, 100; Amity, 99; Andover and Angelica, 100; Belfast, 99; Birdsall, 97; Bolivar, Burns and Caneadea, 99; Centerville, 100; Clarksville, 99; Cuba and Friendship, 100; Genesee, 98; Granger, 99; Grove, 100; Hume, 99; Independence 98; New Hudson, 99; Rushford, 96; Scio, Ward, Wellsville, West Almond and Willing, 100; Wirt, 99.

Totals of assessment rolls showed valuations up $2,626,000 over what they were one year ago and now totalling $63,811,900.

Expenses of the county-town-village workmen's compensation self insurance plan were reported lower $800 over last year. The total paid out was given as $5,556.78. The first death claim met since adoption of the co-operative plan was incurred in the fatal accident at Canaserra when the street commissioner, driving a truck, was struck by an Erie train and killed.

Lower Children in Court: Lower collections from parents and guardians in Children's Court and fewer delinquent children was reported by Judge Ward M. Hopkins. Only 250 wards of the court, compared with 540 one year ago, were reported. But 27 children were made wards of the court, against 112 last year.

The annual appropriation of $300 to the Allegany County Volunteer Firemen's Association met not one adverse vote.

The bovine tuberculosis committee is seeking $2,170.

County Fair Asks More: Angelica fair directors have asked for $2,000 next year, instead of the $1,000 given it this year. It reported receipts from this year's show of $17,034.19 but expenses and premiums were high, $20,534.29.

Among bills audited were a number for workers with bees eliminating foul brood. The appropriation of $500 made one year ago was stated as having been all used up—except 18 cents.

Conduct of the county home cost $32,954.96 last year, slightly less than the year before. Outside relief cost materially more than last year, totalling $80,193.42.

Old Age Assistance applications have risen to 1,186, against 877 one year ago. Actual expense to the county for these grants this year was $23,157.71 which is $2,500 under last year.

Farm Bureau Membership Up: Farm Bureau membership was reported by Agent Earl C. Foster as having risen to the highest point in the organization's history, 1,097 men.

An appropriation of $3,500, the same amount as last year, was asked. Twenty-eight working units with 685 members and 5,865 women attending unit meetings last year were reported by the Home Bureau.

Interest in poultry was responsible for the largest single list of projects among the 474 boys and 174 girls enrolled in 1937 work, according to the 14th Club report of Agent Louis E. Harton.

Of the county hospitals, annually given $1,000 each, reporting to the board, two Cuba, and Wellsville, reported deficits of small amounts in operating. Fillmore's Genesee Country hospital, was $200 ahead. In Cuba 114 patients who were county charges were cared for and in Wellsville, 209 last year, 154 in 1935.

Sandwiches for the school lunch box can be made of whole wheat, graham, oatmeal, white, raisin, nut or Boston brown bread. Bread that is at least 24 hours old cuts more easily.

Cleanliness and prompt cooling of the cream are important in making butter on the farm.

Junior High School Play Was Fine

The play "Yimmie Yonson's Yob" put on by the Junior Class of Andover High School last Thursday and Friday evening was fine.

The cast all took their respective rolls in a professional manner reflecting much credit to themselves and their directors.

The only thing we could see lacking in the play was the support given it by Andover people. The play deserving a much better audience than it received.

West Greenwood Grange Meets—Elected Officers

The regular meeting of the West Greenwood Grange was held at their hall on Nov. 17th, with a good attendance of 28 present.

A business meeting and election of officers followed. It was also voted that the next meeting was to be held Dec. 4, with an oyster supper at 12:30 and installation to follow at 2 o'clock.

A good time is always assured at these meetings and a good attendance is desired. All members are especially urged to come and visitors are welcome.

See the West Greenwood correspondence for the 1938 officers of the West Greenwood Grange.

Brother Dies in Oklahoma

Eugene Forham, Jr. brother of Mrs. Edward Horan of Dyke street, passed away at Drumright, Okla., Friday. Mr. Forham has been engaged in the Oklahoma oil-fields for the past 30 years.

He is survived by his wife, one brother, John Forham of Cleveland and the following sisters: Mrs. T. J. Duffy, Seranton, Pa.; Mrs. Harry Sullivan, Mexico City; Mrs. Edward S. Horan, Andover; Miss Katherine Forham and Mrs. John Harrington, Wellsville.

Burial was made in Oklahoma.

Alfred Ag. Students Living in Shack

James and Robert Keough of Canaserra, not being able to find living accommodations in keeping with their finances, "took to the woods."

Cuba Residents Die From Burns

Jack Williams, 40 and Florence, his 12-year-old daughter, died at the Cuba hospital Sunday from burns received when flames swept the kitchen of their home.

Williams used kerosene oil to start the fire in the kitchen stove. The kerosene exploded, setting fire to his clothing and the kitchen. His daughter's clothing also caught fire when she tried to help extinguish the fire.

They got permission of Lester Burdick to build a shack in his woods, where they have stretched tarpaper over a wooden frame, lined the structure with wallboard and installed two cots, two chairs and a wood stove.

James is taking the dairy manufacturing course and Robert the special electrical course.
