"Christmas"

When Mary's Little Baby came On that first Christmas night, What wonders set the sky aflame. And filled the place with light!

Oh, every child asleep, I know, Had dreams of joyous things, Of heavenly music, soft and low, And nearing angel-wings.

How sweet to have been one of them, Those children ever blest, Who slept so near in Bethlehem When Christ came there to rest!

For with the morn one might have crept

Unto the manger bare, Where sound the little Baby slept, To leave a present there.

Oh, to have seen Him in the hay, The cattle standing by, Each creature turning where He lay A loving, wistful eye!

Oh, to have touched His little hand, Closed happily above Some gift a child could understand, Some gift the Lord would love!

"MY CHRISTMAS LIST" - - By Rev. H. E. Wilson

At this season of the year many people are rushing to and fro, and scratching their heads, trying to make out lists to give presents to their love ones, and to their many friends, but yet it is often wondered, if even a moment's consideration is being given to the real meaning of Christmas wh seems so obscure to us, nowaday. . . . . When we stop and think, our minds are taken back to a scene, which occurred over nineteen hundred years ago the little town of Bethlehem in the land of Judea. Was born unto us a little babe, who had no place to lay His sweet head, but yet stripped of all heavenly splendor and glory, He came and lived amongst men, and then gave His life to mankind, that we might find a way of escape from the sin wh ensnares us, and leads us on the downward road to destruction, and a life of eternal torment and a living hell.

Surely instead of leaving Christ out of our lives, not only at Christmas time, but always; we should raise our hearts in song and praise for birth of the Christ-child, and sing as did the angels of old, to the weary and lonely shepherds on the hills of Judea; and the Wise Men, who followed brilliant star, which was fore-told so many years before, and all men were looking for. Oh, why! Oh, why can't we like they, read and believe that w is written, and give ourselves to the Christ-child and live in newness of life in Him for evermore?

Well has the poet put into words that which we should do, at Christmas time and give to the Christ-child ourselves:

Have you made your Christmas list? Thought of everyone? Grandpa, Grandma, Mother and Dad, Daughter too, and son?

Have you made your Christmas list? Giving's in the air! Nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, Friends from everywhere.

Have you made your Christmas list? Yes, beyond a doubt! It is Jesus' Birthday, too, Did you leave Him out? Make His gift the first of all!

"Inasmuch as ye Did it to the least of Mine, Ye have given to Me."

Christmas Gift to all the world— Dearest, first and best! When I make my Christmas list, His name leads the rest.
