Student Publications Exchange

Exchange

The Allegany County Press Association has recently been organized for the purpose of encouraging school newspapers and inspiring students to write for publication. It was decided that in order to enliven school neuropease to wait for a wise plan to introduce a system of exchange amount to various who hoof this section. So far the blea hoof worked out vary well.

The to the first the The Hi Her ald is published in the Yndover News we have been unable to exchange our paper with papers from other schools, but we have received sever al requests for exchange along with copies of the publications. The school papers that have been sent to us from surrounding communities are mimeographed monthly. Among these are Alfred, Whitesville and Arkport. Each paper has been carefully read by the Hi Herald steff.

Altho Wellsville had a tal! team they were no match for the local boys, who showed a supremacy both on field throws and free tries. This game marked the fourth time which the Andover team has downed Wellsville in the last three years.

as the beginning of another twelve months.

It is a day set aside for religious services, parties and gay dances to watch the old year out an the new year in. Coach McGce started the game quarter a new team consisting of Burgett, Dugan, Saunders, Dolan and Greene was rushed in to replace the starting team. The half ended with the score 19 to 9.

In the third quarter the in the turn quarter the two teams scored about evenly. In the fourth quarter, Andover resumed to enlarge its lead and the game ended 35 to 19.
