How About a Skating Rink?

There has been quite a rumor going about concerning an ice-skating rink in town. Is there anything to it? Several of the students have been trying to find out who is sponsoring it, if it is being done, but haven't had much luck.

Whether there is to be one or not I believe, as well as many others, that such a plan would be a very good one.

The Andover pond has, for many years, been a good place of recreation; but, if a part of the Athletic Field could be in some way flooded and fixed into a rink, it would be a nearby place to go skating as well as a safe place for smaller children whose parents would otherwise be worrying as to whether they would be falling in. We all hope there can be some arrangements made towards such a proposition.

Regents Record Is Good

Altho relatively few pupils took Regents examinations this January in Andover High School, the results were very satisfactory, according to a statement issued by Principal Glenn E. Bretsch. Of the 29 papers written in high school subjects, 26 were given a passing mark and sent on to Albany for final review by the State Education Department.

Only one paper prevented a perfect record for local school pupils in the preliminary Regents. The following completes the list of pupils who passed Regents examinations:

English 3 Years

Rosemary Lynch 70, Veronica Lynch 71.

Typing

Ernest Burdick 70, Mary Teresa Burns 83, Richard McAndrew 66, Aline Reisman 69.

The name of Arthur Temple was omitted from the Regents marks in silent reading last week. His mark was 96 in the subject.

Two New Classes Start

Economic Geography II and trigonometry are two new courses which are being offered this semester to the students.

All of the economic geography I class of last semester is registered in Economic geography II and two new members, Mary T. Burns and Marion Burgett have entered.

The members of the intermediate algebra class of last semester are registered in trigonometry class. Leo Nobles has also joined their ranks.

Four Students Move Up

Thursday morning four high school students advanced to a higher class. This was made possible by passing the January Regents in the subjects the students lacked.

Guess Who

This Sophomore boy I'm speaking of is well known to us all; He's small and light with freckled face, And likes his basketball. His reddish hair and merry grin Are well known in the halls; Have you guessed yet the Sophomore boy whom every one calls —
Last week's Guess Who—Monte Ross, Greene.

Andover Loses To Angelica

The Purple and White lost their second game in ten starts last Friday night to the Angelica High School team by a score of 28 to 21. The game was played on the Angelica court and a capacity audience was present to witness the encounter. The scoring was very close thruout the game, with the Angelica team holding a slight lead a majority of the time.

In the first quarter, Andover was unable to break into the scoring column as the Angelica team scored five. The second quarter proved to be better for Andover, however, as they scored ten points. The score at the end of the half was 17 to 10 in Angelica's favor.

In the third quarter the purple and white tightened down and held Angelica to only one point. Andover scored six this period. The game went into the last quarter with only two points difference between the scores. Andover scored the first basket this quarter to tie the score up. Angelica then scored, followed by an Andover basket by Joyce to tie the score again at 20-20. In the last two minutes of the game a sudden rally by Angelica netted eight points for them which won the game.

Joyce was the highest scorer for Andover with eight points. Briggs was next high with seven. E. Crawford led the Angelica attack both on offense, with 12 points, and on defense.

Summary follows:

Pep Meeting Held Friday

A pep meeting was held in the high school gym Friday afternoon, under the direction of Coach McGee. He urged the student body to attend as many out-of-town games as possible and while there to be a real "team booster." He said that if the Purple Panthers were to be successful this year much of the responsibility depended on the cheering section.

What sport do you like best?—Basketball.

What subjects are you taking?—Chemistry, trig, English IV, typing.

Do you like school?—No.

Have you attended any other schools?—Wellsville.

What year of high school did you like best?—Freshman.

What subject did you like best?—Latin.

What subject did you dislike most?—Chemistry.

What is your favorite food?—Scalloped potatoes.

What is your favorite movie?—Dawn Patrol.

Who is your favorite actor?—Errol Flynn or Ronald Reagan.

Who is your favorite actress?—Loretta Young.

What sport are you inexperienced in, but would like to be able to enjoy?—Skiing.

What would you like to do when you get out of school?—Go in training so I can be a nurse.

Josephine, better known as "Jo," is a very popular girl around A. H. S. She belongs to the Hi Herald staff, is a cheer leader, and is the treasurer of the Dramatic Club. Altho she enjoys bothering the boys, she can be serious at times. We are sure she will achieve her aim, to be a nurse, because when she says she will do something you can rely upon her to do it.

Alfred Girls Hold Play Day

Eight A. H. S. Girls Attend

Eight of the Andover High School girls went to Alfred on Saturday afternoon where another Play Day was held.

As they entered the gym, they were given ribbons either green, red, yellow or blue, in order to designate the teams.

The girls shot baskets until they were ready to start the first game. The games which they played were: Progressive dodge ball; ping pong and captain basketball.

The Alfred girls served refreshments which consisted of cocoa, cake and sandwiches. While they were eating, the "Red" team received candy bars for being the winners.

After Mr. Holmes had made two trips, all the Andover girls were finally brought back and they reported a good time.

The girls who attended the play day activities follow:

Anna Hardy, Jessie Burger, Betty Jo Ludden, Kathleen Howland, Regina Richardson, Patricia Lynch, Irene Lynch, Marjorie Bergman.

Juniors to Hold Dance

There is much conversation in the Junior Home Room as the Juniors plan a dance, to be held Friday, Feb. 10 at the Andover High School Auditorium. Music will be furnished by the "Swingsters," with admission at 75 cents per couple. There will be dancing from 9 o'clock to 1.

The committees are as follows: Invitation: A. Reisman, chairman; B. Greene, J. Northrup, V. Lynch. Property: V. Conner, chr.; R. Hall, L. Dean. Tickets: L. Dodge, A. Matison.

Around A. H. S. With C. Coryell

Believe it or not, Miss Cappuccelli couldn't think of Bud-Dolan's name the other day.

Any Homemakers who are interested in antiques there are "Chats on Antiques" in the Rochester Times every Thursday.

Even dogs like to come to school seemingly, at least one liked it last Friday a. m.

We wish to thank Mrs. Saunders for furnishing a car for transportation to the A. C. S. P. A. meeting at Fillmore last Thursday.

Too bad our editor couldn't go with us.

That night was the first time Mr. Bretsch had ever seen the famous gym there. It is queer and talking about queer gyms, Angelica has a novel one which few Andoverites like, especially after the game the other night.

Let's everyone get out to the ball game tonight. Help Andover to win a league game.

Blue and green seem to be the favorite colors of the girls who went to Fillmore. Most all the girls wore blue dresses and green coats.

Barbara Temple is really a good composer, as shown by the music which was in the music room.

Hold everything! The window in the study hall is going out. There has been a lot of trouble with the window but Mr. Beebe has a solution.

Help the March of Dimes. You might be the next unsuspecting victim. There is a very good article in Room A about a new cure for infantile paralysis which is well worth reading.

There are two especially good articles on the bulletin board in the library. One is about the reason that Japan gives for going into China, the reason is "to save Asia for the Asiatics."

The February Reader's Digest has a great many very interesting articles for students.

Students of Economics will be interested in "Manuel Quezon" general science and physics students will really enjoy "The Glass Giant of Palomar."

Are you "weather wise?" is especially interesting now.

Maybe if the students would learn to play bridge and other card games, the class card parties would be a greater success.

Just think of having two Betty Greens in school! One is a Freshman and the other is a Junior.

Charlie Spicer and Jack Saunders were apt pupils for Miss Wood. They learned to wash and dry dishes

Hi Herald Best Represented at Fillmore

Twelve members of the Hi Herald staff attended the Allegany Press meeting at Fillmore on Thursday, Jan. 26th to participate in this rapidly growing club's activities.

The group left Andover in cars driven by Mr. Bretsch and Jack Saunders, arriving for a pleasant meal at the Rebekah lodge, where entertainment and autographs were received.

The meeting was held in the Fillmore high school auditorium and assembled there were approximately 125 students and advisers. The guest speaker was Mrs. Jeannette P. Deuel from the Elmira Free Academy, who is faculty adviser of the paper there. Well acquainted with newspaper work, she pointed out that four qualities are needed before a pupil need ever think of becoming a reporter. They are: ambition, loyalty, initiative, and imagination.

"An editor," she said, "should never let his personal feelings and pet 'peevess' enter into his work. Even tho he thoroughly dislikes a fellow student, he should not use his position as a tool over him and refuse to let his name be in current events." One point made clear by Mrs. Deuel was that editors-in-chief should be chosen, not by the staff or by the principal, but by the faculty adviser, who knows each member and what material he hands in and how he does it. Mrs. Deuel's criticism of the Hi Herald was favorable. She especially noted the headlines, the Guess Who and the Around Andover High columns.

The meeting closed with the decision that the next get-together will be held at Belfast in March.

Song Quizz

Each one of the following sentences represents a popular song of the day or a song which has remained popular for years. Try your luck and write down your guesses. Next week, compare the answers and find out if you're up to date on the current tunes:

Example: "Betake yourself from Andover," means "Get Out of Town."

1 This cannot be a strong feeling of affection.

2 This is one of the suits of cards drawn with a conventional design in red and the last part is the essential part of a person's identity.

3 Once upon a time, a small animal in "Popeye" was called the first name because he was troubled by the last.

4 Forever.

5 Produce a melodious tune or you'll not devour any food tonight.

6 I'll bet you were a comely bannino.

7 I have mementoes from June thru September.

8 I'm offering an expression of gratitude for all that is concerned in a given manner.

9 The sixtieth part of an hour.

10 A weakened or diminished counterpart which is the color of clean snow.

11 My parents used to be together every evening before they were married.

12 Give us some more tunes, master of music.

13 An aged man at the county home.

14 Smoke comes to my power of observation.

15 A sluggish couple at dawn.

16 I can see.

17 Intimately.

18 The turning dancer has a sweet heart.

19 People will continue to gossip.

20 Which one extinguished the blaze?

21 During the time that a small amount of finely cut tobacco was combining with oxygen.

22 Mr. Jones holds the highest executive office of the land.

23 I'm absorbed in a state-of-absorption.

24 Expedite to my abode.

25 Affection doesn't flourish on timber.

26 A street which originated in England.

27 My state of abstraction.

28 Change from the stars.

29 It might.

School Contributes Twelve Dollars

Mrs. S. B. Scott, who is in charge of the "March of Dimes" drive in Andover, wishes to thank the school for their sizeable contribution. The total amount of $12 was the contribution of both the pupils and the faculty.

Meeting of Homemaking Teachers Is Held

Two Members of Faculty Attend

The Homemaking teachers in the schools of this county and the principals of the respective schools, held a dinner meeting at Pickup's restaurant in Wellsville, Jan. 25, to discuss plans for using the Federal funds appropriated for each school. Andover High School was represented by the Homemaking teacher, Miss Wood, and Principal, Glenn E. Bretsch.

During the meeting they discussed possibilities of having adult classes in Homemaking and also teaching homemaking in the homes. The meeting concluded by agreeing that each department should figure out its own method of spending the money it receives from the appropriation of the Federal Government.

"First Nighter" Presents Mystery Tomorrow Night

Every Friday night at 8 o'clock over WHEC, "First Nighter" presents original half-hour plays. As a rule, these plays are usually "light" dramas but tomorrow night "The Mystery of the Star" will be provided for your entertainment. Popular music is also an added feature.

Phil Baker, the ace comedian who brings you a riotous new variety show, can be heard at 9 over WHEC on Saturdays. At 9:30 over the same station on Saturdays, "Saturday Night Sorehead" is presented. This program plays many of the new songs from recent motion pictures and songs that have remained popular for many years.

Directly following this is "Your Hit Parade" at 10. Mark Warner's orchestra and the Raymond Scott quintet reveal the ten most popular songs of the week and a few "extras."

Attention, chemistry students! Tonight, at 7:15 over WGR, Prof. Enrico Fermi, 1938 Nobel Prize winner in physics and at present visiting at Columbia University, will explain the discovery of four new chemical elements in a talk on "Advances in Science."

For History B students, WEBR presents at 9:30, Jan Masryk, son of the first president of the Czechoslovakian Republic, and former Czech ambassador to England, will join in a discussion of "How Can Europe Avoid War?"

English students can gain some knowledge on English literature if they will listen to Helen Hayes in "Arrowsmith" at 9 over WKBW tomorrow night.

New Employer: "Are you familiar with mules?"

Negro Stableman: "No, sir. Ah knows 'em too well to get familiar."

Dimes March on to Washington

Last Monday, Presidential Bells were given all over the country in honor of President Roosevelt's birthday. The money from these bells goes for the welfare of infantile paralysis victims. However, not everyone could attend a ball and the March of Dimes gave everybody a chance to help in this worthy cause.

Boxes were placed in the rooms of the school where pupils brought their dimes. The Andover school responded very well, according to a report given by Principal Glenn E. Bretsch.

Humor

A stranger said to the farmer's boy across the fence: "Young man, your corn looks kind o' yellow."

"Yes, that's the kind we planted."

"Don't look as if you'd get more'n half a crop."

"Don't expect to; the landlord gets the other half."

"Boy," said the stranger, "there isn't much difference between you and a fool."

"No," said the boy, "only the fence."

Little Boy (reading) item from Manchuria: "What does it mean here by 'seasoned troops,' dad?"

Dad (immediately): "Mustered by the officers and peppered by the enemy."

A teacher asked her class to write an essay on London. She was surprised to read the following in one attempt:

"The people of London are noted for their stupidity."

The young author was asked how he got that idea.

"Please, miss," was the reply, "it says in the textbooks the population of London is very dense."

"Oh, ma! Here's a little green snake!"

"Keep away from it, dear; it may be just as dangerous as a ripe one."

Mathematics Professor: "If there are 48 states in the Union, and super-heated steam equals the distance from Bombay to Paris, what is my age?"

Frosh: "Forty-four, sir."

Professor: "Correct, and how did you prove it?"

Frosh: "Well, I have a brother who is 22 and he is only half nuts."

"What do you think of our two candidates for mayor?"

"Well, I'm guad only one can be elected."

Close-fisted Customer: "Let's get together on this job. You know it takes two to make a bargain."

Printer: "Yes, but only one gets it."
