Conservation Meetings Start This Week

Meeting Held in Andover Sunday; Will Explain 1939 Conservation Program.

mont, Mar. 13.—Arrangements been completed to hold a series of community meetings during the month of March, to explain the Conservation Program to the residents of Allegany county.

Immediately following each meeting, opportunity will be given former participants to discuss the 1939 program. Newcomers wishing to co-operate will be given an opportunity to sign up.

The meetings will be held in Andover on Sunday at 10 o'clock and in the town hall at 1:15. It is essential that all who know the program file a work sheet, and also know about the proposed 1939 cropping schedule.

These meetings offer an opportunity to get the necessary information. Persons expecting to participate in the program should wish to carry out.

It is believed that this method of joint educational and meetings will decrease expense to the farmers from making a trip to sign up in the program.

The following are the dates and places of the meetings:
Mar. 17. Birdsall, town hall.
Mar. 18. And-a, town board room.
Mar. 18. Bishopville, church.
