Local Happenings

James Milgate of Bolivar has been appointed by Sheriff Edson A. Brigham of Belmont as a member of his official staff.

Andover friends were grieved to learn the first of the week, of the serious illness of Mrs. Wm. Rice of Whitesville, former resident of this village.

Mrs. Effie Burbank is moving from the Miss Ella McLaughlin apartment on Center street into the apartment of Miss Minnie Clair on Greenwood street.

The members of the Presbyterian choir and their families enjoyed a supper and social evening Thursday followed by the regular choir rehearsal. There were about 30 present.

Regular meeting of Thomas M. Lynch Auxiliary next Tuesday, May 16, Luncheon at 1 o'clock. A good attendance is desired as plans will be made for the entertaining of the county meeting in Andover on May 31.

Fred N. Hale of the Estey Organ company of Brattleboro, Vt., was in Andover last week examining the pipe organ of the Presbyterian church. This company installed the organ 31 years ago and while it has given complete satisfaction the time has come when new parts are needed and general repairs made.

Wayne Woodhead, 15, of Little Genesee, had a narrow escape from death the night of May 1 when he rode his bicycle directly into the path of an automobile driven by Carl Polen of Little Genesee. The youth was thrown from his wheel thru the windshield of the car. The lad suffered severe injuries. Mr. Polen suffered lacerations of the face and hand from the broken glass, his wife and babe riding with him fortunately escaping injury.

In a collision between cars driven by Mrs. Josephine Coats of Richburg and Dennison Soules of Eldred, Pa., near Riverhurst the evening of April 29, seven people were seriously injured. Miss Helen Benjamin, teacher in the Belfast school suffered a fractured ankle, double fracture of the lower jaw, and loss of lower teeth. Both cars were demolished.

The hum of the lawn mower and rat-tat of the carpet beater remind us that spring has arrived at last. Mrs. Daniel Witter is reported gaining slowly from several weeks illness at her home on Rochambeau avenue.

E. E. Orvis has sold his property on Water street to Clarence Snedeker of Scio, who will take possession in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Fisher and family of Wellsville are now located in the Miss Dorothea Snyder house on Elm street.

Mrs. C. R. McGill was hostess to the A. O. T. Club at her home Tuesday night. First and second awards went to Mrs. J. E. Cannon and Mrs. R. E. Dean.

Richard Brown, 21, of Scio, paid a $50 fine last Friday for the shooting of a buck deer. Deputy Sheriff Milliman and Conservation officers made the arrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Slocum celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family dinner held at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynton.

The ladies Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist church will serve a three-cent supper in the church dining room next Tuesday, May 16 from 5 o'clock on. Your patronage will be appreciated.

All members of the local unit of the Home Bureau are urged to attend achievement day held at the M. E. church in Scio Thursday, May 18. The dinner will be served by the ladies of the church.

Alvin E. Small, 34 year old gas field worker of Ellensburg, was found dead in a wrecked truck near Genesee, Pa., Sunday morning. An autopsy showed that his heart had been ruptured by a broken rib. The truck had traveled about 250 feet off the highway stopping against a pile of dirt.

Richard Callister of Erie, Pa., has been elected to head Alfred University's student senate campus governing body next year. Callister, a liberal arts junior and his staff of officers assumed active control of student affairs at the annual moving-up day ceremonies May 11.

A birthday party was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mickle in honor of Louis Howe, Aletha Callaghan and Clarence Snedeker. There were about 40 present to enjoy the evening. A supper was served at midnight. Those who attended from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Painesville, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Callaghan of Wellsville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snedeker of Scio and Mrs. Eva Hazlett of Stanard.

The local Home Bureau met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Emery. There were 12 present. The third lesson on "Foundation Garments" was given by Mrs. F. L. Hann and Mrs. Henry Livermore, proving very interesting. At the business meeting names of the new officers were presented by the nominating committee, Mrs. Harold Emery, Mrs. Charles Ruger and Mrs. Carlyle Myers. The newly elected officers are: Mrs. Walter Greene, chairman; Mrs. Jas. Lynch, vice chairman; Mrs. Otto Nye, secretary and treasurer. A short program followed and refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Emery.

The Three Link Club will be held next Monday evening, May 15 at I. O. O. F. hall. Bring tureen and sandwiches.

Mrs. Harold Perry underwent an operation at the Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville, Thursday morning of this week.

The many friends of Mrs. John Burns are glad to see her again taking up her work in the postoffice, after a ten weeks' illness.

A card received at the News office this week informs us that Mr. and Mrs. George Wenz are leaving Florida for their cottage on Chautauqua Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Bostwick have moved from the Mrs. P. K. Tuttle house on Dyke street into the house owned by the late Miss Bell Rice on the same street.

The S. P. F. Club met Wednesday night with Mrs. Edward Walsh at her home. The high award was given Mrs. C. L. Lynch. Mrs. Orla Baker was presented a gift in honor of her birthday.

The Clair Kellogg grocery store at Almond was damaged to over a thousand dollars last week by fire. Hornell and Alfred fire companies assisted in saving the building which will be repaired at once.

Jane, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ingalls of Bolivar, won first place as a soprano vocalist in the Southwestern New York music festival at Olean recently, and the right to compete in the state music festival at Amherst high school. Judges declared she possessed a "wonderful opera voice" and should continue studying voice above all else. Jane, a freshman in Bolivar central school has been taking vocal lessons for two years from Miss Leta Crandall of Little Genesee.

Mrs. Anna M. Kirk

Woodhull, April 26.—Funeral services were held in the family home here this afternoon for Mrs. Anna M. Kirk, who died in her home Monday morning. The Rev. J. W. Babcock of Avoca officiated and the body was taken to Rochester for cremation. The ashes will be returned for burial in Woodhull cemetery.

Mrs. Kirk was 55 years old and a native of Cameron. She was a member of the Woodhull Methodist church and the Woodhull Rebekah Lodge. She is survived by her husband, Milton Kirk; a nephew, Malcolm Brundage of Andover; an uncle, Peter Edwards and a cousin, Mrs. Sarah Tubbs, both of Corning.

Mrs. Kirk will be remembered by many Andover acquaintances as Mrs. Anna McQueen, sister of the late Mrs. Robert Brundage.

GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

Mothers! Attention!

A very special meeting is being held for you and every adult interested in child life and development at the Grange hall Tuesday afternoon, May 16 at 2:30 p. m. Dr. Marian Loew of the State Health Department, guest speaker. She will also show health movie pictures.

Mothers Honored

The oldest and the youngest mother will be honored at this meeting. Children under school age may attend, but not those over.

Around 100 Patrons of Husbandry gathered in Andover Grange Wednesday evening to hear Inavale Grange present a program centering around the theme "My Country and My Home." The following Granges were represented: Inavale, Granger, Whitesville, Belmont and Alfred. The Andover Juveniles had a number on the program.

Memorial Service and Singing Contest

A short service in memory of Sister Rosetta Dodge and Sister Jennie Orvis, followed by a singing contest at our meeting May 24th. Any Grange member may enter this contest. It is possible for the same person to enter in different classes which are as follows: Lady and men soloist; duets; ladies' and men's quartettes.

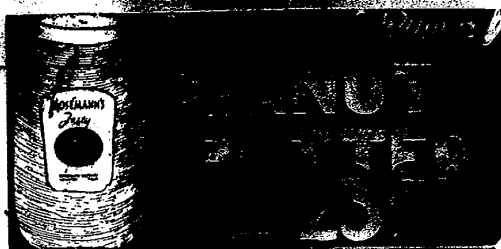

May 17 Andover Grange will put on a program in Bolivar Grange. The theme "My Country and My Home" (the past, present and future). The American flag is the symbol for my country; and for my home, a clever little house built by Carol Burdick, as this travels from Grange to Grange each Grange adds to it something to make it a home. Andover Grange will add window boxes of flowers, believing just as flowers cover the barren and what would be ugly places on the earth, so sweet charity should cover the faults and shortcomings of members of the household.

The program that will be rendered will be given in next week's issue of the News. Remember the bread-baking contest June 14. The S. & H. will also put on the program then.

The Thimble Club met at the home of Mrs. George Mickle, Tuesday afternoon.

Come to the three-cent supper served Tuesday night May 16 at the S. D. Baptist church.
