John Oakes was guest speaker at the regular meeting of Wellsville exchange club last Wednesday evening. Mr. Oakes gave the Wellsville exchange a very interesting talk in conditions in South America as he had observed them during his several years spent there as a civil engineer.

A tree planted in the Canisteo park by the Monday Literary Club in memory of the late Guy Comfort was dedicated Saturday afternoon. Although Mr. Comfort had been a newspaper publisher in Perry for some years before his death, he was a native of Canisteo and had been active in projects to beautify that village.

A large searching party, which combed hundreds of acres of wooded land in the Voorhees Hill section last Saturday found no trace of Patrick Higgins, 45, who has been missing since May 9th when he went out to fix some fence. His tools were found where he had been working but no trace has been found of his whereabouts.

Baker's Hardware News

RAINS

In late spring and early summer invariably seek out a place to squeeze thru and make a mess, rotting out roof structure and smearing their finger prints over newly-papered ceilings and home furnishings.

Frequently some good Asphalt Roof Paint or Plastic Cement will repair those annoying leaks at trifling expense. Look over your buildings and make certain your roofs are in good repair.

PORCH BOXES

We are showing very attractive Porch Boxes both footed and low patterns. Made from heavy rust-resisting steel, enameled in colors that harmonize with the beautiful green of their growing contents. They are of ample depth for soil and drainage and the prices are remarkably low. The variety of selection will surely meet your idea of fitness. Prices 79c and 98c.

MAKE CERTAIN

That you carry an extra set of batteries and a bulb for the flashlight on your fishing trips. Batteries at 5c and 10c each; bulbs at 10c; Flashlights at 59c and 97c.

ALARM CLOCKS

If the old one refuses to run, remember that we have new ones priced from $1.00 to $4.50.

Music Festival at the Presbyterian church, June 6th at 7:30.

The Thimble Club met with Mrs. George Mickle Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Temple, who gave the Gettysburg address so nicely at the cemetery Memorial Day is a great-nephew of Perry J. Nichols, who captured the first Confederate prisoner in the battle of Gettysburg.

Mr. Nichols is buried in the cemetery at Ashville and the stone marking his grave bears the inscription "Perry J. Nichols, 1844-1929, Company F, Ninth New York Cavalry, who captured the first prisoner at Gettysburg, July 1st, 1863."

WHITE SHOES

Always need a little touching up after each time they are worn. If they are very dirty, or just slightly soiled, use Griffins All-White Shoe Cleaner and Polish. It cleans them to look like new and you will be pleased with the results—10c per box.

ANT BUTTONS

Are the clean, easy, simple way to destroy the little pests. A season's supply costs but 25c.

LAWN CHAIRS

For your porches and lawns in two styles at the low price of 98c each. They are comfortable and practical so you can afford to own several.

PAPER TOWELS

Are so thrifty—only a penny for a dozen. They are such a convenience for every home. They eliminate rinsing messy kitchen cloths, make fewer dish towels to wash, are so handy for mopping up spilled liquids, drying the hands, greasing cake pans, dusting, polishing mirrors and glassware, and for draining foods.

Scott Paper Towels are made of thirsty fibre, an exclusive Scott Paper Company development and they are twice as absorbent as ordinary paper towels. Try Paper Towels—they are a real labor saver in your home.
