Little Ann Wood entertained a party of friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her third birthday.

Dr. F. H. VanOrsdale of Belmont has sold his practice and home to Dr. Joseph O. Einzig of New York City, who will take possession July 30th.

Regular meeting of the Andover Home Bureau at the home of Mrs. Guy Hulst Thursday, July 13. The second lesson in nutrition will be given and plans made for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker received word of the arrival of a grand daughter, as Mr. and Mrs. Francis Baker of Alfred announce the arrival of a little girl, Wednesday, July 5th at St. James Mercy hospital, Cornell.

The Women's Missionary Circle met with Mrs. Hattie B. Eggleston Wednesday afternoon. The topic for the afternoon was on home mission work. White Cross work was done by the ladies. A good attendance was reported.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Carrie Boyd Wednesday afternoon for their business and social time. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. Pearl Mesler and Mrs. Pauline Croyle. A very good attendance was reported.

Miss Louise Monroe, formerly of this village and a niece of Mrs. Sarah Hunt, graduated last week from the Arkport central school, winning a $25 scholarship in the Hornell Business Institute. She, with her class, are also attending the World's Fair in New York.

Old home-coming day was celebrated at Purdy Creek Saturday as has been the custom every year. At this time an interesting description of her trip was given by Miss Clara Comstock, who with her friend Miss Hill of New York City motored thru New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado. A community supper, held at the church was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline Dieter are occupying the Tuttle house on Dyke street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Myers are orry gardeners as they ate string beans from their garden this week. Mrs. Margaret Studer and daughter Betty of Hornell have moved into the upstairs apartment in the McCormick home on First street.

Franklin Hall, nephew of Mrs. W. S. Calhoun, graduated last week from the Addison high school and with others of his class enjoyed an educational trip to Washington, D. C.

The Tullar Field Commission at Wellsville has announced plans for the construction of decorative columns at the entrance to the field. The columns are planned as a memorial to Mrs. Angie C. Tullar, donor of the field.

Frank Woodin, 68, of Little Genesee, is in an Olean hospital suffering from a fractured skull and bruises, the result of being thrown from a hay rack when a car struck his wagon on the Little Genesee-Bolivar road, Sunday afternoon.

Richburg children are to enjoy a summer program of supervised playground activities sponsored by the village, town and school boards. Ira Brown, physical education director of Richburg Central School will have charge of the program.

A birthday surprise was held at the home of Mrs. Jennie Hammond Friday evening, in honor of Miss Dorothy Joyce, when a party of friends helped her celebrate. After a social time ice cream and cake was served. Miss Joyce received many fine gifts, including a surprise package as the most appreciated gift of the occasion.

The Motor Bureau statistics show that May 1939 was the first month in 18 consecutive months that traffic deaths have exceeded those of the corresponding month of the preceding year. May 1939 showed five more fatalities than May 1938. The increase, however, was in the New York section, with rural New York 4.5 per cent under last year.

The firemen were called to the Glenn Schoonover farm on South Hill Monday afternoon where a grass fire was threatening buildings and oil wells. An unfortunate incident occurred as the boys arrived at the farm, when a balancer in the motor of the pumper broke loose, breaking the oil lines and doing other damage. The truck was towed back to town by Augustus Lynch where it is being repaired.

Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Miss Winifred Wentworth entertained at a stork shower Saturday night for Mrs. Wm. Dannheim of Allentown. The tables were daintily decorated in pink and blue and the gifts were presented Mrs. Dannheim by little Sally Jones. Those who attended from out of town were Mrs. Wilber Sly, Miss Beatrice Sly of Arkport, Mrs. Frank Clemens of Wellsville, Miss Louise Rogers of West Greenwood and Mrs. Runny Widdemer of Allentown.

GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thomas, Lecturer

Next Wednesday night, July 12, the program theme will be "The Scent of New-Mown Hay," or "The Value of Rural Life." There will be a short discussion "Country vs. City Life." A pantomime and reading "Maud Muller," some special music and several games and stunts and good advice on how to keep a meadow from growing to weeds.

Remember, the meeting begins promptly at 8 p. m. The lecture hour at 9 p. m., and lasts only 30 minutes during the summer months. Let's not let the attendance lag during the summer.

"The Grange Monthly" is full of good things all good patrons should read. The third Saturday of each month, listen to the National Grange broadcast at the Farm and Home hour.

By the way, thru some one's error the National Grange session was listed as being at Petrolia instead of Peoria, Illinois in the last Grange News.

Belmont Grange put on "My Country and My Home Program" at Rushford, July 11.

July is the month of farm bureau tours and picnics. Farm families like to get away for a day to see what other folks have been doing and for a little fun.

Surrogate Court

The treasurer of Allegany county, Claude L. Cummings, was appointed temporary administrator of the estate of Frank Gilder, Andover, who died May 24. Besides a daughter, whose name and place of residence is unknown, the only heirs are Louis F. Gilder, Rochester, nephew; Minnie Gilder Shelly, Rochester, and Elizabeth Gilder Wendell, Rochester, both nieces. It is the duty of the temporary administrator to find, if possible, the whereabouts of the missing daughter or her descendants. If it is successfully accomplished, the estate will in probability be turned over to her administration. The estate is valued at $4,000 personally and $2,000 realty.

Herman B. Rick, Andover, was named executor in the will of Belle C. Rice, Andover, who died last April. The $1,800 personally and $1,200 realty property will be divided among two nephews, three nieces four grandnieces and a grandnephew of the deceased.

Schoonover Reunion

The seventh annual reunion of the Schoonover family was held July 4th at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes at Angelica. About 60 guests were present from Patterson, N. J., Rew, Roullette, Austinburg, Pa., Warsaw, Horwell, Woodhull, Canisteo, Berville, Troupsburg, Almond and Andover. A fine dinner was served at 1 o'clock including hot rolls by the hostess.

The older people then enjoyed a visit while the younger ones played ball and attempted to go for a swim but were scared out by the thunder storm which did not materialize.

Everyone reported a fine time and left for home having once more enjoyed a fine July 4th. Plans are being made to have the 1940 reunion in Andover.

Mexican Beetle in Allegany County

Earl C. Foster, county Farm Bureau agent, has announced that the Mexican bean beetle is showing an increase in Allegany county and warns farmers and gardeners to begin control work at once.

A one per cent rotenone dust at the rate of 30 pounds to the acre is recommended.

Canning and Preserving Time!

Canners—

Canning is a pleasure when you can fill your canner with fruit or vegetables and go away and forget it for the time required to complete the job. We recommend one style in canners equipped to hold seven jars at one time, popularly priced at $1.19. We also carry Conservo Cookers, the ideal canner for cold pack canning. All canners are designed to fit a single burner which is an added comfort on a hot day. We also stock Canning Racks to fit an ordinary wash boiler at 40¢.

Fruit Jars—

New wide mouth, Kerr Mason Jars. No rubber rings are required—tops are not affected by acids or vinegar—they are easy to seal, easy to open, insure perfect seal and will last for years.

Fruit Jar Rubbers—

In boxes of one dozen at 5¢ and 10¢ each. Also large mouth rubbers at 10¢ box.

Jelly Glasses—

In both low and tall styles at 39¢ per doz.

LEST ONE COMES IN!

However well your home is screened or occasioned, fly, bug or bee will slip thru and one of these insects may cause plenty of annoyance or rob you of a well earned afternoon nap.

You may avoid this discomfort by hanging up a few strings of Tanglefoot Fly Ribbon. Two long strings cost only 5¢.

PLAY TENNIS

Vacation is here, and in order to play a good game you must have a good Racket and lively tennis Balls. We have Tennis Rackets at $1.95 to $3.25 and balls at 25¢ and 50¢ each.

HOT or COLD

Just a little forethought and a thermos bottle or jug and your drink is ready whenever you want it. Always carry along enough refreshment at the places where traveling and camping are often the best are not provided with roadside stands or a natural supply and thirst may take the joy out of what would otherwise be a most enjoyable outing.

Dependable jugs and bottles from 90¢ up. Use one once on a hot dusty day and you have your money's worth.

FLY SWATTERS

In a variety of kinds—selling at 5¢ and 10¢.
