Andover to Again Enforce Curfew Law

Fire Whistle Will B 8:45 P. M., Starting Monday. Children Leave Streets By 9

No, "the curfew shall tonight," but it will next night, September 18th, according to Mayor Livermore.

The Village Board of have decided to again put the curfew ordinance in and beginning next Monday the fire whistle will blow at according to the village published two weeks ago, under 16 years of age, under the streets by 9 o'clock accompanied by a parent, or some adult person.

This ordinance shall not any child or children in a physician or in actual exercise a legitimate errand upon order of its parent or guardian.

The village officials recommended on this move, streets of any village is place for children under 16 to be hanging around at night, as has been in Andover for some time.

Other nearby towns that are enforcing the curfew have it works out very satisfying a stop to many minor crimes and others a not to become excited while blows at 8:45 ne night.

Lime and Grass Program Popular in Allegany County

Over 1000 County Apply For Grass Applications Made Lime at Belmont.

Many Allegany county are taking advantage of program, according to the county Agricultural Extension Committee. Under the program, farmers who have plowed sufficient practice to use up their largest building payment may these practices by obtaining a payment.

According to H. L. Ho man of the County Conservation Committee, that if a man has a large payment of $80 on his farm used only enough practice to him to a payment can receive $30 worth instead of payment on the has left to use.

Many men who have the Agricultural Conservation program now have an opportunity to take part and receive payment. The only men are barred from the program are those who grew acres of wheat or potatoes in 1938. Those who grow more than three acres of wheat or three acres have not received all 1938, and are therefore eligible to participate.

Applications for lime made out every day in the Conservation of court house at Belmont information can be obtained from Mr. Hodnett.

One Thousand Allegany Farmers Obtain Seed

Over 1,000 Allegany ers made application for seed during the period from the 1st of Sept. 9th, according to Bredon, Angelica, m County Agricultural Committee. Under the program, farmers who lost their seed because of the dry weather were entitled to receive a certain amount of seed for reseeded.

The grass seed was local dealers through the applications were made by Agricultural Conservation Committee. "Men who seed were expected to seed bed and reseed a crop," says Mr. Bredon, "sooner a man can do better."

The Emergency Seed was approved by the County Agricultural Conservation Committee in an attempt to obtain a seedling.
