CEL-O-GLASS

Gives your poultry the benefits of ultra-violet rays, which ordinary glass, soiled curtains and so-called glass cloth bar out.

This new improved Cel-O-Glass has a tougher, heavier coating; it will not break like glass or tear like cloth; saves labor, is more economical and will produce earlier and stronger plants.

Now is the correct time to get your pens and laying houses ready for young pullets.

You will find our prices on Cel-O-Glass as low as may be obtained from any source of supply. We buy to obtain lowest wholesale prices and pass this saving on to our customers. Buy from us and save on Cel-O-Glass!

STORM SASH

Measure your windows today! For several years you have been promising yourself that you would fit up certain parts of your house with Storm Windows. Storm Sash will cut your fuel bills and bring cold weather comfort to your home. The frames are made of soft pine with wide bottom rail, sanded and ready for paint.

It will surprise you at how low a cost storm outfitting can be done. Odd or special sizes can be procured on short notice, so figure your wants and we will do the rest.

LIBRARY NEWS

Twenty-first Birthday

National Book Week comes of age in November and in more than 5,000 cities and towns of America this anniversary will be observed. Magazines, newspapers and radio network along with libraries and schools will carry the story of Book Week to millions.

The first Book Week slogan in 1919 was "More Books in the Home." The theme for 1939 is "Books Around the World."

Andover Free Library will celebrate Book Week for the sixth time with an unusually interesting program, to be announced later.

Plan now to visit your library during the week of November 12-18, and help make this celebration an important milestone of progress in library history.

Surprised on 25th Wedding Anniversary

About 40 relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott surprised them Sunday evening, in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary, at their home east of this village.

The evening was pleasantly passed and a luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were presented a gift by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McAndrew and Mr. and Mrs. John Nobles of Andover were among those attending.

Mrs. Gertrude Goodridge

Mrs. Gertrude Goodridge died at her home in Elm Valley late Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Goodridge was born October 4, 1888 near Payneville, N. Y., a daughter of Silas and Harriet Ketchum Harris. She was married Oct. 31, 1906 to Raymond Goodridge who survives together with the following children: Mrs. Beatrice Briggs, Andover; Mrs. Doris Ward, Shongo; Miss Bernice Goodridge, Lawrence Goodridge, Maurice Goodridge and Miss Anna Goodridge, all of Elm Valley. A brother, Elias Harris of Yorks Corners and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Potter of Whitesville also survive. Deceased was a member of the Universalist church of Wellsville.

Services were held at the home Thursday afternoon with interment in Whitesville.

Boy Scout Notice

The troop will meet at the Manse Friday morning of this week for a nature hike. Every Scout is expected to be present, dressed for the weather with water-proof shoes, gloves, etc. Bring food for cooking on an open fire, and regular hiking equipment.

GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

At the next regular meeting November 8th, the annual election of officers will be held.

DISH FOR THIS WEEK

SWEET POTATO PIE

With the coming of fall, home-makers begin to watch for new and different ways to serve the seasonal sweet potato. Long a popular favorite, it is equally good as a vegetable with the main course of the meal or as a base for the dessert. Here is a recipe for sweet potato pie:

Sweet potato pie
1 1/4 cups of cooked, mashed sweet potato

Two-thirds cup of brown sugar.
1 teaspoon of cinnamon.

Salt.
1 tablespoon of butter

1 egg.
1/4 teaspoon of nutmeg.

1 cup of milk.

Mix the ingredients thoroly and pour the mixture into an uncooked pastry shell. Bake the pie in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for ten minutes and then reduce the heat to 350 degrees and continue cooking it for one hour or until the custard is firm. Some families often serve the pie covered with plum jam and garnished with whipped cream. Others prefer it with spiced peaches.

For a Sunday dinner or for a special occasion, the New York State College of Home Economics suggests the following menu: Roast chicken, buttered carrots, parsley potato, lettuce and tomato salad with oil and vinegar dressing, brown bread and butter, sweet potato pie, milk for the children and tea, coffee or milk for the adults.
