Local Happenings

Mrs. Scott Prest is reported much improved at this writing.

Nov. 19th is "Go to Church" Sunday in the Grange organization. By defeating Friendship Central School team 1-0 last week, Coach Joseph Palone's Belmont high school team became soccer champions in Allegany county.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean entertained the Five Hundred Club on Thursday evening with a 6:30 o'clock dinner served at the Taylor home, followed by cards at the Dean home on Main street.

The Empire State Field Trail Club scheduled for two days trial at Cuba was stopped Sunday because of the heavy snowfall. At the official headquarters at the Hotel Kinney, J. Fenton Olive of Cuba was re-elected president of the association and Lawrence J. Easton, Cuba, secretary.

Home Bureau leaders, in the move against pneumonia, will receive their first lesson in the new Brooklyn avenue school, Wellsville, Thursday, November 16. During the first two weeks in December county public health nurses will give demonstrations in 27 units on care of pneumonia patients.

A number from this village attended a shower held for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slocum at their home near Wellsville, Saturday night. There were about 50 present. The time was passed playing games and a social evening. Refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Slocum presented many useful gifts.

Members of the Grange gave a party and shower at their hall Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barney. After a 7:30 tureen supper a program of games, stunts and jokes was enjoyed. The oldest couple, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, gave advice to the bride and groom, Mrs. Robinson to Mrs. Barney and Mr. Robinson to Mr. Barney. Dewey Northrup, in behalf of the Grange, presented a walnut end table and magazine rack combined to the guests of honor. In closing Rev. W. L. Greene extended best wishes.

Regular meeting of Edward Seamon W. R. C., Saturday night.

Among the new telephones installed is No. 10X, Supervisor E. A. Mullen.

Get your Brer Rabbit recipes in before Saturday night as the contest closes this Saturday night.

The W. R. C. will observe the November birthdays at the home of Mrs. P. J. Dougherty on Chestnut street, Friday afternoon.

Members of the Entre Nous Club were entertained at a dessert bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Richardson, Friday evening.

Belfast has a newly organized club known as the Camera Club. One of its major issues on the year's program is to take pictures for the year book.

Editor Frank A. Crumb of Alfred has the sympathy of Andover friends in the recent death of his sister, Mrs. Mary A. Stillman of South Lancaster, Mass.

Rushford, the only town in Allegany county to vote on legalization of the sale of intoxicating beverages this election, became the first town in the county to vote dry.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sherwood and family have moved from Wellsville to the house on Church street formerly occupied by Glenn Cooper, having purchased the property.

A bridge on the road between Canadea and Oramel gave way last week and traffic was temporarily forced to detour between Canadea and Oramel via the dirt road on the opposite side of the river.

Word has been received by Andover friends of the death Monday of W. L. Clemons at his home in Scio. Mr. Clemons will be remembered by Andover residents as having lived in the Pease house on Elm street a few years ago.

John Sealey of Bolivar is in the Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville as a result of injuries received Tuesday afternoon when he was caught by the shaft of a pumping engine in the pump house of the Albert Oil company lease near Allentown.

Postmaster Leo Pike and force of the Belmont postoffice have been busy this week sorting mail and fragments as the result of an inadequate catch crane at the Erie station. The county seat mail is all too heavy for a catch pouch, is the cause of all delay and inconvenience, so states Postmaster Pike.

Mrs. Dorothy Fisher, formerly Miss Dorothy Nobles of this village, received word from the State Education Department at Albany that there was a vacancy in the 1936 scholarship and her name had been reached. If she was attending college and was in a position to use it she would be awarded the State scholarship for 1939.

The Worthy Matron Mrs. Carrie Slade, entertained the Past Matrons and Patrons of Anna W. MacArthur Chapter, O. E. S., at a 6 o'clock supper at her home Monday night with 12 in attendance. They all attended regular chapter in the evening, filling the chairs as follows: Mrs. Margaret Baker, Worthy Matron; Mrs. Bernice Nobles, Associate Matron; Mrs. Frances Rogers, Conductress; Mrs. Marion Theetge, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Frances Beebe, Marshall. A short program for the good of the order followed.

Mrs. George Calhoun is seriously ill at her home on North Main street.

The Firemen's Auxiliary are planning a Christmas party to be held on their next regular meeting night, December 13th.

It is estimated that over 1,500 adults and between 300 and 400 children attended the "open house" given by the Hopkins Lumber Co., of Wellsville, Saturday.

The News acknowledges with thanks the copy of the New York Red Book, received with the compliments of Assemblyman William H. MacKenzie. The book will be available to anyone wishing to see it at the News office.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mosher have moved from the Diffin house on Baker street to Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freeland have moved from the Walsh home on West Greenwood street to Davis Hill.

Plans are being made for a meeting of the county organizations of the American Legion and Auxiliary at Angelica, Tuesday, Nov. 28.

The Seventh Day Baptist Ladies' Aid Society held their November business and needlework meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. Potter. Arrangements were made and committees appointed for their annual sale and 5 o'clock dinner. A fine supper and social hour was enjoyed by the ladies following the meeting.

GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

National Grange "Go to Church" Sunday, Nov. 19.—This special service will be in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7:30, the Rev. L. H. Kerns, speaker. Every group member is urged to attend. Let each and all assemble in the ante room of the Grange hall at 7:15 sharp so that all may attend in a body.

National Grange Broadcast—Saturday, Nov. 18, at the Farm and Home program hour, 12:30-1:30. As each one listens, I would that he might catch a vision of that great assembly of Demeter in session, augmented as it will be by thousands of the seventh degree initiates of the day before. Naturally all Grange members will focus their attention on the deliberations of the National Grange in its 73rd annual session at Peoria, Ill., Nov. 15-23.

Conferring the 1st and 2nd degree—each a beautiful piece of ritualism in itself when well done, will take place at our next meeting Wednesday, Nov. 22nd.

Time nor space permits the report of the good time and shower Monday night.
