ANDOVER NEWS

Published Weekly by THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

the Postoffice at Andover, New York

Our Keynote: "If There Is Not A Way, Cut A Way"

Subscription Rates: One year $2.00 - Six months $1.00 - Three months !

The Christmas Tree

deny the children that grand sight.

into a forest. In a few days they will be cast out in among "real" labor leaders. Both sides know that each losing his share of the circus—and the back yard, but while they shine in the home, they depends on the other-that capital and labor will rise they succeed in the most riotous help something else grow in the heart of youth. That for fall together.

nable than any green tree in the wild forest. a young person seeking a Christmas tree to obtain one whole realizes this, the better off we all shall be.

without paying for it. Oftimes in passing thru a wooded area, privately letin: owned, one comes across a well developed tree with! a small tree that should be moved that could have surv-plant had been idle for 56 days. What this tie-up of family are somewhat at fault, that an explanation and that cost is not pleasant to contemplate. reason has not been given setting these youngsters straight on this matter.

there is an increase in this illegal practice, and it is steel, parts and other related industries, have lost over offers, "Winter Carnival," with illegal. The law provdes a penalty of $10 per tree for $125,000 a day on the basis of an average $5.00 a day Ann Sheridan and Richard Carlson their removal from state land. Also, the removal of wage rate. trees from lands without the consent of the owner such as tree stealing is a misdemeanor with an imposing and service men are beyond estimate, as are those of penned by Budd Schulberg, Maurice Rangers are protecting the state property, and the munities over the country. from the owner for Christmas trees, don't speil trees a dead loss so far of about $168,000.000 dollars." which have a number of years growth and room will be! Did it speed recovery? valuable as lumber by cutting the tops out of them a thing." or "For that Santa Claus won't bring you a present" are cruel and thoughtless statements. A States Patent Office should ments carries a heart heavier than a stone. Is it worth so much agony of soul just to gain a been issued since that time.

Let Christmas Be Fun

point? The days before Christmas are valuable psying the year. Anticipation is always exciting. Santa what can be done to improve the way of doing it. Claus for centuries the world over, has represented something good and brings out the best in all. Actually it is the harried, hurried parent and the gin to fall out. hectic days before the holidays that causes this thoughtless exclamation.

Before uttering such a threat let's pause a minute heritage. and gain our point by some other method that is more fitting to a parent's better judgment.

heart-breaking moments for the youngsters.

ness of warning. But for some trouble and sorrow, we should never know half the good there is about us.

Dec. 4.—To Mr. and Mrs. Clair of Whitesville and Fred Phillips of of Richburg, Nov. 27, who survives

Gowdy, Wellsville, a daughter. Guest of Rushford, a daughter.

Wanda Wilson of Cuba.

Otto of Cuba, a son. Nov. 29.—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huber, Belmont, a daughter. Nov. 29.—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson of Wellsville, a son.

Button of Wellsville, a son. Dec. 3.—To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wellsville. E. French of Alfred, a son.

MARRIAGES

reside in Black Creek.

to James McManus, both of Belmont. Monday.

Enemy of Honest Labor

labor leaders constitute a direct and growing menace to the welfare and progress of the legiti source of employment for the American workman, now turn their guns of mirth upon sary to provide the average workman with a job at theatre for this Friday and Saturhigh wages. They support business-baiting legislation day. n spite of the fact that passing this kind of legislation To enable the Marxes to tear men out of work. No thinking buinessman opposes unionism — he stream-lined circus was constructed, knows that honest unions provide the worker necessary with modernistic menagerie, side ROM woodland retreats, in a few days, there will protection and help assure the generally high standard shows and all other appurtenances come rolling down to the cities and towns the lit-of living among laboring men which is essential to the for their pleasure. Incorporated tle evergreen trees that are to blossom out De-maintenance and expansion of our industrial system. were scores of headline circus acts, cember 25th with generous fruit. What mighty for No thinking business favors sweat shop employment aerialists, acrobats, clowns, equesests they would make if allowed to develop, say some policies, or bad working conditions, or excessively long trienne troups, and a full-sized modhours of work. Time and again for many years lead-ernized menagerie with several hun-We can build our forests without depriving the ing businessmen and the heads of the established undered beasts of the jungle. children of the loveliest of Christmas sights, that of ions have sat down together, discussed common prob- "Marx Bros. at the Circus" is the the tree with its festive colored lights and sparkling lems, and by the process of arbitration arrived at solu-hilarious story of two circus rousta-Whatever happens to the forests, you can't tions which have been beneficial and fair to all. There bouts, Harpo and Chico, who engage is no anti-labor feeling among the business leaders of a crackpot lawyer, Groucho, to pre-Those trees thus prematurely cut, will never grow this country—even as there is no anti-business feeling vent Kenny Baker, part-owner, from something is faith that this is a world of kindness. It is the racketeering radicals that cause the trou-When that thought grows into maturity, it is more val-|ble. When they unfairly fight business, they fight em- nishing the romantic interest with ployment, better wages, improved working conditions. However, with the extensive forest plantings both They fight the welfare of the worker whose cause they World's Strongest Man; Eve Arden,

The following is quoted from a Washington bul-"On December 1, more than 55,000 Chrysler em-society dowager and the light the top cut out for holiday use, when very close by was ployees and some 15,000 workers in the Briggs Body Groucho's eyes. ed the purpose just as well. The older members of the production, climaxing a C. I. O. inspired "slow-down" date at the Andover theatre. "Seventy thousand workers, on an average wage of $6.00 a day have lost pay at the rate of $420,000 Sunday and Monday Numerous complaints in recent years indicate that a day. Another 25,000 workers, idle in the rubber. For Sunday and Monday the And-The losses of 11,000 Chrysler dealers, salesmen

-perchapty of not more than $100...... ----- merchants, landlords and many others in scores of com- Rapf and Lester Cole, opens, with Roast Vermont Turkey safe and wise procedure is to get permission from the "The Detroit Board of Commerce has asserted the on the college special bound for the land owner before helping yourself to a Christmas Chrysler strike is reducing purchasing power in the carnival. The temperamental young tree. And if you want to continue to get permission United States by at least three million dollars a day-lady is running away from her re-

Improvement

1 OME 50 or 60 years ago, it was suggested by TF YOU don't be good, Santa Claus won't bring you \ man who believed that all of the great discoveries child young enough to believe in Santa Claus is be-how mistaken he was. Since then the telephone, the lieving all it is told, and a child hearing such state-automobile, the radio have been developed and television is on the way. Nearly 2,000,000 patents have Sometimes we feel that something quite near perchologically, but not for swinging a club. Children fection has been reached in the things we use and come are nearly always good when they have something fine in contact with each day. But there is always a better to look forward to and especially just before Christmas way. Everything can be improved. Consequently, it's children are better behaved than at any other time dur- a good idea to look at one's own job frequently to see

Lovers, like hair, are easy to part once they be-

To be content with what you have is the greatest

______ There are but two ways of rising in the world— Let Christmas be fun-a joyous time, with no either by one's own industry or profiting by the fool-

One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilder-It shows a weak mind not to bear prosperity, as well as adversity, with moderation.

> Our idea of a strange display of love is when a vessel hugs the coast.

BIRTHS

Wellsville. They will reside Nov. 17.—To Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Beech Hill Nov. 22.--Miss Helen Marie Paffic in Nov. 18.—To Mr. and Mrs. Al-Little Genesee to Carl Childs. Obi. in Maple Grove cemetery, Friendfred Ludwig of Fillmore, a son. Dec. 2.-Miss Mary Ferraro of ship. Nov. 23.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ken-Friendship to William Hurley neth Holmes, Olean, a daughter. Wellsville. They will reside

Mrs. Holmes was formerly Miss Wellsville. Dec. 2.-Miss Margaret Yewdall vived by one son, a daughter, two Nov. 25.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ron- of Wellsville and Dr. A. S. Denni- sisters and three brothers. Funeral ald Bosworth of Cuba, a daughter. son of Lynn, Mass., at St. John's services were held Saturday. Buria! Nov. 29.—To Mr. and Mrs. Victor Episcopal church in Wellsville. They in Alger cemetery. will reside at Thomaston, Maine.

Dec. 1.—To Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville, Sunday with burial in Short Tract. Dec. 1. Several nieces and nephews! Mrs. Jenny Lyman, 90, Angelica, Dec. 4.—To Mr. and Mrs. Gerald survive. Services were held Sunday Nov. 27. She is survived by a niece. Ransom of Whitesville, a daughter at the Mulholland Funeral home in Funeral services were held Thursday > retired Wellsville businessman, at Lome in Genesee, Pa., Nov. 30. his home Dec. 2. Surviving are his brother and sister with several nieces widow, a daughter and five grand-and nephews survive. Services were

The couple will reside in Belmont. | Vivian Van Velzor Cooley, 62, at Nov. 29.—Miss Deloris V. Moore the home of her son Homer Cooley on with one granddaughter, also one sister. Funeral services were held! Bolivar Wednesday.

> Mrs. Grace Hogle, 66, Nov. 29, following several months of illness at her home near Hume. She is sur-

Mrs. Eleanor Phinney, 74, Nov. 24, at Short Tract. Surviving is her husband, one son, two grandchil-Funeral services were hel with burial in Angelica. Archie E. Wells, 68, prominent | Frank Ludden, 78, suddenly at his! children. Services were held Tues- held from Sacrad Heart church in

THEATRE NEWS

Having wrecked the opera, the surest way to shut down industries, and throw circus to pieces with their picares-Ique antics, a complete three-ring.

In the cast are Florence Rice, fur-) Kenny Baker, Nat Pendleton as the L the Upside-Down-Girl who walks on L the ceiling; Jerry Marenghi as Pro-[fessor Atom, a villainous midget; Margaret Dumont as Mrs. Dukesbury The ladies of Andover are re minded that dish night is back to its permanent Friday night give-away in the leading roles. The story of "Winter Carnival," Jill Baxter, played by Miss Sheridan 🔁 cently divorced Duke who wants to win her back. Thru a series of complications she comes face to face with Professor Weldon, the man she was once going to marry when she' was Queen of the Carnival. They afraid of life on a college campus winter setting, and high- and crowning of the new Queen of lights the majesty of thrilling winter the Carnival.

> Winter is just around the corner — So let us tune " vour car for Winter driving)

For Your Radiator We Have-FORD ANTI-FREEZE SUPER PYRO PRESTONE

Willard Batteries - Wrecking - Towing

Robert R. Shirey's Garage

During this busy holiday shopping season.

Let us prepare your meals for you — to relieve your mind entirely for Gift buying when in Wellsville or

WE WILL FEATURE FOR SUNDAY

Old-fashioned Fricasse Chicken Kentucky Roast Leg-o-Lamb

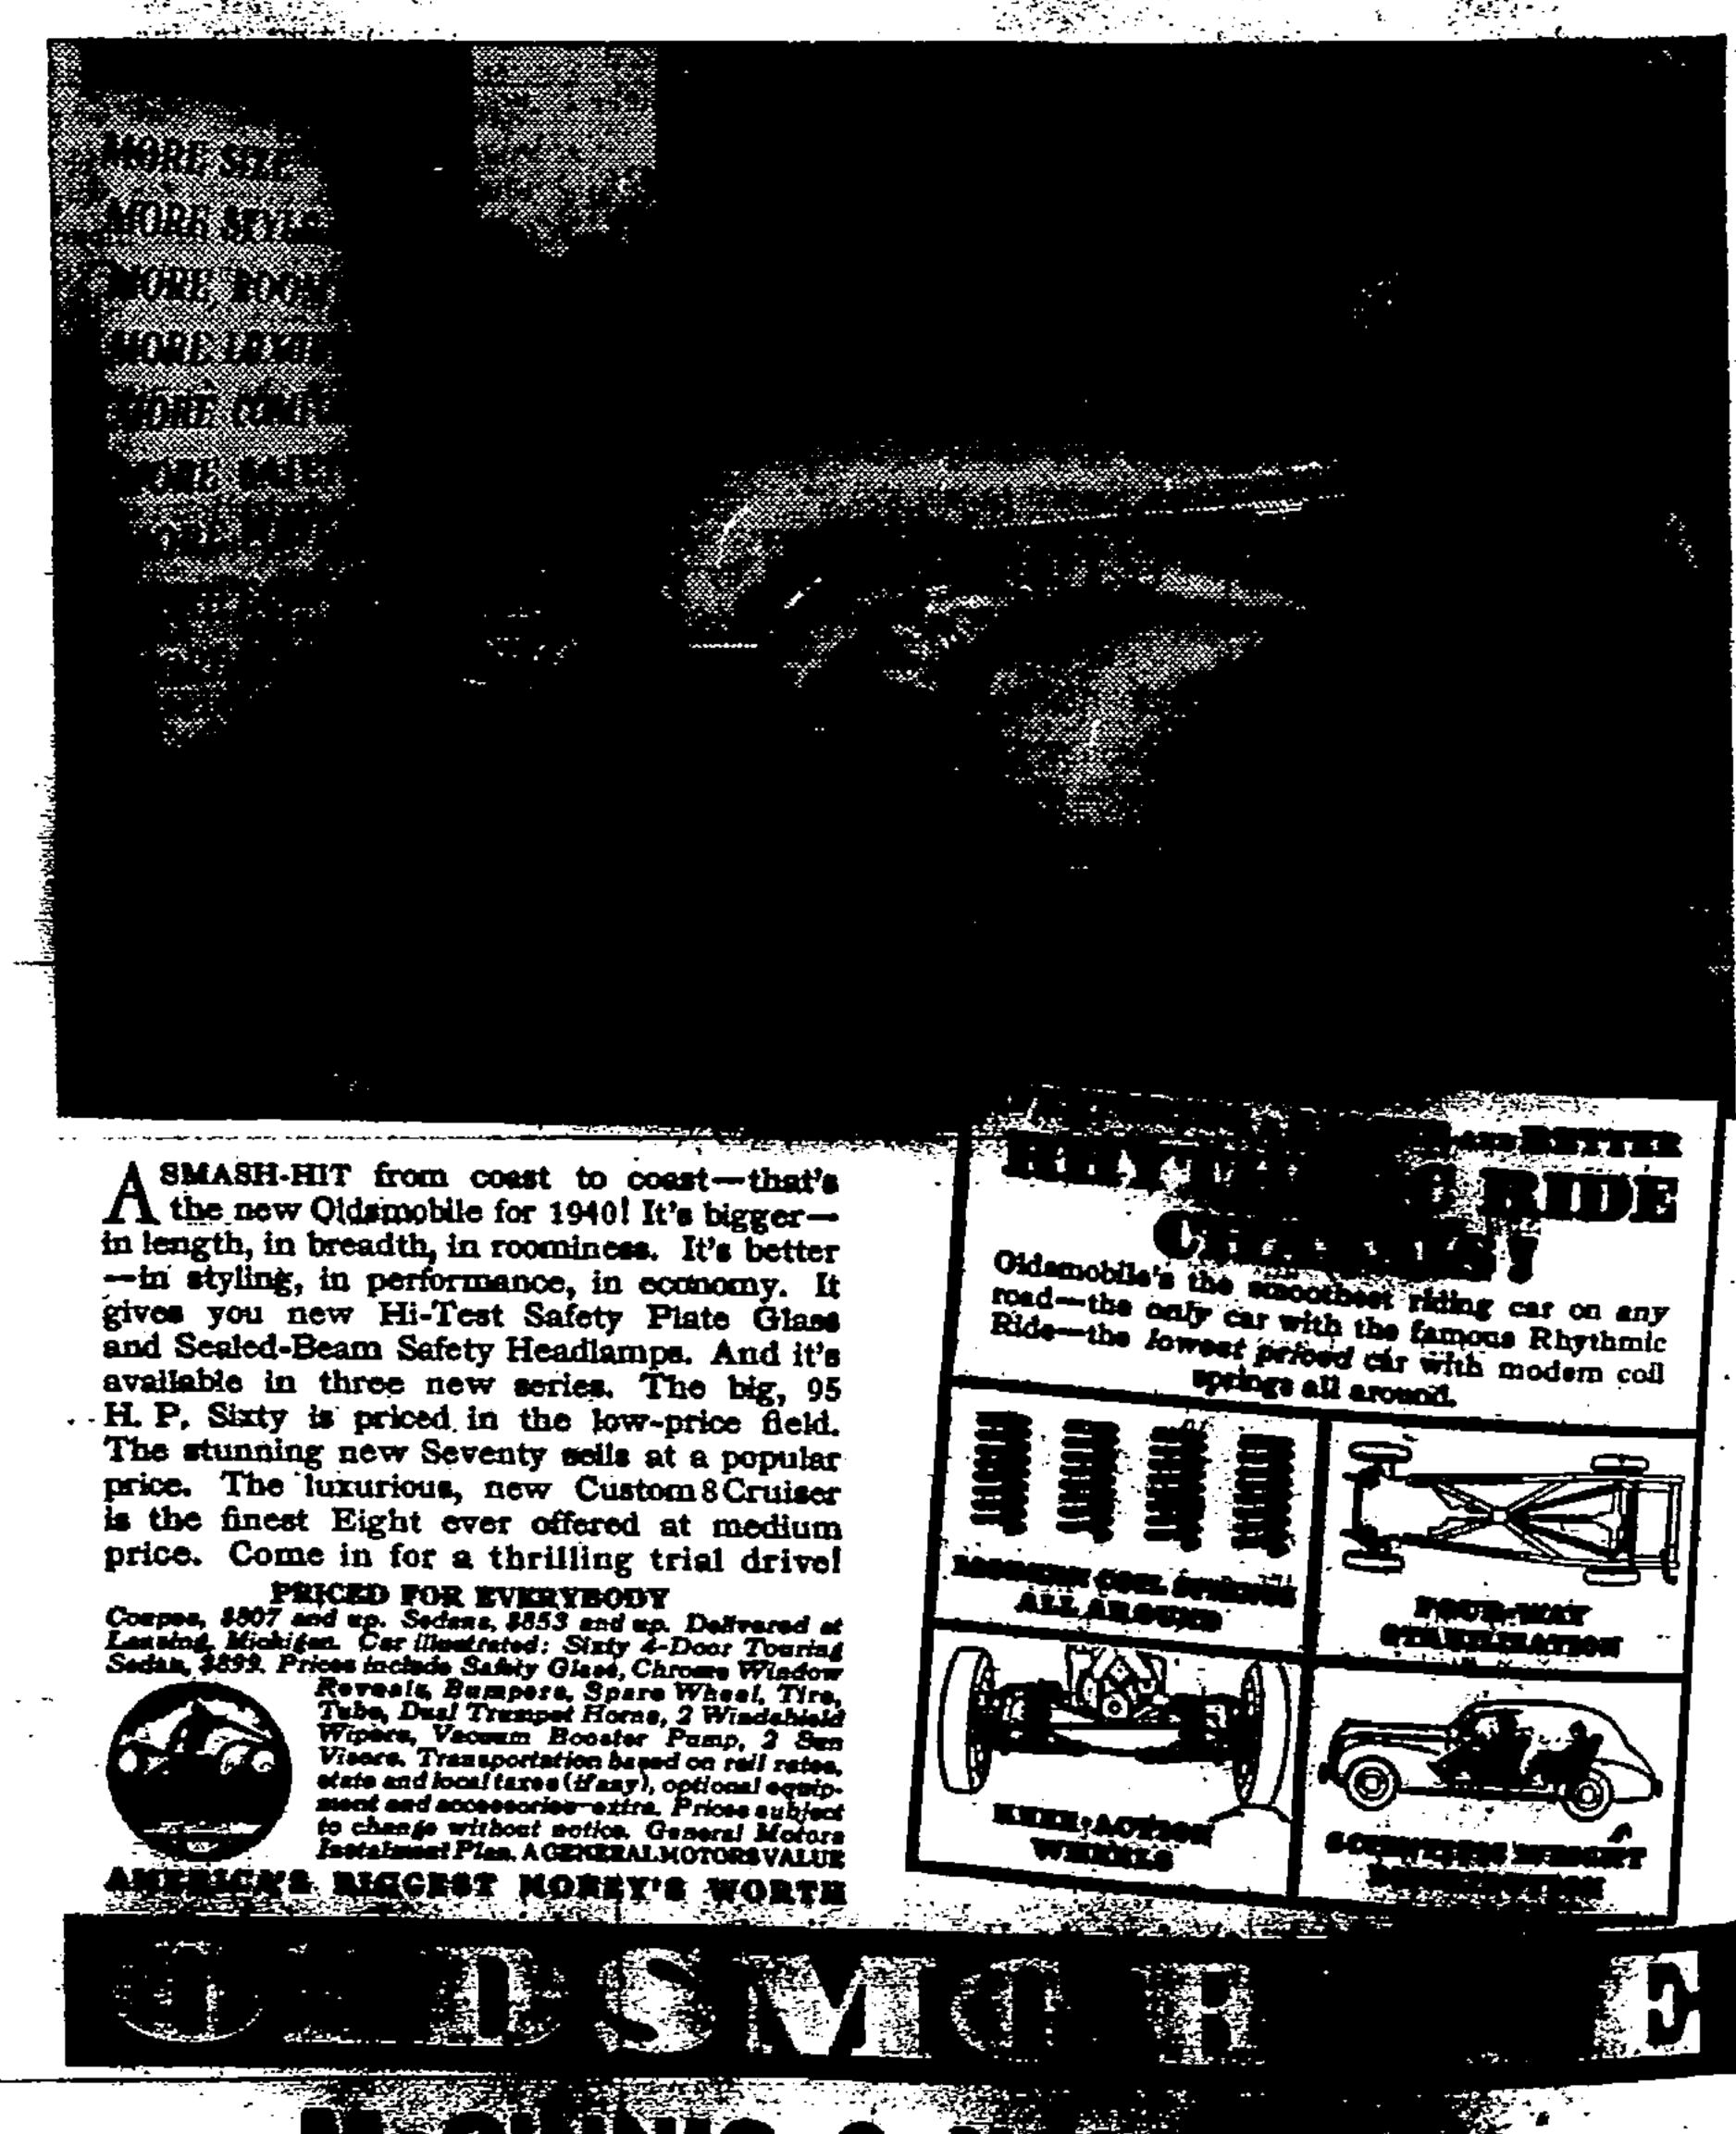

50c per plate

are still both in love—but Jill is still ½ 19 N. Main Street

Wellsville, N. Y

Rime Rib Roast of Beef

THE CAR THAT HAS OUGE BGGBRAND BER

Sabbath School at 11:30.

M. Sunday School. PRESBYTERIAN 7:00 P. M. meeting of all young

Building for the Future" SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST and Mrs. C. C. Backus.

METHODIST

Men's & Boys' Apparel Gifts Solved Here

... 25c to $1.00 | Matthew 11 and 12.

Murray Stevens

Men's-Boys' Outfitters 38 Broadway - Hornell

CHRISTMAS

A STATE OF THE STA

The "COMMODORE"

AS 12c A DAY

Rev. Lucien H. Kerns, Pastor Choir rehearsal on Thursday even-how about getting there with your nine hundred and thirty-nine. Our Christmas service plans are Shall We Do About Christ's King-

M service of Sunday School and adult Morning worship service at 11 a. Samon by the pastor, "A Kingdom worship on Sunday morning, Dec. m. This Sunday morning we will 24, at 9:45. The Christmas tree observe the Lord's Supper after the Sunday School will be held during was in Valley Brook cemetery. Clifford celebration will be held at that message of the morning by the pas- Christmas week-end and a fine pro- Andover High School News: Edi- organist; Misses Brundage and Slotime. On Christmas eve there will tor, who will be back with us again, gram is being arranged. Begin now tor-in-chief, Marguerite Earley; as cum, Mrs. Maude Prest and Mrs. dick, supe.

committee was appointed to ar- be a midnight musical service be- on "What Price Christianity?" All to prepare for the "White Gift Of- sociate editor, Mrs. R. A. Bartlett; Hann, and A. B. Burrows. The pro-Tange Christmas service for Dec. ginning at 11:00 P. M. and ending cordially invited.

Rev. Leona E. Sisson, Pastor Class in Christian Living meets der the leadership of Miss Dorothy young people are urged to attend. Christian Workers in regard to "Out Sunday is Universal Bible Sun-of Door Evangelism." day. The topic for the morning | Tuesday of next week is Bible Pajamas, $1.00 to $4.95 | worship is "Reading the Scriptures", study night at 7:30 p. m. and the Everyone is asked to bring their study on "God's Plan of Redemp-

Christian Endeavor Sunday even-

A short play "The Channel of Wednesday afternoon is the meet-God's Blessings" will be presented ing of the "Women's Prayer Vat the Sunday evening service at Intercessory Group" at 2:30 p. m. at

"I Found Out Today-

RODER Gas Range

THE PERFECT GIFT

WIFE OR MOTHER

America's Ginest A

"Here's the gas range that has everything I desire. Time, money, food and fuel saving features galore

... and breath-taking beauty! With and quickly accomplished.

't culinary efforts will be easily

And you can just bet I'll be proud to show it to neighbors and friends."

Tell your husband about the huge

Christmas Sale of these superb

Roper Gas Ranges. Now is the time to take advantage of special Christmas Sale prices.

Jim's Giving

markal pageant "Echoes of Christ-DEPARTMENT OF STATE, mas" will be given together with tificate of dissolution of Andover

Odd Fellows Building Association, CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ment this day and that it appears)

Rev. H. E. Wilson, Pastor

taking shape. There will be a joint dom?" Will you be there?

and anthems will be sung by choir ing at 7:30 p. m. A service of fine spirit, "It is better to give than to The following members were taken new organ. and congregation. The puplic is Gospel hymn singing; choruses, tes- receive." _____

I day night at the home of Mr. and ing your part? Mrs. Otto Nye. Charles Freeland Friday evening is young people's Neckties .. 55c to $1.50 | ed that every teacher and schoiar personality "The God-Man and What |

ing at 6:30. Topic "Into all the is the meeting of the Missionary Sweaters $1.00 to $6.50 | World thru Preaching, Teaching, Work Band for the young people 'ackets .. $1.95 to $15 Healing." Miss Dorothy Irene Lin-land children, to make things for the Loln, formerly of Elmira will be the foreign fields. Open for all who leader. Everyone invited to attend wish to come. Send the children and get them interested.

> tion of House Slippers, the home of the pastor.

therefrom that such corporation has complied with section one hundred

Given in Duplicate under my hand and official seal of the Department

FOR RENT

SPECIAL STUDENT RATES

MASQN

ALMOND, N. Y.

FOOTWEAR

at a saving for your

Cross Shoe Co.

By JAMES M. KELLY,

Deputy Secretary of State.

and five of the Stock Corporation Sunday, Dec. 10: Sunday School Law, and that it is dissolved. at 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages. under way, and off to a fine start. of State, at the City of Albany, from the New testament on "What!

timonies and a message by the pas-"Why Did Christ Come to Earth?" See Frank Spink, Seneca St., Hornell Scn.

Thursday evening is prayer meeting night at 7:30 p. m. The "soul" inight and the time is 7:30 p. m., un-

' Practical Gifts ;tion" which has caused so much in-

. $1.00 to $2.50 | will be present. The lesson is the Redeemer Must Do." Bring your reactions to the Good News", friends, yourself and your Bibles and paper and pencils. Tuesday afternoon at 4:15 p. m.

Footwear and Sportsmen's Footwear.

TURNING BACK THE PAGES OF ANDOVER HISTORY Do Hereby Certify that a cer-

THIRTY YEARS AGO

DEC. 10, 1909

FORTY YEARS AGO

Harvey Backus, Owner & Editor Mosher & Backus, Editor & Publisher Mrs. Emily Burdick Stearns, 75. leaves two daughters, Mrs. Flora Fay Rev. V. L. Eggleston assisted by MICHAEL F. WALSH and Mrs. Fannie Backus and one Rev. J. Kenyon at the First Baptist Secretary of State son, Luther G. Coleman. Funeral church Tuesday, Dec. 12. Inter-

services were held from the resi-ment at Bundy cemetery. dence on Chestnut street by Rev. I. | Next Monday evening the Baptist . Cottrell, Alfred Station, assisted church choir will render a program by Rev. R. J. Severance. Interment in which the following will appear fering." thus remembering the words Winifred Potter, K. Z. reporter; ceeds of the entertainment are to Evangelistic service in the even- of our Lord and the true Christmas Claire C. Backus, B. M. reporter. raise money to finish paying for the into the Beta Mu Society: Harry State Superintendent of Public Boyd, Harold Emery, Harold Kemp, Instruction Charles R. Skinner has tor who will speak on the theme of HAMILTON, ELGIN WATCHES Lloyd Robinson and Harland Robin- issued the following notice: "Dec. 114th will be the centennial anniver-Mrs. Frank Platts was surprised sary of the death of George Wash-at a birthday party when 24 of her ington. A suitable observance of friends gathered at her home on the day is expected in all the public Rochambeau avenue to spend a very schools." enjoyable evening. D. Prangen was in Andover this Jesse S. Phillips was guest speak-week making arrangements for the of the Men's Club held in the annual harvest of ice for the Erie parish house, Hornell. Railroad company. John Updyke died at the hospital Miss Eva Lena, daughter of Mr. in Hornell as a result of a fractured and Mrs. T. B. Miner was married collar bone. Deceased leaves his to Edward B. Gleason of Belfast, widow, one son, his father and moth-Dec. 12. Rev. W. B. Wagoner perer and two sisters and one brother. formed the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Mitchell are A large and interested audience now settled in their new home next assembled in the M. E. church last to the National bank on Main street. Sunday evening to hear the second The doctor has his office in a part of sermon on Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress. The next one will be on "The

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert of Hill Difficulty." Hoboken, N. ., are visiting at the The ladies of the Seventh Day home of their son, H. Eggert, Jr. A daughter arrived at the home beautifying the interior of the of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gavitt of South church. The kerosene lamps have been replaced with handsome -- REL

Married, Dec. 2, at the home of chandaliers. the bride's brother, Charles A. Robinson by Rev. J. W. Wright. Mrs. Dec. 8, following a brief illness. Fun-We have a varied selec-Frances Burrows to Edward Teas-

Purses, Hosiery, Rubber Mrs. F. Raufenbarth and daughter were shopping in Hornell this ). Mrs. Charles Cole of Elm Valley visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. W.1

H. Howaen.

Stop! Look! Read!

December Clearance

We have sold 486 cars this year. During the month of De-whole year. This is your big opportunity to buy a reconditioned, winterized used car at a ridiculously low price. We have again cut already low prices, made terms easier than ever and will give a

YOUR CAR IN TRADE --- EASIEST TERMS

1932 Dodge 6 Sedan | 1935 Ford V-8 Coupe

1931 Chevrolet Cpe. | 1934 Pontiac Sedan

1931 Chev. 1-ton tr'k 1934 Chev. Town Sed.

PRESENT --- BUY THEM A BETTER CAR

1930 Ford Town Sed. 1935 Terraplane C'ch

1932 Ford V-8 Tudor | 1935 Lafayette Coupe

1 Chev. Victoria 1935 Ford Trg. Tudor

$7 6 up

Nothing Over $225

better deal than you'll get anywhere else. See us today.

$65 up

mber the bars are down for the greatest bargain event of the Dancing School and Hop Monday traction. Tickets good for two days. Tevening at Harmony Hall. 26N.MainSt. Wellsville 7:30 to 9; Hop 9 to 12. Fred W. Train will leave Andover at 7:30 a. m. Fare, round trip, only $2. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clark of Alfred were guests of Frank Potter eral services were conducted Sunday by Rev. W. B. Wagoner, assisted by G. M. Janes. He is survived

On Thursday, Dec. 28 the Erie

Railroad company will run their last excursion of the old year. The Pan-

American Electric City is the at-lone day this week. Eli D. Baker and father attended the funeral of Mrs. Seth Baker at Belmont last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fulmer are passing a couple of weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. D. Clarke at Little Genesee. Rufus Stearns of Oswayo, Pa., Dr. F. Stearns of Port Allegany, Pa.,

Frank W. Burrows was elected assistant manager of Amherst College baseball association for the sea-

Starts SAT., Dec. 9 Gorgeous! In

NEWS and NOVELTIES MIDNITE SHOW SAT. NITE at 11:30 p. m.

THANY OTHER CARS TO CHOOSE FROM THE BEST DEAL IN HORNELL

ERHST LUBITSCH's .

Mrs. E. V. Davis of Seneca Falls, A. A. Shaw and W. W. Coon of Alfred attended the funeral of Mrs. Emily

A. A. McCarn, Harry Smith, New-Baker, Arthur Bullard, Clarence Cochrane, Mrs. H. C. Coleman and Mrs. J. H. Backus attended the quarterly session of Allegany County lodge No. 13, I. O. G. T., held in Bel-son 1899-1900.

