WALL FLOWERS

The great "Sweater Swing" is waiting for us just around the corner, and so our minds will soon be on dancing.

Probably everyone has noticed that the best dancers get invited first to social activities. I have heard many times that a person may be the homeliest person in the country, but if he can dance he will be popular. So, you see, there's really no excuse for any wallflower sitting around the sidelines with a pretended smile of enjoyment on her (or his) face.

The "Sweater Swing" will not be a stag dance but there can be wall flowers. If a boy takes a girl who cannot dance well, he will prefer, naturally, to sit out every dance than to plod around the floor, every other step a stumble.

The thing to do is to learn to dance well. Come to every social hour between now and the dance. If you can't come to social hour, practice at home. Learn to dance and have a happy time at the "Sweater Swing".

Scio Hopes for Upset

Wednesday evening Dec. 20, the Purple Panthers journey to Scio for their first out-of-town game. This will be Scio's first home game of the season and they are hoping to turn the tide on the Panthers and make up for the defeat at the hands of the purple and white in our opening game.

The tall Scio team showed poor pass work in the game here but has been working very hard the past few weeks hoping to upset the Panthers.

The starting line up for Andover will be picked from the following: Fulkerson, Dolan, Dugan, Gath, Perry, Nobles, McAndrew and Dean.

Letter to Hi Herald Adviser

Dear Hi Herald Adviser:
 I have not been invited to go to the "Sweater Swing" dance. I can dance fairly well and go to most of the Social Hours. I am too timid to ask someone to take me and I hope you can help me.

DISAPPOINTED

Dear "Disappointed":
 I am sorry to say that I am not an adviser and a "date" bureau combined. (Maybe I should be, so I could solve your entire problem for you).

In the first place, are you a girl or a boy? That makes some difference, you know. From the wording of your letter I believe you are a girl, so I shall answer from that standpoint.

Don't be timid. Ask some boy who has not already been asked. After all, it is a school dance and is perfectly all right to ask a fellow. Even in colleges, girls ask fellows to dances. You probably won't be the only one to ask a fellow to go. Don't be afraid that your invitation is going to be rejected. Walk up to a fellow and say, "It's almost leap year, how about going to the dance with me?" He can't say any more than say "No." If one refuses, ask another.

Forget your fright. Get busy and ask some fellow before it is too late. Yours truly,
 Your Hi Herald Adviser

Purple Panthers Defeated

Before a capacity crowd on the local court Friday night, a weak Andover High School basketball team was smothered by a sharp shooting Wellsville team 32-13.

Andover's chief weakness was slow thinking. Wellsville's early lead so rattled the local squad that they showed nothing of their real ability. The next weakness of Andover was in foul shooting. They made three out of 15 free throws. Bud Dean played a good defensive game. Gath was high scorer with five points with Bud Dolan a close second with four points.

Hambridge, Geopulus and Sawyer were high scorers for Wellsville with 10, 7, and 6 points respectively. There were two technical fouls called one on Perry of Andover and one on Sawyer of Wellsville. L.O.

Wildcats Conquered

The Andover High Basketball reserves were defeated by the Wellsville Jayvees last Friday night by a score of 21 to 19.

The local squad didn't really start their scoring until the second half. The score at the end of the first half was 16 to 4 in Wellsville's favor.

George Greenan lead the Wildcats in scoring with 10 points, with Ardean Matison playing a good defensive game. For Wellsville Tucker and Klang were tied with 6 points each.

In the second half the Andover team rallied and outscored the Wellsville team 15 to 5. L.O.

Your Pep -

Lusty and hearty shouts resounded abundantly at 1 o'clock in the high school gym Friday afternoon when cheerleaders led staunch rooters in cries of victory. The pep meeting had the significant purpose of urging fans to attend this battle of battles, Andover vs. Wellsville. Mr. Holmes conducted the proceedings and interviewed Louie Fulkerson on the subject of former games and future chances against our neighbors. Louie said that the team, though much smaller and less experienced, expected to give the opponents a fight worthy of remembrance. The pep meeting closed with buoyant yells of "Fight, team, fight." Grade News Stories

In the first grade rooms, pupils have decorated the bulletin board with Santa Claus. All of the second graders are participating in the development of a manger scene in honor of the coming festive season.

They are also occupied in making Christmas wreaths. The students in the third grade have made candles and Christmas trees with which to trim the windows. Making Christmas cards is a novel task which they are also undertaking.

The fourth grade bulletin board now displays a Christmas scene done by the pupils and on a small table houses and other tiny figures made of cardboard and celluloid have been arranged as a token of the Christmas spirit. Candles have been placed in the fifth grade windows.

Another manger scene may be seen in the room of the sixth graders and Christmas trees with cellophane ornaments have been placed on the windows and bulletin board. One of the seventh grade classes has planned a sleigh ride party, and, in proof of their dramatic talents, a Christmas play. The blackboard has been festooned with a Christmas border. The other seventh graders have done their windows, church window style with pictured scenes.

Besides all of the other activities each grade is planning a Christmas party for next Thursday, where they will exchange gifts and play Christmas games. —L.C.

Contest Held In Social Science Class

A contest was held last week in the Freshman class. A prize was given to the following people for having the best drawn map of Andover: Dorothy Lever, Betty Halsey, Arthur Temple, Claude Shellman and Dorothy Ellis. Each of these people will enjoy a sundae at Clair's Pharmacy. —D.A.B.

Sweater Swing Is Next Thursday

The Sweater Swing, the first dance to be held by the newly organized Student Council, will be held Thursday December 21, in the high school gym.

The dance is a school affair and is entirely informal. Students are urged to attend so that they may get used to dancing to an orchestra. The orchestra is the Cornellians from the campus of Cornell college at Ithaca, New York. It has played for many of the college dances and has been one of the best.

Those attending will come in couples. The girls will wear skirts and sweaters and the boys will wear sweaters and slacks.

This dance is to get the students used to attending a large dance and to get the fellows used to making dates.

The admission is only 50 cents per couple which is very small considering the orchestra. Everyone is urged to come prepared for a good time. L.O.

Plans for School Magazine Started

Plans are being made by Principal Bretsch, Mr. McGee and Miss Larkin for a school magazine. None of the plans are definitely known as yet but they will be presented to the representatives from each room at a meeting on Thursday.

The representatives are as follows: Irene Lynch, Regina Richardson, Paul Ryan and Arthur Temple. Everybody will have an opportunity of putting something into this magazine. There will be room for drawings, poems, stories and all such things which do not get into the Hi Herald.

This magazine will be mimeographed and probably published four times a year. Because of the work and paper involved, there will be a small charge for the magazine. A.R.T.

Homemaking News

We are waiting to see the fashionable outfits which the girls of the Homemaking A and eighth grade are creating. They are making such things as smocks, skirts, housecoats, dresses, aprons and pajamas. Hurry up, girls, we are waiting to see you don the latest fashions.

The seventh grade and Home Economic A classes are ambitiously starting to make Christmas presents, so don't be surprised if you see some good looking presents such as belts made by Dorothy Lever, Irene Trowbridge and June Glover; make-up capes made by Irene Franklin, Dorothy Ellis and Pauline Becker; and purses made by Betty Halsey and Onnalee Greene, coming out of the Homemaking house soon.

I wouldn't mind being a lucky one to receive such beautiful gifts. The Home Economic A girls are also making beautiful Christmas decorations out of pine cones and bitter-sweet berries, wreaths, balls and centerpieces are some of the decorations that were seen. —V.L.

Schoolmasters Meet at Cuba

Three members of the Andover Central School faculty, Mr. Lynch, Mr. McKibben and Mr. Giffin attended schoolmasters' banquet at the Cuba Central School last Thursday evening. Professor Cecile Davis from St. Bonaventure College addressed the group, presenting an interesting talk on "Democracy in Education."

One hundred and fifty persons were expected to attend, but weather conditions were such that only about half of that number was present. —B.T.

Faculty to Enjoy Turkey Next Monday

Once again the faculty of Andover Central are getting in the spirit of Christmas. They are going to the Taylor home next Monday evening, Dec. 18, where a turkey dinner will be served, and after a program of singing they will return to the school gymnasium for games.

The members on the committee are: Miss Elliott, Miss Recktenwald, Mrs. VanOxx, Mrs. Schwarzenbach, Mrs. Ball and Miss Pope. —M.J.H.

Gettin' Around -

Do you know what ostentatious means in college?— Hot dogs! So we hadn't a chance, eh? 40-10 shows we didn't!

Mr. McGee had to treat Don Lynch because he lost a bet on the score of the Andover-Scio game.

Everyone wants to see the pictures after they're developed, Betty Jo.

Bud says the "Varsity A" should serve cocoa and crackers to the opposing teams.

One of the Varsity A's biggest problems and duties is to introduce local girls to the fellows. Why not draw lots?

Words can't express our sympathy Bill Dugan.

What's wrong with those fellows, anyhow? Can't they dance at Social Hour or won't they? Talk about girls getting in groups, the boys have it all over them.

The members of the Student Council should certainly go to the Sweater Swing.

Let's hope there's lots of charging around at the next dance.

The Seniors didn't like it because only two boys from high school were at their card party.

A Social Hour Council should be set up, to plan and conduct these gatherings. Most of the teachers can find little time to do it themselves. A council would help them as well as train students.

We hear you had a good time in Olean Saturday and Sunday, Betty Jo.

Soon there will be dancing after games, sponsored by the up-and-coming Varsity A, the club that's exclusive. Competitors will be invited to stay also.

Johnny Lynch lost all his books but the one he wanted to—geometry. The Sweater Swing has certainly created a great deal of interest. There's never been another title like it.

There should be either 6 or 8 cheerleaders, but definitely not 7. Kickapooos and Potawatomes are some names for the contesting sides of Junior magazine sellers!

Pupils saw an exhilarating dog fight in the grade entrance, between two little brown and white pups.

The Hi Herald party was a hilarious affair, but it didn't last long enough. It might have been a terrible nite, but that doesn't keep Andoverites from enjoying themselves. Where is the masculine part of the Hi Herald? Coretha Mead's umbrella blew inside out twice, as she nonchalantly turned it the other way to the wind and it blew right back!

Betty Jo won a whole sous (penny) in the French contest! I guess the fellows will take advantage of not having to dress up for the dance.

Didja see Wanda's identification card in the back of her hair? Most suave and sophisticated, but there's no war here—yet. —ACS

40 Students Attend Hi Herald Party

The Hi Herald staff held its first party of the year December 7th in the high school gym.

Forty staff members and several of the faculty were present. After an enjoyable evening of lively games and tasty refreshments of chocolate milk and cake, the students "topped" the evening off with dancing. —ACS
