One's mind, at some stage of life, carries the thought to the time when one must retire from the future. What position will you be in then?

We all agree that we want to be able to pay our way for independence, comfort and happiness, which can only be assured by preparing for it now while in the ranks of activity.

A bank account is the solution.

Rod and Gun Club Holds Annual Meeting

Carl Childs Elected President. Enjoy Supper and Pictures by Alwin Schaller. Fine Attendance.

The Andover Rod and Gun Club held its annual meeting in the Grange Hall last Friday evening. A good attendance enjoyed a fine tureen supper which was followed by the business meeting and motion pic tures. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Čarl Childs, president.

John C. Lever, vice president. George Sackett, treasurer. Gerald Hann, trustee. Clifford Bixby, game chairman.

C. C. Backus, fish chairman. In accordance to the request of the State Department, the office of secretary changes every three years and Secretary Ralph Shaff holds over until next year.

The club was also notified that a shipment of mature pheasants would be shipped here to be liberated in the
