Cast Complete for Firemen's Musical Comedy

Rehearsals Being Held Nightly For Hilarious Home Talent Play Her May 16 and 17.

The cast for the Andover Department's three-act musical comedy "Lyric Time," is now complete and rehearsals are being held nightly in the fire hall.

"Lyric Time" should be of great interest to Andover playgoers as it is a departure from the usual shows which have played frequently in the past few years. It is a comedy in three with a hilarious plot and clever dialogue.

Prominent among the townspeople taking part in the comedy department's new production is Oliver Komp, as "Jim Perkins," local boy. Playing opposite him will be Dorothy Lincoln, as "Felicie Carter," an actress. At the helm is Reginald J. Sootheran-plays the part of "Dudley Drake," a suave and Orville Kupp will play the part of "Brad," a thug.

Harold "Slim" Lehman, will in his part of a small town sheriff and Laura Backus, Hank A. Dean, Francis Vickers, Charles Sutor and Helen Dean play members of an acting troupe stranded in the hills of Vermont. The character part in the play is well played by Mrs. I. H. Giffillan as "Miss Campbell" local bachelor girl president of the Civic Republic League, and David MacKay, Eric Perkins, rube stage-doo-doo of a hundred year-old "opry hole."

The theme song of the show, "Lyric Time" will be sung by W. A. Lang, who will also play the part of "Menley," a Federal "G" man.

The show will be enlivened several effectively costumed dance choruses of girls from the Andover Central School. Taking part in Sunbonnet Sue chorus are Jean Howland, Ruth Halsey, Jean Dolan, Wilma Mullen, Mrs. Steadman, Phyllis Temple, Lorraine Theetge, Lola Wood, Jean Stevens, Louise Dunham, Barbara Lehman, Elfrieda Allen, Jeann Baker.

Dancing in the fast moving opener "Trouping," are Susan Andrew, Marlene Coats, Orianna Len, Clara Hann, Phyllis Lebar, Glover, Helen Smith, Betty Barbara Childs, Leona Clark, J. Halsey, Onalee Mullen, Arretta Ham, Patricia Temple, Mary Ann and Marion Stevens.

Members of the fire department working on the committees are: George Kemp, Clark Jackson, O. Woreley, Carl Childs, William Snyder, Orville Kupp, Albert Sutor, Donald Kemp, F. S. Potter and other members of the company.

The production will take place at the Andover High School auditorium on Thursday and Friday of next week, May 16 and 17 at 8:15 Eastern Standard Time.

Mothers and Daughters Banquet

The annual Mothers and Daughters Banquet will be held next day, May 14 at the Presby. church. Dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Committees in charge of the enjoyable evening with a program. Tickets are 60c and planning to attend are requested to make reservations to 54X by Saturday night if possible.

Village Clean-Up Next Wednesday

The Village Board of Trustees have announced this week's annual clean-up in Andover next Wednesday, May 16th.

Residents are asked to pick up their debris about their premises on the curb early in the day morning (better do it Tuesday so that the trucks can clear streets without having to make second trip).

Residents have enjoyed the pleasure of having their junk and debris moved free of charge for the past several years here. The Village Board is asking them to do the same for the next boxes or sacks that are easily handled by the village boys and that the material be put out early in the morn-
