The Passing of Adelbert Hann

Adelbert Hann passed his home, Andover, N. Y. June 25, 1940, after an illness of several months duration suffering which he bore patiently to the end.

He was the son of S. Rachael Adams Hann, among the earlier settlers in the vicinity. He was born in 1865 at the old Hann place which stands today as a mark where his father's home was.

On Nov. 11, 1884 he was married to Miss Ellen To this union was born three children, Mrs. E. Smith, Rachael Hann, Andover, W. Hann, Hornell. Other children include four grandchildren, Mrs. Sophronia D. Bethown, Pa., and two Charles Hann, Hornell, McFall, Miss. The latter turn visit back here last time to attend the annual reunion, after being away for several years.

Mr. Hann always held an interest in his community being trustee of the school and promoter of the telephone line which was a local years ago. He was also a dairyman for a short time, always kept in alert mind and was an outstanding member of the time of his death.

Last Armistice Day 1918 Hann observed their 50th anniversary by giving a dinner to the town. He was a man of position and will be sorely missed by his family.

Services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Rev. Lucian Kerns officiating. Burial was in private family cemetery home.

Among those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Charles Hann, Floyd Hann, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Huber, Felix, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Huff, Miss Helen Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jenks, William C.
