Vote On Election Day!

somehow he will read this. We heard him say Stafes. he wasn't going to vote at all. He didn't care. Just pause and think that over a little, mister!

dom that you aren't going to use—there are millions ing a crisis such as we are now facing? today who would give a great deal to have it. That; vote symbolizes a precious thing. You wouldn't throw away a glittering diamond or precious gold. But many people have found that their freedom is more precious! than diamonds or gold-after they lost it.

To be a free man you have to deserve to be a free economic age. man. You like to do as you please. Well, to run a country in which people can do more or less as they please, it takes some effort and interest by everybody. You can't expect to live in that kind of a country and | P never give it a thought. It needs your thought, your won't care. attention, and your vote. It is important. The choice of a President at a time like this may deeply affect the rest of your life. earn it. Of course we hope you vote the way we see it-but regardless of your opinion, you owe that to yourself and the rest of us. .

Your vote will count as much as the wealthiest or highest educated person. The ballot box is one place
