KE UP!

EVERYBODY

After a few squeaks the play finally began. Francis Horan, as Pied Piper, introduced the characters and described the play. The play consisted of a birthday party for Charles Hall, Mr. Book Week; speeches by such famous people as Heidi; Alice in Wonderland, Mr. Poper, Mary Poppins, Christopher Robin, Amy, Jo and Meg: a poem and a game. The game was one in which the audience could participate. Mr. Book Week read six verses about different books and the audience wrote down the names of the book they time I try to comb it."

JOHN LYNCH, Editor

"FORWARD" IS THEME OF SPORT SEASON

Making his debut as coach of Andover's flashy basketball team, Mr. Holmes started the basketball season with the belief that "Forward" would once again be the password of the team. Mr. Holmes introduced former Coach McGee who presented the touch-football awards for this year. The first awards of '40-41 went to The first awarus of average of the poor Lynch, George Greenan, John Lynch, Seniors; Roland Shaff, Don Emery, Stan Rugar, Wendall Vars and Vic Oakes, Juniors; John Dean, Warren Dolan, Arthur Temple and Charles Holt, Sophomores; Wesley Charles Holt, Sophomores; Wesley Lehman and Carl Wentworth, Freshmen and Lawrence Dean, P.G., named outstanding player on the squad.

This game will be the first game to be played in the new Alfred-Almond school gymnasium.

Last year the Purple Panthers defeated the Maroon and White two games to help clinch the Class'C' championship of our section.

Alfred-Almond has another good team and they expect to gain revenge from last year.

The first week's of practice are in full swing and it looks as if Andever is going to have both a good Varsity and Jayvee team.
