Celebrates Birthday

R's up to us stockeep this wide land of ours as free and healthy as it is now—to keep the minds and bodies of our people clean and stronghold not only of wealth and opportunity but also of health and happiness.

Every year at this time citizens all over the land start the New Year right by sending to the White House every dime and "thin ten cent piece" that can be spared to help in the care and defeat of the most dreaded disease, infantile paralysis. Progress has been slow because of the mysterious, silent tenacles of the mysterious, silent tenacles

Adult Game Night Postponed

The Seniors have postponed the adult game night which was scheduled for this Thursday evening, Jan. 30th in the A. C. S. gym. Atthouble the class was anxious to have this party this week so that half of the LOSE FIRST LEAGUE party this week so that half of the proceeds might be given to the Infantile Paralysis Fund, it seemed wise to cancel a public gathering due to the influenza epidemic.

The Seniors hope that the adults

Tuesday night for the first time in if league competition, losing 29-22 to Richburg on their court.

Andover led most of the time during the first half but Richburg ralled late and the score was tied 12-12 at half time. The last half was hotly contested with the lead changing hands many times until late in the game Richburg forged ahead and remained leading until the gum.

"Big" Stan Ruger held the scoring honors for the locals, hanging upelight points to his credit. Bud Dean played his usual good game both on defense and offense. Jack Norman was high for Richburg with ten points.

Sümmary:

The Andover high cagers won their third league game last Friday by trouncing Relmont 36 to 21 on the local floor. This win made Andover tie for first place with Richburg in the Class C League, each winning three games and having no setback. The locals got off to an early start and from there on had a ten point lead. "Bud" Dean and John Howland were high scorers for the Panthers with 11 and 7 points respectively. Wilkins was high for Belmont with 11 points. Rolly Sharf played the best defensive game of the night by intercepting many of the Belmont passes.

The line-up:
