Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cronk of Knapps Creek welcomed a son Tuesday, April 15th at the Olean hospital. Mrs. Cronk was formerly Miss Emily Blodgett of this village and a sister of Mrs. Hugo Honegger.

Scio residents are pleased with word received there that Dr. Leon C. Roper, former Scio physician, is allowed to return to private practice there. Dr. Roper was recently called to active duty in the army.

A surprise party was given Ernest Burdick Saturday night in honor of his birthday by about 30 members of the V. F. W. Post and Ladies' Auxiliary of Wellsville. After an evening of games and social time a fine dinner was served.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slocum Tuesday evening in honor of Leonard Reisman and Ernest Rice. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ray of Elm Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reisman and daughter Aline.

Trout season in Allegany county opens this Saturday, April 19th. Many local anglers, however, have taken the edge off their "Spring fever" by trying their luck in Steuben county waters the past two weeks. Leeman Davis and Harold Lehman have had nice rainbow trout on display here, taken on the Pleasant Valley stream.

The S. D. Baptist Ladies' Aid Society held their April needlework and social meeting with Mrs. Florence Bires at the home of her niece Mrs. Marian Theetge on Harmon street Wednesday afternoon. Several items of work pertaining to the society were considered at the business meeting in charge of Mrs. F. S. Potter, president, followed by a social hour and a fine supper.

The March and April birthdays were celebrated at Rebekah lodge Wednesday night. After the business meeting the following program was carried out: Salute to the Flag, song, "Star-Spangled Banner"; a piano solo by Ella Mae Clair; piano solo by Anna Mae Green; reading Mrs. Margaret Kemp; piano solo, a little girl visiting in Andover; song, "God Bless America." The kitchen was in charge of Mrs. Frances Beebe and the dining room Mrs. Nora Higby.

Regular meeting of Edward Seaman, W. R. C., Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeland have moved from the Owen house on Water street to Dundee.

Virgil H. Hussey of Greenwood has been re-elected superintendent of the 4th Supervisory District of Steuben county.

The Three Link Club met at I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday with a tureen supper. Mrs. Fannie Lehman will have the May meeting at the hall.

Wilfred J. Coyle of Richburg was re-elected for a five-year term as district superintendent of the 3rd Supervisory District, at a meeting of the school directors of that district Tuesday.

The Women's Mission Circle of the Baptist church are planning for the gift box opening with a pageant commemorating 70 years of mission service since the society was organized, Sunday evening, at the church.

Regular meeting of the O. E. S. was held Monday evening at their hall with a good attendance present. The remaining letters from out-of-town members of the chapter were read which proved very interesting. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter L. Greene entertained for dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Greene and Mrs. Robinson. This is the 16th successive year they have celebrated the anniversary together.

Contracts, allocations and loans to New York State firms and governmental agencies under the national defense program totalled $1,405,566,411 between July 1, 1940 and March 31st, 1941, according to a statement released by Reed Harris, acting State director for the Office of Government reports. The national total for the same period was $13,428,700,139.

The World Wide Guild held their meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hattie B. Eggleston. The lesson was on Burma. A long letter was read from Miss Eva Sheppard on "Africa." Florence Dodge read a letter from Miss Charlotte Carmen, one of the teachers in Rangoon, Burma. Elaine Pope also read a letter from one of the native doctors in one of the hospitals at Burma. White Cross work was done by the members.

The Playmates Club met at the home of Mrs. Beach April 14th for an Easter party. Officers for April were chosen at the meeting April 7 as follows: Chairman, Joann Baker; secretary, Helen Yannie; treasurer, Wenonah Smith; sunshine chairman, Johanne Theetge; chairman games, Jean Stevens; reporter, Phyllis Temple; new members chairman, Joann Baker. The new club pins were finished and placard booklets were made. The mascot chosen was a canary; color, red and violet and the motto, "What ever you do, do with all your might." Father and Son Banquet Tuesday, April 22nd

The annual Father and Son banquet which was recently postponed has been scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 22 at the Methodist church parlors with the dinner served at 6:30.

A fine program has been arranged with the Rev. E. D. Van Dyke of Penn Yan, N. Y., as the principal speaker. Rev. VanDyke comes highly recommended as a speaker for both young and old. A toast to the sons will be given by Supt. W. G. Pope and a toast to the dads by Wendell Vars. Musical selections and group singing will complete the program.

Tickets are now on sale by members of the Brotherhood Class and all fathers and sons in the community are welcome and urged to come. Men who have no sons are asked to bring some boy who might otherwise not be able to attend.

Home Bureau News

Instead of the regular scheduled Home Bureau meeting the Home Bureau will hold a bake sale at the former Vars store, Friday, April 25, beginning at 10 a. m., to raise money for the purchase of dishes for the Andover unit.

Three Home Bureau meetings have been held since the last notice, on the 8th and 15th of April for "Slip Cover" lessons conducted by the Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Eleanor Milliman, and on the 10th of April for the last two-clothing lessons conducted by Mrs. Livermore. With the exception of the first slip cover lesson these are all day meetings, held at the village hall, with a tureen dinner in American Legion hall at the noon hour. There will be three more slip cover lessons, April 22nd and 29th and May 2. These are very helpful lessons and we are sorry more of our members are not taking advantage of them.

R. A. Geer Dies in Wellsville

R. A. Geer, former Andover merchant, died at his home in Wellsville Wednesday morning, April 16th.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie Hanks Geer; three sons, Paul H., Edwin F. and Raymond C. Geer, and a brother, Louis E. Geer.
