Miss Larkin: "It frightens me sometimes when I think of it, but generally I view it as an excellent opportunity for the young men of America." Wanda Dolan: "Personally I think the discipline of army life is very good for the young men of today." Patricia Lynch: "I think it is a fine idea. It trains young men both physically and mentally, raising our social standards.' On the whole, most of the inhal itants of Andover Central School view the draft as an opportunity for young men; some feel that some revisions are in order. We could never hope to influence those in Washington, but at least the world knows how A. C. S. thinks. JR

"BASE HITS"

By RYAN local hall players had their irst organized practice outdoors last PRESENTING MISS JORDAN Tuesday. Coach Holmes stressed batting practice and a long batting drill was held. The prospects for this year's team look fairly good and the Purple and White should have a successful season.

Since there is no more local base-ball news we will continue our re-view of the major leagues, going over the American League: The mighty New York Yankees were dethroned from first place last year. However, this year they may recover this spot. The Yankees will not be so confident this year and will put more life to their play. Phil Rizzuto and Gerald Priddy have been purchased by the Yankees and they have proven to be a sensational keystone combination. Joe Gordon, the former second baseman has been moved to first base since the sale of "Babe" Dhalgren to the Boston
