BOYS ARE SUPERIOR
DISHWASHERS

Last Friday night only two Junior girls were left to do the dishes. After washing dishes for what seemed like hours, and when they were nearly in despair, two Junior boys and one Senior boy came to the rescue. These boys were such superior dishwashers that it was only a matter of a few minutes until every last dish was washed, dried and back where it belonged. As a reward for this excellent service the boys were allowed to devour the remaining food supply. Imagine it, even they could not devour the surplus!

Current Comments

GENERAL LYNCH?

It's really hard to tell whether or not Mr. Lynch will be a general, but we all hope he will anyway. We've known for a long time that next year would find A. C. S. minus him, and always next year seemed a long way away. Well, it's just around the corner now and we realize that not only a teacher, but a friend is soon leaving our midst.

Annual Exhibit

May 19th

The annual exhibit and open house for Andover Central School has been scheduled for Monday evening, May 19.

Movies Given For Homemakers

Tuesday, eighth period, the Home Economics students assembled in the science room and viewed two movies. The first one, presented by the Lily Thread Co. was on the manufacturing process of thread and its uses. It started with a short story of Cinderella and ended with the distribution of a spool of thread to each student present.

'42 Hi Herald Staff Named

Altho the Hi Herald started work this year with a much smaller staff, the editors still believe it can be cut more. Accordingly, they have set up a tentative staff with which next year's editor, Jean Rogers, will start work. Those who have missed assignments or who have in other ways failed the paper plus the graduating members, have been crossed out. To the list will be added such Freshmen as fit the qualifications.

Freshmen Will Be Exhibit Guides

The Freshman Class members, with sleeve badges and caps as identification, will act as guides for the annual exhibit, which will be held next Monday evening.

Seniors Merge Into A Corporation

The members of the Senior Class of '41 have merged their annual Senior Class Day with their Senior Ball into a combination one-day "corporation." The great day has been "put on the calendar" as May 29th.

Meeting Mr. McKibben

We here present Mr. McKibben, the Junior High homeroom teacher, and social science teacher of Andover Central School.

Meeting Mr. McKibben

While a freshman in high school and tipping the scales at 125, I decided to go out for football. Coincidentally, about 140 other boys decided to do the same thing. After the melee of passing out uniforms was over, I could be seen in an old pair of pants that tripped me as I ran, a jersey that kept my hands warm, and a helmet that restricted my activities to a game of blind man's bluff.

Knick-Knacks

GIRLS: This is a new column. We are going to try to put in it little items concerning the new or unusual pins, bracelets, etc. you are wearing currently. In case we might not be able to see all your "ideas," be sure to show them to us.

Behind the Scenes At the Prom

All who went to the dance know what went on, on the floor, but what they, and you, and I don't know is what happened behind the scenes. Now, a little birdie did, and he repeated thus:

Behind the Scenes At the Prom

Shh, Don't Tell!

Also there has been no suit filed for breach of promise as yet, a certain lady, not a student either, was a wall flower for a dance (he just didn't remember).

CHIT CHAT...

Swell time! Weren't the spotlights pretty? The orchestra was grand! That's all we could hear after the Junior prom was over for another year, last Friday night. Everyone had a grand time, and we hereby congratulate the Junior Class upon the success they made of their first class dance.

TRACK TEAM MEETS CANISTEO TEAM WEDNESDAY

Wednesday afternoon, Andover Central's track team journeyed to Canistota for their first meet of the year. Since this was Canistota's fourth meet of the season, they had the edge in experience and endurance, but Andover showed up well in both running and field events.
