"Dusty" Cable Writes To "Wandering W"
 Says He Will Bring His Wits Home Next Week on Furlough with Match Wits With Camp St...

Dear Willie:
 You mentioned a while ago that you'd like to hear from me. I feel kind of sorry if anybody ever writes you to see about the inmates of the cell skunk at a lawn cafe. You don't vote the right don't you Lux your things?
 Well, Willie, we should hook & ladder No. 1 here to give us a hand with the wax in our back lot. We had in our back lot a bean, from Friday until we slept on the ground. We got a couple of hours were all as tired as a man. I'm not sure, but I think I'm more ground with our bar. The real fire did. Any one did 3,200 acres for the After the fire every thing of being deaf, he had out the fire was so bad the wax in our ears them up. So, consequently wash in the middle of the officers were so with our destructive they chipped in and fur barrels of "cold tea" for along about 11 p. m., so Sam's nephews were huddled to chew the tail the rest were voting for better bonfires.
 Well, Willie, I'd bet as we are heading for Ga., tomorrow for firing which means more clean eating and sandwiches, those marble mattresses, quilts for blood-brother golly enjoying it! As law in this State against weapons over six inches have been arresting mosquitos and left. The mosquito to get that law repealed. Take care of yourself. Keep away from those depts.
 Your Pal,
 P.S.—As I had to be trip to the firing range, furlough but hope to see you next week for bring half my wits so even and match them.
