BRIEF BUSINESS

BRINGERS

FOUND

First Installment

had been told when she was so it, of course. to her. And as the years went by name and address. Do whatever your of them!" ______fully. "I am just your friend for waited till afternoon that would have with." Her eyes, were smoldering and she was surrounded by love and heart dictates. luxury, she thought little of it. Once when she was in high school she had asked about her own people casually, more out of curiosity than because of any felt need for them, ern city: and she had been told that they were respectable people who had been unfortunate and couldn't afford bring her up as they would like to an idea of erasing it: been very vague. But Marjorie vou was Dorothy."

been born theirs. ent, and she and Marjorie were dear stricken with an illness that they and lay staring about in the dark-longed for someone of her own. The wonderful it would be to have a sis- less aggressive now, more gentle. of her decision and her preparations. aistressed at once. "I ought to have to blame me that way!"

Then one morning about ten days not lived after all! not settle to anything else, and be- in her pillow and wept. er's intimate papers, she went brave- with friends.

She went from drawer to drawer, seemed intolerable.

emptying every pigeon-hole, and But when she reasoned that per- me, Marjorie. I love you, don't you; burning in the fireplace such things haps forgetting was best for the know it, little girl?" other important papers, a thick let- ing to either place. ter for herself. "Dearest Marjorie," it read, your own people. I did not really her.

one of twins. had a frailer look than you, and we tion.

able to give her. didates for adoption, yet I had set | might like to help her get ready for | think of such things now!" my heart upon you. After seeing the family gathering at Christmas common to me. So, my husband set your loneliness." light work and be out of doors. My of her own unknown family in the love me?" husband finally put it up to your back of her mind. treatment of both your father and feel I could." Little sister.

Once, when you were about three combat her, just as if he had expect-lips. months old, your mother wrote me, ed to have to do so.

But then, about a year ago, just ed frank eyes to his:

I really felt very sorry for her. "Something you have to do? What you. I only wanted to show you that voice was most ungracious, but she have to pawn that fur coat to get! She looked so much like you that I, do you mean?" He turned puzzled, I am your natural protector. But stood aside in the tiny hall to let enough to eat!" began to feel like a criminal. She; dominating eyes upon her. I am willing to wait, to go slow, till the other girl pass in. let her. I felt it would be a catas. don't you? You've always known ask one thing of you and that trophe for you at your time of life. that, haven't you, Evan?"

not forgotten it.

for your own mother. You will have said Evan lifting his well-modeled tonight. young that it meant nothing at all So I am giving you your mother's you would never want to see or hear "Very well," he said quite cheer be you'll recognize it. If you had paid, and we've nothing to pay it

Your loving Mother, May D. Wetherill." away from under his.

"Mrs. John Gay, 1465 Aster St And below that, in pencil, "The name by which they called and wept. First for the only mother and see if there was anything I ing that night's vigil, but more on that is from my adopted mother—ed up in wonder. Then her face she had known, and then for the could do for them." she had been chosen because they mother she had not known. How byed her at first sight, and that pitiful it all seemed! So many lit- lie'," said Evan coldly. And then she thought of it, the less she thought "You mean Mr. and Mrs. Wether- color that had come into her cheeks meant more even than if she had the babies in the world without he laid his hand once more on hers of Evan.

Mrs. Wetherill was a devoted par- loved so intensely by two mothers. her. when Mrs. Wetherill was suddenly That night she could not sleep property away from you! I insist again.

her foster mother's life in utmost ful for her-realizing how safe and stood up, her own chin lifted defi- that night. devotion to her. When it was over sweet and quiet it all was here, and antly, her eyes bright and indignant. and she was alone, she felt utterly how many complications there might "Evan! You must not talk that !. desolate and life seemed barren in- be if she broke the long silence be- way! You simply don't understan i ween herself and her own family. | at all." There were many friends of Yet the longing in her heart in- "But, darling, be reasonable!" anybody. She did not want anyone on us to live. Well, we'll take you strongly than at first, "I didn't ask course, for the Wetherills had a creased, to see them, even to find said Evan softening his voice. Mar- coming after her to try and hinder in, of course. Mother wouldn't have to be adopted, did I? I didn't have large pleasant social circle, and there out the worst possible about them, jorie didn't even notice he had called her in whatever she should decide to it otherwise, but I'll say it's some- any choice in the matter, did I? I were instant invitations for pro- just to have them for her own. Not her darling. It was such a common do longed visits here and there, but to be alone in the great world.

sister. Or-perhaps the sister had ing her hands in his and drawing the strange city and went to a hotel. ient, but I was so eager to find you. ed up and flung Marjorie's coat before Christmas, because she could Suddenly Marjorie buried her face girl! If you are really serious about fast she took a taxi and drove to thing about it. I've not come home "All right!" she said. "Put on cause she had been almost dreading. The morning mail brought two in- be investigated. I still think it would the letter. to go over her beloved foster moth- vitations to spend Christmas week be better not but if you have set

In to Mrs. Wetherill's desk in the Christmas was only ten days off let me do the investigating for you. living room, unlocked it, and began and it loomed large and gloomy. I am a lawyer. I know how to proto look over the papers in the pigeon | The thought of Christmas without | tect your interests, and I will do the only mother she had ever known whatever you want dont conscien-

as had to be destroyed, she came present, and tried to decide which She looked up at him, startled. finally to the little secret drawer, invitation she should accept, she was the first time he had ever spoand there she found among several realized that she didn't feel like go- ken of love. He had just been She was still in her unsettled state posed a brother might be, only more of mind when evening came, and polite than some brothers. I have never told you much about Evan Brower arrived to call upon! She drew back and tried gently

The Browers were one of the best clasp, but he held them firmly and about two years ago. My husband old families, and among the closest drew her closer. arranged everything about the adop-| friends of the Wetherills. Evan bear little girl!" he said sudden-Brower was three or four years old- ly, putting his face down and laying ly up the two wooden steps to the Marjorie went close and put her I never told you that you were er than Marjorie, and tho she had his cheek against hers, seeking her door that sad!y needed paint. There arms about her, her face down known him practically all her life, lips with his own and pressing a kiss was no bell so she knocked timidly, against the other's wet cheek. You were a very beautiful baby, it had not been until the last year upon them.

and so was your twin sister, yet she that he had paid her much atten- For an instant she yielded herself found upon questioning that she had "You are looking tired and white" but only an instant so brief it might they were gone, and she would have ing girl close. "But you are cold! little chance to live unless she could he said scrutinizing her face sharp-scarcely have been recognized by the no clue to search further, when she So cold you are trembling! Can't have an operation and special treat-ly. "You need a change, and I've man as yielding. For suddenly she heard hurried steps on a bare floor we go into another room where it is ment, which your parents were un-come to offer one. Mother wants sprang away, and put out her hands and the door was opened, sharply, warm and let me tell you how you you to come over and stay a couple in protest. But the neither of you were can- of weeks with her. She thought you 'No, please, not now! I can't you, all the other babies looked time. It will take your mind off trying to draw her back quietly about it to see what he could do. He Marjorie's heart sank. Here was "Poor child!" he said stooping and discovered that your father was not the question again. And a family kissing her fingers gently. strong and needed to get away to gathering! The hardest kind of a you realize that this is where you standing before her that she did not aren't sold to try and keep from the country where he could have thing to go thru with this thought belong, in my arms? Don't you mother while she was still in the "Oh, that is dear of your mother, turning unhappy eyes away from like and yet so unlike herself. hasn't had any work for nine months hospital, that she should give her Evan!" she said. "I do appreciate him. "I haven't ever thought of The other girl had the same cloud and Mother is sick upstairs in bed to the blank of with all the blank of with all the blank." consent to our adopting you. Mr. it a lot, and some other time I'd you in this way. And my heart is of golden hair, only it was flying in with all the blankets we own piled Wetherill agreeing to finance the love to come, but just now I don't full of so many other things now." every direction, not smoothly waved around her and a hot-water bag at tiously. I am sure you can trust!

But now she sprang away again, of fright in the depths of them; the her. Don't you know that Dad is begging that she might come and see "You're very kind!" said Marjorie covering her face with her hands. | same delicate lips, only they were sick himself, but he had to go out begging that she might come and see "You're very kind!" said Marjorie covering her face with her hands. you, but I persuaded her that it with troubled gaze, but more and "No! No!" she cried out. "I will set in hard lines as if the grim real- and beg the landlord to let us stay would be better for us all if she did more certain that she wasn't going not let you kiss me until I am sure, ities of life had been too close for a few days until Mother is betterto accept. Then suddenly she lift and I am not now! Please, won't her. you go away and let me think? My "Well," she said with a final little paper route, and I've had to take as you were graduating from Miss "You see, Evan, there's something mind is so tired and all mixed up!" shiver, opening the door a trifle wid- the children to the neighborhood Evans' School, your mother came to I have to do first before I can go "Poor child," he said gently. "I er, "I suppose you must be my twin nursery, to keep them warm and anywhere and begin life again." am sorry if I have seemed to hurry sister! Will you come in?" Her fed? If you stay here with us you'll

They were sitting on the deen you will think it over, and if any-still live here!"

She went away sobbing and I have near the other, but now he leaned handle it for you. Will you prom- long," added the other girl grimly.

"I will promise to think over what ing, "you probably would." Then arms flinging off the coat. "Note Then she added:

Nothing of the kind" saw that he couldn't get any further

They gave you up! I should think termination.

Something in the harshness of his now, but a very special friend, you been gone too." tone made Marjorie give a little know. One whom you can call upon "You know, I didn't even know ed with shame as she confessed this. shiver and draw her hand quietly for anything. Will you feel that?" I had a sister until day before yes- but Marjorie's eyes lit with joy. She smiled with relief. "I don't feel that way, Evan!" | "Yes," she said. "Thank you! she said gently, marveling that after Good night!" and she put out her unbelieving eyes. her hours of doubt she suddenly felt hand and gave his a brief impersonal clear in her mind about the matter. clasp. "You don't know all about it, or you Marjorie found she was too ex- "No one told me," she answered | wouldn't say that either, I'm quite | cited to sleep when she laid her head | sadly. sure. Mother left a letter telling on her pillow. But strangely enough "Oh yes? Then how did you find me about my people and suggesting it was not on the eager protests of out?" She bowed her head on the letter that I might want to hunt them up love that her mind dwelt most dur- "I found a letter—from Moth— the bills she was holding, and look. his insistence that she should not after she died. She left a letter to changed and an alert look came. "And I still say 'Let sleeping dogs search out her people. And the more tell me about my people."

homes, and yet she should have been in a possessive way as if he owned. She awoke in the morning with incredulous. the definite purpose in her heart to "Yes. I am alone in the world Then suddenly a thrill came to They never cared anything for get the matter over with at once. now, except for you—my own fam- fiercely. "We couldn't ever pay it her heart. But they were her very you or they wouldn't have sold you She would start right away before ily." When Mr. Wetherill died Mar- own, whatever they were! How in the first place. And now you are anything else could possibly delay The other girl's face grew very Jorie was still in her school life, and wonderful that would be! And her a being of another world than theirs her. If any more people came in hard and bitter now. mother had wanted her, enough to and they have no right to intrude and tried to turn her from her pur- "Oh," she said shortly. "I won- are my family, aren't you? It's my even more closer together, so that come a long distance to see her! into your life and try to get your pose she would become bewildered dered why you came after all these mother who is cold, isn't it?"

ty of money, carefully stowed as have died and left you penniless, I "Look here!" said Marjorie, her she had been taught to do when tra-suppose, after all their grand pre-lown eyes flashing now till they reveling. She left no address—with tensions, and you have come back sembled her—sister's—even—more phrase of the day, and Evan was a And so at last she was on her to have you turn up just now." Marjorie had no heart to go. She There was a sister, too, and how very close friend. But his voice was way, quite worn out with the tumult "Oh, I'm sorry," said Marjoric thing about you. You have no right her nearer to him. "Listen, little After attempting a sketchy break- And you don't at all realize any- back at her. your conscience to it, I beg you will > then into a sordid street of little but you'll let me help, won't you?" | or not, but I've got to try and save cheap houses with wooden porches "Moving!" sneered her sister. - my mother's life, even if it is with in an endless row, block after block, "Yes, we'd be moving right away to- that other woman's money!" with untidy vacant lots across the day if we had any place to move to! street, ending in unpleasant ash And any money to move with! And heaps. It was before the last house anything to move! Christmas! in the row that the taxi stopped. didn't know there was such a thing!

The driver handed her her check, any more!" And suddenly she dropcpened the door, and she got out ped down in the vacant chair, jerkgood friend, somewhat as she sup- her purse. "I think perhaps you had better ets of her old coat, put them up to ago, and his wife hasn't found it wait for me a minute or two until I her face and burst into tears, sob- out yet." make sure this is the right place," bing until her slender body shook to take her hands away from his she said hesitantly, as she eyed the with the force of the sobs. Yet it house with displeasure.

So, on feet that were strangely was some reason why she must r unsteady, she got out and went slow- make a noise. and then again louder as she heard "'Ch, my dear!" she said brokenly. no sound of life within. She was "My dear!" And then her own tears to that embrace, her lips to that kiss about to turn away, almost hoping were falling, and she held the weepalmost impatiently. Then she found have misunderstood me? Come!" herself face to face with a replica Then the girl lifted her face and ispoke fiercely again. "Does Mrs. George Gay live here?" | "Come?" she said, "Where shall She said the words because she we come? Don't you know there ad prepared them on her line to be not been a top property of the bear of top property. had prepared them on her lips to hasn't been a teaspoonful of coal in say, but she was so startled at the this house for two days, and that apparition of herself in the flesh we've burned up all the chairs that realize she had asked the question. freezing—except this one that has She just stood there and stared and to be sold to get some medicine for

"I don't know!" said Marjorie stared at this other girl who was so Mother? Don't you know Father And he suddenly drew her close in the way it ought to lie; the same her feet? She's getting pneumonia He settled down comfortably to again and pressed hot kisses on her brown eyes, only they were full of I'm afraid, and I had to lose n bitterness and trouble, and a kind job to stay home and take care of toward a single wood- she said, "no I won't wear your cost en chair in the middle of the room. even for a minute." quietly, and Won't you sit down? We still have But Marjorie caught it together "Look here!" she said with su There isn't any heat thority. "Stop acting this way! -and so-unappreciative-of your here. Will you take cold?" There your sister and I've come the tone of this hostile sister. Marjoric way! And we haven't time to ficks He was a wise young man and he gave her a quick troubled glance. We've got to get busy. What's the "Are you really my sister?" "I suppose I must be," said the! He studied her for a moment and other girl listlessly, as if it didn't in coal?"

And I guess Ted has lost his news Suddenly the sister's head went!

connected with them than I am. then his lips set in a firm line of de- the least matter, "there's your picture up there on the mantel. May- "they won't trust us till the bill is

The other looked at her with hard pulling out a nice fat roll of bills "That's odd, isn't it? How did and slipping them into her sister's that come about?" pay the bill and get the coal!"

hand, saw the large denomination of ill are both dead?" The tone was faded, leaving her ghastly white was all done very quietly as if there;

But her sister struggled up fierce-cars when you haven't paid the "After all these years? You stay. She called up the station and slightest attention to us. You with ing away and never sending us any both knew would be swift and fatal, ness of her room—the room that Marjorie drew her hand decidedly made her reservations on a train your grand home and your aristo- word? No! You're adopted and bethe girl spent the last month's of Mrs. Wetherill had made so beauti- away from under his again and that left the city a little after six cratic parents, and your fine educa- long to that other woman, and it's tion! What could you possibly want! her money, not ours. We can't take She took her check book and plen-j with us? But I see it now. They; it!"

thing like the end of a perfect day was adopted before I knew what was going on, and I didn't know anyworld seemed empty and uninterest- ter! She had always wished for a He got up and stood beside her, tak- The next morning she arrived in telephoned to see if it was conven- Then suddenly the other girl jump-

like slow fires, and her face was fill

"Oh, but I have!" she cried eager.

"There," she said, "go quick and

The other girl looked down at her back. There's no use," and she held

"Nonsense!" said Marjorie. "You

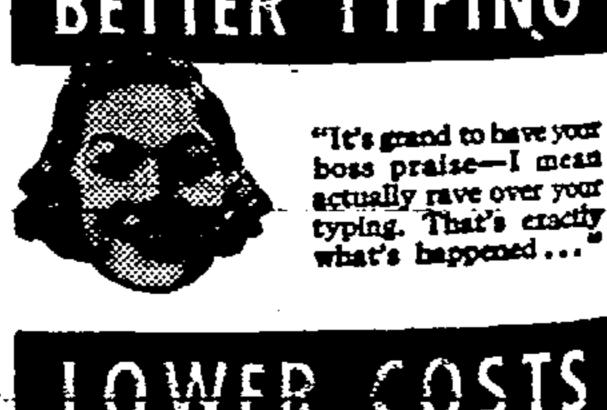

ly, and put her hand into her purse

this thing, of course it will have to the address she had been given in to be a burden on you. I thought your own coat. Mayoe it's all true. maybe I could spend Christmas with! I don't know. I've hated you and It seemed a very long drive, out you. I know how you must feel, the Wetherill's so long that I don't thru a scrubby part of the city, and You are moving and frightfully busy know whether I can ever get over it (CONTINUED NEXT WEEK)

"Talk about Napoleon! That fellow Johnson is something of a strat-"Got his salary raised six months

ing her hands from the ragged pock-

FINEST... MOST EFFICIENT TYPEWRITER EVER PRODUCED!

at the NEWS OFFICE Community Letters

FROM NEWS CORRESPONDENTS

end. Mrs. Milford Bassett accom-on his brother, Ben Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Hawks.

Hornell on business Monday.

(Mrs. Floyd Slocum, Reporter)

Mrs. Orville Green was a guest c

____

Elm Valley

(Mrs. Charley Cole, Reporter)

the children for Sunday school.

Locha Burdick last week.

a caller in the Valley Friday.

M. A. Bassett, O. A. Potter and day.

All Correspondence Must Be in This Office Tuesday

South Hill

(Mrs. Earl Schoonover, Reporter) Clark and Don Lewis and friend. Miss Alice Gath attended the show guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cran- Portville Saturday. in Hornell Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stever of Mrs. Irene Illig accompanied Mr. Arkport called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dreher of Wellsand Mrs. Glenn Schoonover, Sunday, ville to Altoona Saturday where they Miss Mary Lou Clark is spending are vacationing for two weeks. g few days with her grandparents. Miss Barbara Bassett was home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Inde- from Niagara Falls over the week-Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barney and panied her to Niagara Falls Sunday daughter Betty Jo of Fulmer Valley to see her sister, Miss Helen Langaccompanied their mother, Mrs. worthy who is seriously ill in the Harold Barney of Independence to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Densmore and men's convention in Whitesville last. Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barney and daughter Betty Jo of Fulmer Valley meetings of the Tebo Gospel party at the Andover Baptist church.

Mrs. Ed. McAndrew of Andover called on Earl Schoonover and famy Sunday afternoon. Miss Dorothy Schoonover friends of Wellsville motored Demmon and Smith Lake Sunday af-

Charles Dumont of Malone and friend of Syracuse called on Everett Clark Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Ear! Schoonover and daughter Dorothy and Mrs. Bertha Green of Joyce Hill were business callers) n Andover Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barney and family visited her parents, Mr. and Miss Dorothy Schoonover attended Mrs. Earl Perry on Swain Hill Sun-Friday evening.

the Grange meeting in Hallsport, day. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark and daughter of East Smethport, Pa., daughter Mary Lou and Mr. and were guests of her sister, Mrs. Julia Tuesday. Mrs. John Lewis attended the Lewis Hoagland and family last week. They reunion at the Hallsport Grange hall returned with them to their home Glenn Schoonover accompanied father, Wm. Ladlee at Smethport. Clarence Stearns to the hospital

Elmira Saturday. (Mrs. Dan Mullen, Reporter)

June 30.-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Teribury and family attended the Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Frank ball game at Greenwood Sunday Elsenheimer of Arkport were Sun-Dan Mullen of Andover is assist- day afternoon visitors of Mr. and ing with the farm work at Leo Mrs. Floyd Slocum. Beatrice Teribury has returned her son Ford and family of Wells-home from Fred Brown's where she ville a few days last week. has been for a few weeks. The third King reunion was held at Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullen's Sunday, June 29, with 49 present. Relatives attended from Elkland, North; Fork and Ulysses, Pa., Belvidere Cuba, Dansville, Angelica, Freemo Rexville and Andover. Fred Hunt has been assisting Jas.

Mitchell, Jr., for a few days. Vincent and Robert Mitchell spent, the week-end with James Mitchell.

arm in the ninth inning of a game between West Greenwood and Green- and family in Buffalo. 12 to 5, with Murray and Campbell) allowing 8 hits and Perry and Welch of Greenwood allowing 13. West Greenwood Grange hall June Lester York and family were visting in Canisteo Sunday. The junior softball team of Wes Greenwood was defeated 20-15 by a combined men and boys team Hartsville at an Old Home Day cele-

Mr. and Mrs. Olie Banks were the West Greenwood Grange hall, nany. Andover on husiness last Wednes ville high school Wednesday independence (Mrs. Floyd Clarke, Reporter)

Saturday, July 5th. July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. David funeral of Miss Marie Harvey daughter Lois Jean and Mr. and Rico leading all states and territo. The business men will all rejoice Mrs. Frank Saxter and Donald Hos- ries with a death rate from tubercu- And be extremely glad Mrs. Lart Ordiway at Hazelhurst

> Voorhees Hill (Mrs. Raymond Church, Reporter) | having the lowest mortality record And a pension for the old folks

June 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Carrol the Oregon rate in '39 having been But there are two things that we storage. Also dwelling for sale on Mrs. Hattie Crandall and William Church and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. 29.8," explained the doctor. of Alfred were Saturday callers at B. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall, Sunday.

Marleen Coats and Robert Coats Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and Grange hall Saturday. There will be special services at Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams and the parish house every Sunday even- Mrs. Howard Woodfield were busi- of tuberculosis is spread all over the ing at 8 o'clock during July and Au- ness callers in Olean Friday after- world as quickly as new facts are gust. Everyone is urged to attend noon. The Misses Koneta and Pauline er in the scientific approach to the Director S. W. Clarke and Mr. and Perkins spent the week-end in North treatment of the disease. district meeting of the Dairymen's Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams called Auto Found Cheapest and

The Wood family held their re- dere Sunday afternoon. Lytle Church and daughter Jeanunion in the parish house Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stinelli and ette of Elkland, Pa., spent Saturday ing is the automobile, the Ameri-Lois Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wil- forenoon with Mr. and Mrs. R. | cox of Wellsville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy | Church. VanSchaick and sons of Voorhees | The Misses Pauline Perkins and penditures for motor car travel on Hill were Sunday guests of Mr. and Thelma Lewis attended the Stout- the road, the survey reveals, amoun

Christine Church spent the week- heavy or medium car is driven. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hawks were in end with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stout and family at Wellsville. Mrs. Alice Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Saxton called on Mr. and ports, do not include tires and re-Mrs. P. H. VanSchaick Sunday. July 1.—Mrs. Charles Halsey and Ray Wilcox and family and Mr. and However, addition of average tire Mrs. Charles Spanellie of Wellsville and repair expenses of year-round)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stecher and Wilson Stewart was a business

Sunday, also visited Mrs. Hoagland's Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stecher and June 30.—Dr. H. R. Taylor, who Victor Hoagland were visitors has been ill since Friday night Floyd Slocum's Saturday afternoon ported improving. Mrs. Lura Schreiner and were guests of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum Sunday. Thursday in Victor, N. Y., the guests and James remained for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. George Case

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Millspaugh were lyn College, N. Y., is spending summer vacation here with his ter, Mrs. Myrtle Slack.

June 30.—The Rev. Howard E. their cottage at Keuka Lake. Wolfe of Wellsville holds services in Lee Millspaugh was in Alfred the Union Chapel every Sunday at business Monday afternoon. 2:30 p. m., E.S.T. Plenty of seats Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Marquis and the time. A man or woman will have been provided, also a piano and son Calvin of Hornell were calling spend two hours listening to another a good attendance is desired. Bring on friends here Thursday afternoon person explain the subject in which and attended the supper at Mrs. Carrolotta McAndrew and Methodist church. Gerald Greene, shortstop for the son Vincent passed Saturday and Rev. Marquis, who was pastor of And the other fellow will say, Greenwood baseball team, broke his Sunday with their daughter and sis- the Methodist church here four ter, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hollenbeck years is now pastor of Spencer

> Mrs. Stella Sloat of Millport and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood of brother, Jay Kemp of Petrolia were West Virginia are here for a visit voted admirer. Now, at long last, overnight guests of their niece, Mrs. with relatives and friends and to he had collected up sufficient cour Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Emhusis and which was held at Independence children of Painted Post were Sun- Sunday in the parish house of the lor," he began, "but there comes day guests at the C. Burdick home. S. D. Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crowner and Mrs. Lawrence Crittenden of panionship of another being-a being daughters were Sunday guests of Wellsboro, Pa., was here Friday, re- who will regard one as perfect, as here for two weeks, also Mrs. Arthur rows-" is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wellsville for a time. Coleman and family, former resi- The 17 graduates of Whitesville you're thinking of buying a dog? High School left Friday morning for she said. "I think it's a fine idea."

William Adams of Belvidere was a four day visit to New York City. let me help you choose one!" Principal Robert K. Howe and Mrs. The F. G. and Lloyd Mead fam- Howe and Mr. and Mrs. Howard ilies attended the Pease reunion in Pfeiffer are chaperones for the com-Whitesville's Old Home Week is no real indication of its killing pow-

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atwell and chil- greet will soon return home. There! attended a family party at the was a fine firemen's parade Thurs- most effective in slaying the germs

Progress in Fight on Tuberculosis Reported cheering news is brought by Dr. Kendall Emerson of New York, of local friends; managing director of the National Tuberculosis association. "We had a lower death rate in 1940 (By Otis Van Liew) over '39, there being a 41/2 per cent The Townsend plan is the only plan there has been a notable drop in the To live by, day by day mortality rate. This is very encour. And drives all gloom away... aging. There has been general It restores our faith in all manking progress made in almost every part Because it is here to stay It will bring prosperity to us all Dr. Emerson showed the itemized And help us on our way.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Matison and report for 1939 and it placed Puerto losis of 258 persons per 100,000 popu- Because their business will be lation; high on the list is the District of Columbia, where the death rate That they have ever had. was 87.4; Utah had the best record by having had the fewest number of There will be plenty of work for the deaths per 100,000 persons-16.1. "Oregon is among the 12 states | And they will all receive good pay in this national tuberculosis count, That will bless them every day, Dr. Emerson declared that "we That the good things come slow Church and family attended the have no medicine that either cures And that the honor and glory Fred Updyke of West Union called Gowdy reunion at Petrolia Grange or prevents tuberculosis, nature - will cure it if nature is given / of Andover are visiting Mr. and family and Rosalyn Cary attended recovery. In recent years certain Mrs. R. A. Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. the Lewis reunion at the Hallsport types of surgical treatment have proved of great benefit.

> "The knowledge of the treatment learned. Portland has been a lead-

League at Angelica Monday evening, on Mrs. Mianda Adams near Belvi-Cheapest form of family cluded after an exhaustive survey Fuess wedding at Hallsport Wednes- to between 11/2 and 2 cents a mile. depending upon whether a light, > pairs, because, as a rule, the costs! Mr. and Mrs. Roy Van Schaick of tires and repairs do not enter into njoyed a picnic with Mr. and Mrs. the out-of-pocket expenses of a trip. driving raises the per-mile costs only to between 2.18 and 2.94 cents. Divided among three passengers visitor on the hill Monday night and which is about the average car load on vacation trips, the per-person cost of motoring comes to about 1.7

car, the per person cost is reduced cents a mile. In addition to its low cost, the motor car enjoys the ad-(Mrs. Ella Millspaugh, Reporter) | vantage of flexibility of route and Office: E. Center Street, Andover schedule not available to any other Hours: 8-9 a .m., 1-3, 7-8 p. m. transport medium. The whim of the | Thurs, and Sun, by Appointment driver sets the schedule of operations and the route of travel, both Mrs. Howard Deck and Mrs. Les- subject to change day by day-even Webster spent Wednesday and hour by hour.

Don't Be Too Smart One way to keep the other fellow Wellsville on business Friday..af. from marking you down as dumb or Dr. H. R. Taylor and Editor Glenn, tive, unqualified opinions to the sublobbins were in Towanda. Pa., Fri-i ject or subjects on which you are day, where the doctor had business, an authority. When the talk is down Prof. Merle L. Bishop of Brook-! your alley be as positive as you like, I but when it gets around to the other fellow's field, let him tell you. The reason this simple rule is so hard to follow is that the average fellow Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deck and daugh-lis afraid to admit he doesn't know ter Anna are spending some time at everything about everything. He is afraid that if he asks questions and tries to learn from the other fellow he'll think he is smarter. Proof that nothing like that happens occurs all the he is most interested, interrupting only to ask an intelligent question.

a time when one longs for the com-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Angood of turning home Saturday and was ac- an idol; whom one can treat as one's | Hornell. Ethelmae and Norma re-| companied home by her sons. Mal. | absolute property; who will be kind mained for a few days visit with colm and Russell who have been and faithful when times are hard; Larley & Sootheran The sympathy of the community Crittenden, who will visit her in sympathetic gleam in her eyes

It is surprising to learn that the Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burdick and history now, and business is settling er. The sterilizing power depends 20% dividends returned on Liability son Richard were supper guests of down to normal again. The carnic to a great extent upon the alkalinity Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith in Little val has gone on to Warsaw. The or acidity of the germicide. In ormany friends we were so glad to od of days and weeks, the solut

Killing Power of Germicide

Former Andover Man

young folks

We are printing the following poem written by Otis VanLiew, former Andover man at the request "The Townsend Plan"

FOUND-A baseball mitt on the school grounds. Owner may have It fills our hearts with cheerful thots same by calling Otto Nye and paying for this notice. FOR SALE FOR SALE-A number of acres of standing hay on the Horan farm. Inquire of Henry Horan, Andover.

FOR SALE—Hay rake, two refrigerators, oil cook stove with oven, gas range, furniture.—JOHN

FOR SALE-Piano. Black walnut case, in perfect tune and good repair, $35. Inquire at News of-

FOR SALE or RENT-Barn on North Main street, Andover. Desirable as stock sales barn or for North Main street, Andover. Six rooms and bath.—Call 347, And-

TINY SPINET PIANO BARGAIN -Would you pay $167.70 for a small exquisite piano, in this vicinity? (Practically brand new). Just continue small monthly payments. Write P. O. Box No. 235, Olean, N. Y., and will write you where to see this

RENT-Scott house on 7th. Inquire of News or phone 166,

WANTED-Man to help during haying.—Green Bros. WANTED-Scrap iron. Will pay prices for all kinds of junk. Isaac Fleishman, 93 Washington street The estimate of sour-cherry production in New York places the crop at 13,450 tons, which would be the smallest crop since 1936.

H. J. Leahy, M. D.

$9 to $12 per ton. Also highest gives a touch of sails-faction. Recaptures

S. B. Scott, M. D.

Funeral Home

Calls Promotly Attended

DAY OR NIGHT

-AMBULANCE SERVICE-

Telephone 376

ANDOVER LODGE

B. C. Williams

INSURANCE

Elm Street - Phone 349

Co-operative, Inc.

re-Theft-Property Damage-Liability

Office Hours: 8-9 a. m., 1-3 and 7-8 p. m. Telephone - Andover 87

INSURANCE Office: 11 North Main Street Firemen's & Associated Companies Can write any kind of Insurance Hours: 9-12, 1-5. Saturday: 9-1

Earl J. Dawson's FUNERAL HOME

> Lady Assistant DRAYING AND GENERAL TRUCKING James Wentworth

AMBULANCE SERVICE

ANDOVER LODGE No. 786 - I. O. O. F. Meets Every Tuesday Evening Visitors Always Cordially Welcomed C. C. BACKUS, Noble Grand

Visitors Always Welcome All Legal Business Receives Prompt

Hours: 8:30 to 4:30 week days

Higby Electric Co.

WIRING-FIXTURES-SUPPLIES Delco Plants and Batteries Horton Washers.

I. W. JACKSON, President EVERETT CLARKE. Vice Pres. L. LYNCH, Secretary E. BURDICK, Treasurer Phone: Andover 97M Meetings Called by President

Meets First and Third Monday evening of each month, 8 p. m. Visitors Always Welcome ARLING R. BAKER, Secretary FRANCIS VICKERS, Secy. ANDOVER GRANGE

DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE Meets every second and fourth Co-operative Association, Inc. . A. ROBINSON. President

G. MEAD. Vice President HARRY SMITH, Secretary Meets first Saturday each month HENRY STEPHENS INSURANCE AGENCY

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS 25 First Class Companies Efficient Service - Established 1903 Phone 547 - Andover, N. Y. MONUMENTS

OF CHARACTER LUNDBERG GRANITE CO. Phone - Olean 3798 Weston Mills, N. Y. W. N. RICE, Local Representative