Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum Feted By Neighbors In Honor of Golden Wedding Anniversary.

At exactly 6 p. m., September 4, 1941, a pretty wedding took place on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church when the 50-year married bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum, repeated their vows before the "Rev." Paul Ryan. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, and the "Old Gray Mare," rendered by Henry Baker on Defeats Belmont 8 to 3 at of her father, (Jack Greenan) took her place before the arbor, decorlated in gold and green where she was met by the groom, with his best man, Luther Coleman. She was atttired in a long white taffeta gown. Her only ornament was a long string of pearls (macarloni, gift of the groom). Her long net veil was held in place by a wreath of calendulas and a gold band, the ends of which was carried by James Connor and Danny Man-
