

Community Letters

FROM NEWS CORRESPONDENTS

All Correspondence Must Be in This Office Tuesday

South Hill

(Mrs. Earl Schoonover, Reporter)

Sept. 30.—The friends and neighbors of Anthony Dougherty and family extend sincere sympathy in the loss of a dearly beloved mother. Many from here called at the home in Andover and also attended the funeral services at Blessed Sacrament church Friday morning of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Forness of Hornell drove over our hill Sunday, renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams of Stannards spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yeager of Fulmer Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moon were Monday business callers in Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schoonover of Painted Post were Sunday visitors of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barney in Fulmer Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Flage of Olean called on the Dean brothers Monday, as they have for several years, for their winter supply of potatoes.

In an issue of last week's Wellsville Daily Reporter, a write-up appeared concerning the old dog in our neighborhood. The piece was so effective as to bring out a posse Sunday. One party reported from Limestone, N. Y., to join the hunt. To date we have heard no reports as to the success of the venture. Apparently the dog's days are not numbered as yet if they are as ferocious as reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Clark and daughter Mary Lou were Sunday guests of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Independence, and also called on their mother and grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Clark at the Leonard nursing home in Elm Valley Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yeager and Mrs. E. M. Pepperman and granddaughter, Miss Barbara Brott of Fulmer Valley attended a birthday party for Mr. McNary at his home in Scio Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stewart, who have a home they erected on the Roy Yeager farm spent Sunday with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle McColnery of Coudersport, Pa.

Mrs. Fern Brot was a Rochester business caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Joyce and family were in Hammondsport Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark were business callers in Wellsville Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schoonover and daughter Dorothy were Sunday dinner guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Wm. Beihl and family of Pingrey Hill. Miss Dorothy returned to Wellsville in the afternoon.

Mrs. Lulu Byrnes of Wellsville spent Friday with her nieces, the Deans and Dougherty and also attended the funeral of Mrs. Dougherty in Andover.

Mrs. Glenn Schoonover assisted Mrs. Earl Schoonover with the bake sale in the Atwood store at Andover Saturday morning.

West Greenwood

(Mrs. Dan Mullen, Reporter)

Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hale and Mrs. Anna Stephens and John Crawford of Slate Creek spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Olie Banks and Alice Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Evans and son of Freemont passed Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullen.

Henry Joyce and William Whalen of Joyce Hill were calling on friends here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of Canisteo are passing a few days with Olie Banks and family.

Stanley Maxswen is assisting Dan Mullen and son in potato digging.

Jennie Teribury passed Tuesday at Mr. and Mrs. George Guinn's.

Mildred Banks was in Andover on business Monday morning.

Elm Valley

(Mrs. Charley Cole, Reporter)

Sept. 30.—George Dodge of Bolivar spent Sunday night at Judson Burdick's.

Mrs. Cora Burdick was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker of Stannards a few days last week.

Private and Mrs. Clifford Burdick leave tonight (Tuesday) for Atlanta, Ga., after spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Burdick.

Mrs. Florence Gibson of Allentown was a caller at Gordon Payne's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hollenbeck and little daughter Bernadine of Buffalo were week-end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew and brother Mr. and Mrs. Louis McAndrew.

The Judson Burdick family enjoyed a trip to Niagara Falls Monday.

Miss Edna Barrett of Pingrey Hill called on Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hollenbeck in the Geo. McAndrew home Sunday afternoon.

Whitesville

(Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh, Reporter)

Sept. 30.—Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Taylor were Buffalo visitors Sunday.

F. G. Rigby who has been ill several weeks was in Hornell Saturday for an x-ray treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Richmond were business visitors in Elmira Monday.

Arthur Crittenden was in Wellsville on business Monday and Mrs. Crittenden visited in Stannards while he was absent.

Mrs. F. G. Rigby and son Roger were in Warsaw Sunday to visit her daughter Marjory who is a student nurse in the Community hospital there.

Lawrence Crittenden and sons, Malcolm and Russell of Wellsboro, Pa., took dinner Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden.

Mrs. Rho Leach spent the week-end at Keuka Lake with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams of Alfred.

Rev. Adelbert Allison of Fairport, N. Y., was in town Monday, calling on friends. He is a former pastor of the Universalist church here.

The Whitesville male quartette sang in the program of the "Booster" meeting sponsored by the Potter county Grange held at North Bingham Sunday afternoon.

The Woman's Division of Christian Service will serve a meat supper in the church Wednesday evening October 1st.

C. L. Travis received the sad news Saturday afternoon that his only sister, Miss Daisy Travis of Brewster, N. Y., had passed away suddenly after a very brief illness of a few hours. He left as soon as possible for Brewster after receiving the message.

Good pastures and farm-grown grains are excellent feeds for lambs after they are weaned.

ONE A DAY

Each "One-A-Day" brand Vitamin A and D Tablet is equivalent in Vitamin A and D potency to two teaspoonsful of Cod Liver Oil meeting minimum United States Pharmacopoeial Standards.

A sufficient supply of these two important vitamins is as necessary for you as it is for the children.

YOU CAN INSURE adequate intake for you and your family by seeing to it that each member takes a "One-A-Day" Tablet every day.

A TABLET A DAY IS ALL YOU TAKE A PENNY A DAY IS ALL IT COSTS

30 tablets 35¢ 90 tablets 85¢ 180 tablets $1.50

Voorhees Hill

Sept. 30.—Mrs. Lester Saxton of Wellsville spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Van Schaick.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smith daughters Helen and Bertha, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson of Spencerport spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Simkin spent Sunday with his aunt, Miss Ellen Simkin at her home in Joplar Ridge. Miss Simkin is 95 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams called on Warren Adams, who is ill at his home in Arkport, Sunday.

The Misses Koneta and Pauline Perkins called on Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Rogers at Whitesville Thursday evening.

Slate Creek

Sept. 30.—Republican caucus was held at the Hartsville town hall Thursday evening with the following men on the ticket: supervisor, Francis Acker; town clerk, Dan Todd; justice for four years, Lou Clark; justice for four years, John Mullen; superintendent of highways, Raymond Stewart; collector, Alton Comstock; assessors, Harry Woodworth, Ernest Clair; school collector, Ora Wilson.

Democrat caucus Monday night: supervisor, Harlan Amidon; town clerk, "Adrian" Oakes; justices, Floyd Caples, Fred Hartman; superintendent of highway, Francis Clancy; assessors, John Crawford; collector, Alton Comstock endorsed.

Mrs. Wm. Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stewart and family and Ellsworth Henry enjoyed an outing at Seneca Park, Rochester Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hale were recent callers in Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Campbell of Adrian called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stewart Monday evening.

BIRTHS

Sept. 20.—To Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Covert of Cuba, a son.

Sept. 21.—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Comstock of Belmont, a daughter.

Sept. 23.—To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zemke of Cuba, a son.

Sept. 19.—To Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Biancuzzo of Belmont, a daughter.

Sept. 27.—To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Chambers of Wellsville, a daughter.

Sept. 28.—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fagan of Wellsville, a daughter.

Sept. 28.—To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lambert of Wellsville, a daughter.

Sept. 28.—To Mr. and Mrs. William Margeson of Wellsville, a daughter.

MARRIAGES

Sept. 20.—Miss Doris Partington of Bolivar and Bruce C. Douglas of Buffalo. The bride's father, Rev. Arthur Partington and her brother, Rev. J. D. Partington officiated.

Sept. 27.—Miss Hazel Pire of Little Genesee and Leslie R. Whitney of Westons Mills.

Sept. 27.—Miss Ethel Downey of Rexville and Leland Stebbins of West Union. They will reside in Niagara Falls.

DEATHS

John H. Conway, 50, of Cuba, Sept. 24. His wife and a daughter survive.

William E. Seager, 56, assistant superintendent of the Borden milk plant in Belmont, Sept. 24 from a heart attack. His wife, a daughter, his mother and a brother survive. Services were held Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Elsie Yoeman, 87, formerly of Belmont, at Angelica Sept. 24. A daughter survives.

Mrs. Patrick Moran, 70, Wellsville, Sept. 29. Her husband, two sons, two sisters and two brothers survive. Services were held Thursday morning.

He'll Be a General Some Day Sergeant: "What is the first thing to do when cleaning a rifle?" Private: "Look at the number." Sarge: "And what has that to do with it?" Buck: "To make sure I'm cleaning my own gun."

Sonny: "Dad, what do you call a man who drives a car?" Dad (a pedestrian): "It all depends on how close he came to me, son."

To remove dents or bruises on furniture, lay a damp woolen cloth or blotting paper over the spot and press it with a hot iron.

RELIEVE MERRY OF COLDS

DOCTOR URGES HEALTH PROGRAM

We Should Be Planning for Our Children's Children Says Kopetzky

Need for a long range health program which will look beyond the present generation toward effects upon our grand-children and their descendants, is indicated by the results of the selective service medical examinations, according to Dr. Samuel J. Kopetzky, of New York City, president of the Medical Society of the State of New York.

He spoke at the annual meeting of the Eighth District Branch at the Hotel Jamestown, Jamestown, New York, October 2.

Dr. Samuel J. Kopetzky

"Examination of 119,242 registrants in the New York City area," said Dr. Kopetzky, "showed that approximately 42 per cent were inducted into the service. For limited military service, 30 per cent qualified. Only 26 per cent were disqualified for any military service whatever."

"No false impression should be drawn from these figures. The Army accepts only the cream of the crop; the most healthy and vigorous of the male population. To be unfit for full military service, does not necessarily imply that the individual is therefore unfit to carry on a gainful civilian occupation or that he is unable to be a useful member of society. A small minority are actually disabled."

Nevertheless, Dr. Kopetzky explained, he is now engaged in a study of the problem presented by the statistics as chief medical officer of the New York City Selective Service. The problem divides itself into two parts, he stated; a short range program and a long range program.

"The short range program is the instant program presented by handicapped manhood. This means integrating present facilities; it is but a stopgap. It leaves untouched the repetition of its own features in other individuals. The latter implies a long range program whose goal is a definite change in the health level of the people to prevent revealed conditions from being an ever-recurring factor in the years ahead of us."

"The short range program is, today, in the hands of the medical profession, and the profession is on its way toward handling it. The long range program has just begun to evolve."

"In the past a number of persons have concerned themselves with bringing more medical care to the people on a quantitative basis. They have hardly seemed to be concerned with the quality of medical service they would attempt to distribute. Had they accomplished their goal, any step in real progress for better health of future generations would have been delayed for decades. Only the cheapest price would have been paid for individually procured medical care. The vicissitudes of the medical research laboratories might or might not gradually have become available to this cheapened service. Medical aid to the afflicted would still have been limited to the treatment of diseases for which cures are available. The problem of how to prevent the repetition of medical deficiencies in succeeding generations would not even receive consideration, because it would be outside of what is normally considered the field of public health medicine in bringing medical care to the general population."

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

"We should still see muscular development and muscular strength confused with inherent good health. We should still see exercise taken vicariously by thousands watching football, baseball or hockey games, instead of entering into these health sports themselves for their own improvement. We would still be content to see attempts on the part of the government to appropriate millions to develop 'little Sandows' whose eye-sight and whose teeth were poor, who might have chronic discharging ears, or an inherited tendency to deafness which would make them unable to hear when they reached middle age, but who could lift weights, and swing dumbbells!"

The Answers

1—Up to Aug. 31, $324,000,000.

2—Yes; 99.8 per cent of convoys reached port safely.

3—Yes; he is in the U. S.

4—For the present fiscal year, $13,000,000,000; approximately one half will be borrowed.

5—While it contributed to our entry nearly two years elapsed before war was declared, April 6, 1917.

6—Charles Evans Hughes, Herbert Hoover, Alfred M. Landon and Wendell L. Willkie.

7—A minor clash in Manchuria, leading to Japanese conquest.

8—British, General Archibald Wavell; Italian, Marshal Rodolfo Graziani.

9—All but those dishonorably discharged.

10—Newly-devised, shallow-draft, merchant ships.

Ventilation of Poultry Houses

Wet poultry houses are a serious handicap to many poultrymen, but some men in Allegany county are taking steps to solve their problem now before winter sets in.

H. W. Elliott of Alma got plans and instructions from the Farm Bureau office in Belmont and changed the ventilation in his house to prevent drafts on the birds and to provide for the removal of moisture-laden air. He made the changes without any complicated carpentry job, by merely installing boxed-in air intakes which allow plenty of fresh air to get in without causing drafts, and by putting the outlets at the highest point in the roof.

John Ellsessor of Angelica reports that he has never had any trouble with ventilation since building his henhouse from old lumber. The house not only stays dry in the winter, but is cool in the summer. This was accomplished without the use of expensive insulation, by carefully providing the proper air intakes and outlets.

Solving the ventilation problem as these men have, is a big labor-saver as it enables them to leave the same litter in for months at a time. Poultrymen with well ventilated houses have to change the litter only once or twice during the winter. D. H. Lyon and Son of Angelica have a multiple-story house in which a perfect ventilation system of air-intakes and outlets keeps healthy birds in good laying condition. Poultrymen interested in getting information on ways and means of improving the ventilation in their laying house should consult the Farm Bureau office in Belmont. A card requesting a bulletin or a farm visit will bring a prompt reply.

News ads pay.

BRIEF BUSINESS BRINGERS

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Two-story studded building, 75x25 ft., also lot on Main street, Andover. Will sell both or building separate. Reasonable. Inquire Andover News.

WANTED

WANTED—Woman or girl for general housework at once.—Mrs. Guy S. Wood.

WANTED—Scrap iron. Will pay $9 to $12 per ton. Also highest prices for all kinds of junk. Isaac Fleishman, 93 Washington street, Hornell, N. Y. Phone 7204.

TRAIN SCHEDULE

Effective Sept. 29, 1941.

West Bound:

Truck Trip No. 5—8:15 a. m. Brings First Class Mail and Parcel Post.

Train 7 ----- 9:51 a. m.

Train 1 ----- 5:50 a. m.

East Bound:

Train 2 ----- 10:40 a. m.

Train 8 ----- 2:53 p. m.

Truck Trip No. 5—5:00 p. m. Takes all Parcel Post and Eastern first class mail, also registered mail.

Mail Closing Time

West Bound

Train 7 ----- 9:20 a. m.

Train 1 ----- 5:20 p. m.

East Bound

Train 2 ----- 10:15 a. m.

Train 8 ----- 2:20 p. m.

Andover Directory

S. B. Scott, M. D.

Office: E. Center Street, Andover
Hours: 8-9 a. m., 1-3, 7-8 p. m.
Thurs. and Sun. by Appointment
Telephone 2106

J. Robert Common

D. D. S.
Office: 11 North Main Street
Hours: 9-12, 1-5, Saturday: 9-12
X-RAY EQUIPMENT

MULHOLLAND'S

Funeral Home

Calls Promptly Attended
DAY OR NIGHT

—AMBULANCE SERVICE—

Telephone 376

James Mulholland, Manager

ANDOVER LODGE

No. 558 - F. & A. M.

Meets First and Third Monday evening of each month, 8 p. m.
Visitors Always Welcome
J. ROBERT COMMON, Master
ARLING R. BAKER, Secretary

ANDOVER GRANGE

NO. 1098

Meets every second and fourth Wednesday evenings.
FRANCIS MEAD, Master
MRS. I. H. GILFILLAN, Lect.
MRS. H. S. LIVERMORE, Secy.
Visitors Always Welcome

Earley & Sootheran

Attorneys & Counselors at Law
All Legal Business Received Prompt Attention
Hours: 8:30 to 4:30 week days
Saturday 8:30 to 12.
Phone: Office - 77 Andover, N. Y.

B. C. Williams

INSURANCE

Fire-Theft-Property Damage-Liability at new low rate.
20% dividends returned on Liability Insurance.

Elm Street - Phone 349

AND-WELL PRODUCERS

Co-operative, Inc.

H. W. JACKSON, President
EVERETT CLARKE, Vice Pres.
C. L. LYNCH, Secretary
C. E. BURDICK, Treasurer
Phone: Andover 97M
Meetings Called by President