One slightly used car—in almost perfect condition. To be sold at sacrifice because owner forbidden by law to drive at present. Has been in one small accident in which a pedestrian was injured but the car was not damaged. Probably no one who reads this will buy it because it cannot be registered in New York State until owner pays judgment against him and shows proof of financial responsibility for future accidents. He didn't have automobile insurance.
(After January 1st, when the new safety responsibility law goes into effect, such an advertisement would not be possible.) Get complete details on this law and how you may protect yourself now with adequate automobile insurance in the (American) Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Company of Illinois, Chicago, through our agency.
