Miss Yannie Named St. Francis Organist

We are reprinting the following from the January 12, issue of the Herkimer Evening Tribune. Miss Yannie's many Andover friends extend congratulations and wish her continued success in her work:

Miss Anne M. Yannie, formerly of New York, took over her duties as organist and choir director at St. Francis de Sales church yesterday, succeeding Robert F. Smith.

Miss Yannie, a graduate of Andover High School and Fredonia Normal School, taught music in the state public schools for several years.

She is also a graduate of Manhattanville College, New York, studying under the noted Prof. Achille Bragers, and won a diploma to teach liturgical music in parochial schools. In recognition of her ability, the college named her to the faculty to teach piano and organ during her last two student years.

Miss Yannie for three years was organist at St. Peter's church, Yonkers, and for the past two years was organist and choir director at St. Thomas Aquinas church, the Bronx.

Besides acting as organist and director, she will teach vocal work in St. Francis de Sales School twice a week in each grade. One of her tasks will be to build up a senior choir and to develop the girl's glee club, both established by Miss Marie A. Magadiou, recent interim organist.

Miss Yannie will also give lessons on the organ, and has already accepted some pupils. The Rev. Dan-

Another Truck Crashes at Greenwood

A trailer-truck loaded with lathes and machinery failed to make the turn and crashed into the Dale Baker store at Greenwood early Sunday morning.

According to reports the truck went out of control about a mile above Greenwood when the driver tried to shift gears and couldn't get them in. The brakes failed to hold and the truck crashed the Baker store, overturned and deposited its load into the store cellar.

Robert Grosso, driver and helper George Frank, both of Detroit, escaped with minor injuries.

The machinery was designated for a defense plant at Harrison, N. J.
