Louisa's Letter

Dear Louisa:

The boy I have been going with for three months will have to go to the army next month. He hasn't a commission and we are wondering whether we should get married now as he may be away for a long time. We had not planned to get married until next fall. What would you advise us to do? ANNIE L.—N.H.

Answer:

I think you will be wise to wait until he comes back. After all, you had not planned to be married for seven or eight months and lots of things can happen in that time. There is even a small chance that the war will be won by that time, although the chance is a small one, indeed.

However, I can't see where you have much to gain by getting married now and you do run the risk of a great many complications if you do. Getting married doesn't change a person's character and you can be just as faithful and loyal to a man where you are single as if you were married. It is also a good idea to know a person a little longer than three months before you sign up with him for life.

—LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I have treated my wife and children shamefully in the past and they have reached the point where they care very little for me. Just recently I have realized how badly I have behaved and I am very remorseful. How can I win back their love and faith? I admit I do not deserve either.

REPENTANT.—Alb.

Whitesville

(Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh, Reporter)

The Women's Society of the Methodist church served dinner Saturday evening at 5:30 to the Current Event Club.

On account of the storm and the snow filled roads, there was Sunday School but no preaching services in the Methodist church Sunday morning. Rev. Doane, the supply pastor was unable to drive 40 miles over the snow-blocked roads to hold services.

The worst storm of the winter began on Friday when rain fell all night, turning to snow on Saturday morning and continued all day. The roads were filled with slush and wet snow, which froze Saturday night. Snow continued Sunday and roads were blocked, the mercury at ten below zero Monday morning.

Fire in the Janet Cornell house corner of Main and Hill street, called out the fire company Monday morning. The fire was quickly extinguished and slight damage resulted.

Selecting Your Personal Pipe

A system for helping men through the labor of picking a pipe that fits the face, and a tobacco that pleases the taste has been worked out by Joseph Ross, president of a New York pipe salon. "We sit down quietly and discuss the whole problem," said Mr. Ross. "It is the way a doctor would do. We ask all kinds of questions and try to get a case history. Then I write out a temporary prescription." The smoker is urged to try a bowlful of that, and this, and to ask questions. "Often they have been cigarette smokers and they fail to realize that a pipe has four times more fire volume," he said. "We explain this and suggest slower, more deliberate puffs." At present there is a trend toward aromatics. Ross can serve blends flavored with peach, brandy, apricot, mint, rum, honey, berry juice, nutmeat, grapes, snowapple, wild cherry, Hawaiian beans, maple and the mixed juice of five fresh fruits.

Celebrating Great Occasions

In ancient history, legend has it that Cleopatra dissolved a pearl worth $375,000 in her big moment of meeting Mark Anthony. Emperor Vitellius celebrated his victory over Otho by just eating mostly flamingo tongues. Messer Marco Polo, his father, and his uncle, after years of absence in far Cathay, appeared in their ragged garments, slit the seams and released streams of diamonds, rubies and sapphires, proving to all that they were genuine Polos and relatives worth having. And going back about two centuries it is found that Benjamin Franklin in 1750 decided to kill the Christmas turkey by means of the latest thing, electricity. In the excitement, he forgot to let go of something and the current missed the bird and gave Franklin one of the shocks of his life.

Salt Water Fish

Fish and shell fish have about the same food value as meat and are usually cheaper than meat. Salt water fish and shell fish are particularly important because they are rich in iodine. Today you can get salt water fish either fresh or quick-frozen, in practically every city or town in the United States. Broiled fish steaks, served with butter, lemon and parsley or a tart sauce, are always successful.

To broil a fish steak, use your broiling rack. Grease it lightly to prevent fish from sticking. Place steak on rack and broil about six inches under medium flame. Turn and broil on other side. When fish begins to fall away from bone, the steak is done. Season with salt and pepper, dot liberally with butter and garnish with lemon slices and parsley or watercress. Serve very hot.

With Needle and Spoon

The bed from the health room has been placed in the Homemaking rooms for use by the Red Cross nursing classes.

In the Home Economics 6 Class the girls are planning furnishings that would make different types of rooms most attractive.

The Homemaking 9 girls are starting their cooking unit. This week they had eggs—omelettes, egg-nogs, scrambled eggs, fried eggs, and boiled eggs.

The seventh and eight grade classes are studying grooming.

The Senior girls made sandwiches last Monday afternoon for Adult Gym Night.

Square Dance Saturday

Because of a demand from the students and townspeople for more square dancing, next Saturday night the ACS student council will hold a round and square dance from 8:30 to 12 o'clock in the local gymnasium. Music for the dancing will be furnished by Andover's popular fiddler, Henry Baker, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rogers. Nelson Brewster will do the calling.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria and it is hoped that a good crowd will attend, representing both the students and townspeople.

Grade News

In the first grade many people are out because of bad colds and mumps. They have made Valentine clowns and a house in which to put the Valentines. They check off the days of the month on a calendar drawn by Miss Butler.

In the second grade there are 11 absent with the mumps.

The third grade has started a Good Readers' Club. They read one or two books a week and record titles and a story of the books. They are paying five cents for two weeks for a party every two weeks. They also welcomed a new girl, Norma Short, who comes from Binghamton.

In the fourth grade a bulletin board entitled News Flashes, is viewed. Pupils have brought articles for it.

In the fifth and sixth grade they have made Washington and Lincoln booklets.

In the seventh grade they have elected new officers: Mayor, Beverly Stevens; Mayor Pro-tem, Doris Wintenberg; Treasurer, Patricia Ludden; Secretary, Dorothy Mead; Sergeant-at-Arms, Carl Loper.

In the eighth grade Basil Dunham is absent. They are going to make Washington booklets.

All grades are preparing for Valentine parties.

DISH FOR THIS WEEK

Honey Raisin Pie uses honey in place of sugar, it uses stale bread crumbs, and it provides the family with mineral-and-vitamin-rich raisins and nuts.

Honey Raisin Pie

1/4 cup of hot water
1/2 cup of honey
1 egg yolk
1/4 cup of flour
3/4 cup of fine bread crumbs
1 teaspoon of cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon of ginger
1/4 teaspoon of nutmeg
2 tablespoons of butter
1/2 cup of raisins
1/2 cup of nut meats
1 unbaked pastry shell.

Blend the hot water with the honey, and add the egg yolk, slightly beaten. Mix the flour, crumbs and spices together and rub in the butter. Place the raisins in the bottom of the unbaked pie shell, cover them with the nutmeats and pour the honey-water-egg mixture over the layer of nutmeats. Top it with the crumb mixture and bake it at 450 degrees Fahrenheit until the crust browns at the edges, then reduce the heat to 325 degrees and bake for about 20 minutes, or until the filling is firm.

Suggested dinner with honey raisin pie: Chilled fruit juice, broiled fresh or frozen fish, baked potatoes, stewed tomatoes, raw celery or carrot strips, whole cereal bread and butter, milk for the children, with coffee, or milk for the adults.
