Don't Waste Those Idle Moments;
Conserve Them for Defense

Americans, do not waste your time! There is so little of it! I do not say "students" because I am not talking to students—I am addressing representatives of America. Immediately, many people say, "What can I do in only ten or fifteen minutes?" "A great deal" is the reply. You can pick up newspapers, old rubber, metal and other "junk" which has been stored or thrown away by the average consumer and which is vitally needed now. You can read articles written by authorities on defense and learn what the youth, especially of America, can do to help.

Many of you have probably received circulars sent to students in rural areas by local 4-H directors, urging you to assume responsibility for the family garden and to enlist your aid. What better job could American youth do than to help provide food for wartime America?

Neither must students waste their time and the time of others while in school. We must study, we must learn—as much as we can—in the shortest period possible. It is particularly important for those of us who live in farming areas such as Andover, to make the most of what we have, for we may find that, some day, the school year will be cut short so that students can take the places of those workers who have found it necessary to leave the farms to serve Uncle Sam in other ways. Our time will be shortened but the amount of material to be learned will not be. Nor will the examinations be any easier. It is easy to see that we must work harder and faster than ever before.

Americans—school students—save each precious moment, for you have nothing to spare! Moreover, if the old adage is true that "Time is money"—it is doubly important, during such a crisis, that every second be used to the best advantage, for one must "Save for Defense!"

Are You a Parasite?

"May I borrow," is certainly an old, familiar question around ACS. We have begun to believe that only a very few students ever purchase any paper, ink, pens or pencils.

Who ever saw a school group without any paper, pencils, or ink? ACS students certainly have a good start toward just that! An average of two pencils a day (quote from one high school teacher) are "borrowed" and what's more—never returned. This may not seem like stealing, but in one sense, it is. Certainly the consciences of the borrowers don't prick them because, if they did, more borrowed material would be returned.

The next time you do find it necessary to borrow some thing, try to return it—if only for the "principle of the thing."

More important still, however, is the fact that not only is the borrowing of supplies selfish in an economic sense, but valuable class time is also consumed—while students gather the necessary materials for class work.

So, away with the parasites! Let's learn to thrive by ourselves—to stop depending on others—and to really wake up and live!

Calling All Sophomores—
Where Are You?

Where are you, Sophomores? We see you, we hear you, and that's about all. We never hear of you having a party, or another type of activity. What's the matter? You have a fine group of boys and girls in your class with which to work.

Come on, then, and get busy and do something. Have a party and let us know that you still exist.

Scholastically, too, you are unknown. Just one yes, one Sophomore name appeared on the honor

Eggs and Chickens

The FFA boys have placed a setting of eggs in the newly purchased incubator. The boys are hatching some of the eggs themselves and others which will be for sale. Plans are being made for making a battery brooder, in addition to the one they are using at present. Anyone who would like to buy day-old chicks are asked to notify either Mr. Fribolin or any one of the FFA members as soon as possible.

Pictures Shown To Graders

Two moving pictures, entitled, "Man Against the River," and "The Story of Our Flag," were shown to the sixth, seventh and eighth grade social science classes in the science room last week. Tuesday afternoon an assembly was held for the purpose of showing "The Story of Our Flag" to the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh graders.

list this last five week's test period. Now Sophomores, that's no way to behave! Get busy and "perk up". Have parties and fun. Study and get your names on the honor roll. If you do, you will become one of the most outstanding classes in ACS. Then we—upper classes—can be proud of you.

Grade 8—Elfreida Allen, Ronald Clark, Victor Clark, Virginia Loring, Norma Stedman, Patricia Temple, Janice Walton, Lewis Wintemberg.

English Students See "MacBeth"

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock six English IV students, accompanied by Miss Pauline Anderson, set out in the station wagon, driven by Ralph Burgett, for the Maurice Evans Production of Shakespeare's "MacBeth," staged in the Auditorium in Rochester.

Everyone was greatly impressed by the magnificence of the costumes, the setting and the stage lighting in addition to the splendid performance given by the characters themselves, especially Maurice Evans as MacBeth and Judith Anderson as Lady MacBeth.

After consuming the steak dinners which no one had time for at noon, the group returned home. In spite of bad roads, getting the wrong seats in the theatre, and finding themselves on the wrong side of Conesus Lake and having to go back all reported a fine time.

The students who made the trip were Jane Burdick, Jean Rogers, Vic Oakes, Don Emery, Charles Dunham and Stan Ruger.

Grade News

Beginning this week, all children in grades kindergarten-three will be able to buy Defense Savings Stamps from their home room teachers. Heretofore, only those children in the kindergarten and first grades have been buying stamps at school. Miss Seguin's group is studying a unit on "The Family." The poem "The Wind," is also being read. Miss Emily Butler's second and third graders are planning to draw maps of the United States and then to "finish" these maps in salt.

A unit on Indians is being studied in Miss Clark's second grade. The children are going to make an Indian tepee and Indian men. Francis Greene, of Miss Perkin's fourth grade, has moved to Alfred-Almond.

An interesting bulletin board on electricity is on display in Miss Gottlieb's fourth grade. A new pupil, Theodore VanKuren has become a member of this class.

Junior Executive Committee Meets

The Junior Executive Committee, consisting of Mary Baker, Jean Button, Marilyn Hardy and Arthur Temple met with Miss Daly, adviser Friday afternoon at 2:15 in the Library workroom to consider Junior plans for the current semester. Plans for the prom were discussed and committees were announced. They are:

General chairman: Arthur Temple.
Orchestra: Elaine Pope, Mary Baker, Jean Button, Marilyn Hardy.
Advertising: Leonard Cartwright, James Driscoll, Miles Gorsuch, Florence Mings, Doris Mead.
Refreshments: Betty Halsey, Dorothy Baker, Barbara Brownell, Ruth Slocum.

Programs: Llewellyn Fairbanks, Brice Kenyon, Cecelia Lynch, Dorothy Lever.
Hall: Leo Lewis, Julia Beil, Charles Dunham, Martina Lynch, Dorothy Ellis, Clyde Shellman.
Plans were made for a game night to be held especially for the Junior Class.

Student Council To Sponsor Quiz Program

An unusual quiz program, the details of which are a deep secret, will be sponsored by the Student Council in a Junior-Senior high school assembly tomorrow morning in the gymnasium.

Questions to be asked the as yet unpublicized contestants, were compiled by the Student Council from queries submitted by the students.

Just who the contestants may be, no one but Council members know. By keeping the names of the contestants a secret, they hope to increase the entertainment, since everyone will be totally unprepared. Townspeople are cordially invited to attend this "portrayal of the quiz kids."

Lower Grade Children Buy Defense Stamps

Many of the children in the kindergarten and first grades have been buying Defense stamps. In Miss Catherine Rectenwald's kindergarten, a total of $3.30 has been spent for stamps and the grand total reaches the sum of $12.50.

In Mrs. Lillian Butler Allen's room, the following children have brought money: Charity Howland, Kent Harder, David Brown, and Lorraine Mead. They have a total of $6.60.

Miss Seguin's room has contributed a total of $4.40. The pupils who have bought stamps are Evan Dolan, Betty Harris, Thelma Mickle, John Baker, Robert Hoffman, Lora Mae Croyle, Llewellyn Sweet, Francis Vickers.

Freshmen-Sophs To Hold Skating Party

The long awaited Freshman and Sophomore skating party will be held tomorrow evening at Sloan's Funcrest. A bus load of approximately 50 students and faculty members will leave the school at 7 o'clock Friday evening. All members of the high school faculty are cordially invited to attend.

Senior Play Rehearsals Started

Thursday evening the Senior play cast met in the auditorium for the first rehearsal of the class play, "Spring Fever." The cast, under the able direction of Miss Jane Colberg, read the lines of the first act and became acquainted with the stage settings. Rehearsals will be held every school night, except Friday, from now on.

New Type Activity Period Established

Because of a desire to raise the scholastic standard in ACS, a new type of activity period program has gone into effect, starting with this past five weeks marking period.

Anyone who received one or more red marks or two or more grades of 65 must report to room 222 for a special study period. It is believed that thru this method, those people who received such low grades will improve their scholastic standing. It was also announced that it would be compulsory for all girls to participate in the eighth period intramural sports program on Wednesdays and Fridays for the remainder of the year, unless the girl presented a doctor's excuse to Mr. Ingerson.

CHIT-CHAT

Flash! Has Miss Anderson really got the mumps? Whatever it is, we're sorry, Miss Anderson. The Senior play is getting underway now all right. Is it just for a laugh that Pat L. wears those certain blouses? Who broke the record at the play rehearsal, Charles G.? The lights going out Monday night was convenient for some, eh? One certain Senior girl is getting to be quite a rumba dancer, eh? The Seniors have one of the best bands in New York State selected for their ball.

We have heard that several dates have been made to hear Buddy Bergigan in Hornell soon. Vic has decided to start up the Hornell road again. Who is it now Vic? Not every one of our hopes come true, but we continue to have our hopes.

PURPLE PANTHERS END LEAGUE SEASON IN SECOND PLACE

The shelves once more were dusted off and the Purple Panthers of Andover Central School found themselves again on that same old familiar spot, the second shelf from the top.

The locals played good ball in several games but were not consistent enough to capture the league crown. In several games the Panthers played pretty ragged ball and this was apparent in the deciding game with Whitesville, when the locals were beaten out for the championship. The entire season showed ten victories against five defeats for the team.

"Naze" Dolan captured scoring honors for the year with 126 counters. "Naze" played a good game on both defense and offense and proved to be a valuable asset to the team. The loss of Stan "Stretch" Ruger who suffered an ankle injury during the middle of the season, proved to be a bad blow to the Panther's hopes for a championship. In the nine games that Stan played he made 93 points. If he had been able to finish the season he would have probably tallied over 150 points. This might have changed the league standings a great deal.

"Slip" Karcenas and "Pepper" Ryan were next in the scoring column with 81 and 58 points respectively. "Slip" played a good game at forward all year and was also handicapped with an injury for a long time.

"Whitey" Gorsuch and "Pepper" Ryan, the guards, each threw their share of the points. "Whitey" tossed in 33 markers. "Chuck" Holt did a nice job filling in at center in the last part of the season. Besides playing a good defensive game, he made 46 points. Coach Bob Ingerson did very well for his first year of coaching. He brought the boys along a great deal and helped them improve their playing by his advice. The final standing of the league was:

Team	Won	Lost
Whitesville	8	1
Andover	7	2
Richburg	4	4
Allentown	2	6
Scioto	0	8

Summary for basketball year:

Player	Gms.	Gls.	Fls.	Ttl.
Dolan, f	15	59	8	126
Ruger, c	9	43	7	93
Karcenas, f	13	33	15	81

Toxoid Clinic Held Thursday

The toxoid clinic which was scheduled to have been held last week was held today (Thursday) in the health room. This is the second and the last in the series of inoculations for diphtheria which have been given by Dr. S. B. Scott, assisted by Mrs. George Carpenter, county health nurse and Mrs. Harriet Hoover, the school nurse.

About 38 students and townspeople have been taking advantage of the opportunity which has been offered for inoculation against this disease.

Mrs. Harder Substitutes For Miss Anderson

Mrs. Richard Harder has been substituting in the English department since Tuesday because of the illness of Miss Pauline Anderson, chairman of the department. The nature of Miss Anderson's illness is as yet unknown.

Freshman Frolics

What was Joe's last name, Maxine? Did we hear something about an "I Don't Get It Done On Time" Club in General science? Why are a certain group so interested in evacuees from New York—(What about it, girls?) What new (?) thrill has been added to the skating party to make it so popular? (Come and find out!)—Some-of-the-locker doors are very lovely to look at.

The Council sponsored another square dance soon. Jean R. ceased to check on her news reporters. Vic, Dick and Stan wore their bow ties to school. The skating party was postponed again.

COACH INGERSON ISSUES CALL FOR BASEBALL PLAYERS

There is still plenty of snow on the ground but that doesn't mean a thing to the enthusiastic boys in baseball.

The first practice of the season will be held indoors next Monday. Coach Ingerson hopes to have all the boys interested report to him on that night. The first few practices will consist primarily of playing catch and the limbering up of muscles.

Only three veterans will be back from last year's squad. These three will be "Jack" Dean, "Pepper" Ryan and "Whitey" Gorsuch. The boys hope to get outdoors just as soon as the snow melts and the ground dries a bit. All day long their anxious faces watch for some change in the weather and at night they pray that the weatherman will show mercy towards them.

WILDCATS ALSO HOLD SECOND SPOT IN LEAGUE

The Andover Seconds turned in a fairly successful season and also finished in second place in league participation behind Richburg. The Jayvees ended with a 50-59 yearly average, winning seven and losing seven games. They also slightly edged out their opponents on the scoring side by outscoring them 225 points to 207 points.

"Zeke" Shellman was high scorer for the Jayvees with a 14-game average of 77 points. "Jim" Driscoll also did remarkably well as guard, dropping in 59 points. Individual scoring record:

Player	Gms.	Gls.	Fls.	Ttl.
Shellman, c	14	34	9	77
Driscoll, g	15	22	15	59
Ludden, f	14	26	2	51
West, f	14	14	3	31
Baker, g	14	1	3	5
Lewis, g	11	7	0	14
Kenyon, c	13	7	2	16
Richardson, g	8	1	3	5
Cook, g	10	0	2	2

With Needle and Spoon

The Homemaking A girls are beginning their sewing unit. This week they have been studying the sewing machine and how to run it and have been learning how to make various types of seams and hand stitches.

Next week, after choosing which they prefer to do, according to the experience they have had in that type of sewing, they will make blouses, aprons or dresses.

The 9th grade homemaking class has been making cheese sticks, sugar cookies, cinnamon tarts and strawberry tarts. They will make cakes and cookies later.

The Home Economics 6 Class has finished studying curtains and are now studying good designs in furniture.

The 7th and 8th grade girls are studying food constituents as a part of their nutrition unit. On one of the bulletin boards there are illustrations of the clothes which are becoming to various types of figures and on the other, an "Eat the Right Food" poster.

What Would Happen If —

All the biology experiments were submitted on time. Miss Hanneman failed to break a baton at rehearsal? Ann Mc. won her bets on basketball shots? Ryan was seen without "Pickles"? Charley Hall stayed at ACS? The Purple P— weren't cruising again. All girls were willing to "dress for gym." Miss Hanneman acquired the mumps, too. Doris S. ceased to giggle. Miles G. came to school two whole days in succession. Marian S failed to make her daily morning trip to the farther end of the library. All Senior girls were on speaking terms. The Council sponsored another square dance soon. Jean R. ceased to check on her news reporters. Vic, Dick and Stan wore their bow ties to school. The skating party was postponed again.
