Giants Still Hold First Place In Softball League

The Giants tightened their hold on first place in the local softball league this week by trouncing the Yankees 17 to 7. The winners caught the Yankee infield asleep in the first inning with a bunting attack that netted five runs and held this safe lead all thru the game. Ken Bostwick pitched his third win of the season for the Giants.

In the second game the Giants went into undisputed possession of second place by defeating the Cardinals by a score of 16 and 12.

The schedule for next Monday shows the Dodgers against the Giants and the Cardinals meeting the Yankees. Some player shifts have been necessitated by the loss of players to the armed forces. These shifts are as follows: Clare Jackson to Giants; George Weryley, Carl Childs, Kenneth Gath and Donald Lynch to the Dodgers; William McGee, Claude Shellman, George Joyce and Harold West to the Yankees.

I. O. O. F. Memorial
The County I. O. O. F. Memorial sermon will be held on Andover Sunday, June 14. Further announcement in next week's News.

Strawberries are getting ripe—We had some from our garden on June 1st.

WANTED
Work either by hour or day. Mrs. Elmer Hilliard. Inquire at Fred VanCuren's, West Greenwood street.

And he left the wife and boy—A kid knee-high to a hoptoad And tagged by the name of Roy.

This boy was sort of ornery, And he never would go to school, But spent the most of his boyhood days In learnin' the game of pool. Pool Shootin' Roy we called him, And many a night I've set Watchin' him clean the table And puffin' his cigarette.

Sleeves rolled up to his elbows, And playin' so calm and cool— If ever a lad was born to a thing He was born to playin' that pool. His shoulders grew somewhat rounded And his chest grew rather thin, But, gosh, he became a marvel At knockin' them pool balls in.

Fifteen balls was a cinch for him— Fifteen balls from the break, One ball loose from the bunch a bit

WANDERING WITH WILLIE

SOFTBALL seems to be drawing more folks up to the Ball diamonds every week, and the players and spectators all seem to have a barrel of fun. Incidentally, we figured that if "Bill" McGee got going as the head man of the teams things would begin to pick up—and once more we happened to guess right. The ball teams did take quite a licking in the last draft call when they lost Howard and "Mike" Gath and the enlistment of "Don" DeRemer took the third man from one team. But "Bill" found a way and after shifting around a bit the boys will still "play ball" until another call causes another shift. It's lots of fun this softball stuff and should have a fine season here.

IN a letter from one of our friends in the Service (male incidentally) he sent us the following little clipping that evidently tickled his funny-bone and now we hope it tickles yours as it did ours: A very hoity-toity matron decided she must do her bit for the 'deah' draftees, so she phoned a camp and asked that four privates be sent over to her home for Sunday dinner.

"Oh, by the way," she instructed, "be sure not to send any Jews." She was told that everything would be taken care of. On Sunday at dinner time, there was a knock at the door and the hostess opened it to see four khaki-clad figures—and all of them with skins much darker than their uniforms.

"Er-uh-oh, there must have been a mistake," spluttered the hostess. "—uh—"

"No, ma'am, dey ain't no mistake," chuckled the leader of the black foursome. "Sah-gint Ginsberg ney' makes no mistakes."

DID you ever stop to think how much dough you spent in War Saving Stamps? We were surprised the other day after hearing that the kindergarten kids had purchased Stamps and Bonds in the amount of $107. (And they are not all working in mills and offices, stores, etc. either).

WHEREVER you are Corporal "Cabe" drop us another line and give us the devil. This silence is getting terrible and we feel as tho you had forgotten little "Willie."

ANOTHER bit of catchy poetry was handed us recently but we just didn't get around to let loose of it until now. Seems like it came out during World War 1, and we think that it is just as good now as it was back in "the good old days." It follows:

"Pool Shootin' Roy"
Son of ol' Missus McAuliffe, The widder of Box Car Jack, An ol' time shack on the Santa Fe Who run to Dodge and back. He was killed in the wreck at La Junta,

And he left the wife and boy— A kid knee-high to a hoptoad And tagged by the name of Roy.

This boy was sort of ornery, And he never would go to school, But spent the most of his boyhood days In learnin' the game of pool. Pool Shootin' Roy we called him, And many a night I've set Watchin' him clean the table And puffin' his cigarette.

Sleeves rolled up to his elbows, And playin' so calm and cool— If ever a lad was born to a thing He was born to playin' that pool. His shoulders grew somewhat rounded And his chest grew rather thin, But, gosh, he became a marvel At knockin' them pool balls in.

Fifteen balls was a cinch for him— Fifteen balls from the break, One ball loose from the bunch a bit

And the whole darned rack he'd take He was great on a combination, Great on a cut shot, too, He'd make those pool balls talk to him When he started handlin' a cue.

Days, he'd stand on the corners Battin' his eyes at the sun; Nights, he was busy at Dan McGuire's Makin' some wonderful run. His shoulders grew round an' rounder, His chest grew thinner than thin,
