Allegany County Fair Dates Set for Sept. 2-3-4-5

After careful consideration of the various wartime problems that have arisen since Pearl Harbor, the directors of the Allegany county fair association have decided definitely to hold the annual fair at Angelica Sept. 2nd to 5th.

Action of Allegany county directors followed recommendations of the County Fair Association of New York State whose directors last week voted that a majority of county fairs should do business as usual this year.

The Allegany program will center around Victory Gardening with many unusual displays expected. For entertainment directors have contracted a carnival and also expect to expand the horse racing schedule and horse-pulling contests.
