LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

Unimpressed

An English tourist was on his first visit to Niagara Falls, and a guide was trying to impress him with their magnitude.

Guide: "Grand!"

The visitor was silent.

Guide: "Millions of gallons a minute."

Tourist: "How many in a day?"

Guide: "Oh, billions and billions."

Tourist (looking at the falls carefully and then in a very calm voice): "Runs all night, too, I suppose."

Big Blow

The conceited colonel was complaining about his subordinate officers.

"I'm obliged to do everything myself," he grumbled. "I'm my own captain, my own lieutenant, even my own sergeant."

"Trumpeter, too!" muttered a major.

Consolation

A friend met a cheerful Irishman who had plainly suffered hard knocks.

"Well, Pat, how are you getting on now?" he inquired.

"Oh, O'm still hard up, but O've a fine job in Honolulu and fare paid. Oi sail tomorrow."

"Sure, man, you'll never be able to work there. The temperature is 100 in the shade."

Pat had cheerfully endured too much to be discouraged.

"Well," he replied hopefully, "O' won't be workin' in the shade all th' toime."

The Details

"Would you swear," asked the judge sternly, "that you saw the late Mr. Brown shot from a bush?"

"Well, no, judge," stammered the witness, "but I did see him shot from a blackberry bush."

Only One Mistake

A ticket inspector entered a train. He examined several tickets, and told all of the holders that they were in the wrong train. They must, he said, change at once.

As his progress along the carriage continued, he found still more passengers who had made a mistake about the train.

Then one of them had a bright idea, and asked the ticket inspector whether he was not in the wrong train.

He was.

Good Reason

A recruit reported sick and complained to the medical officer that he couldn't eat. The M. O. first inspected his teeth and tongue, then his throat and tonsils. Finding nothing wrong, he prodded the lad in the stomach and back and asked him if he had any pain at all.

"No, sir," said the recruit.

"Well, I can't find anything wrong," replied the M. O. "How do you feel yourself?"

"Oh, fine, sir."

"Well, why on earth can't you eat?"

"I've lost my knife and fork."

TO ROUSE FLOW OF LIVER BILE

Get a bottle of Kruessen Salts tonight. Half an hour before breakfast, take as much as will fit on a dime in a glass of water (hot or cold) or in your morning cup of tea or coffee and keep this up for 30 days. Kruessen taken this way helps relieve such symptoms as sick headaches, bowel sluggishness and so-called bilious indigestion when due to insufficient flow of bile from the gall-bladder. You can get Kruessen Salts, famous English formula, made in the U. S. A., at any drug store. You must be satisfied or money back.

Men are dying for the Four Freedoms. The least we can do here at home is to buy War Bonds—10% for War Bonds, every pay day.
