September Bond Sales Exceed August In County

George B. Rooth, Jr., chairman of the Allegany County War Savings Staff has announced that Allegany county residents purchased a total of $245,025 worth of War Bonds during September with two communities yet to report.

The county's September purchases reported to date are $23,975 greater than August when the total sales amounted to $221,050.

The sales by communities follow:

	Maturity Val.
Alfred	$ 8,025.00
Andover	4,775.00
Angelica	3,000.00
Belmont	13,175.00
Belfast	No report
Bolivar	44,500.00
Canaseraga	1,100.00
Cuba	21,150.00
Fillmore	8,525.00
Friendship	5,150.00
Rushford	No report
Whitesville	3,725.00
Wellsville	131,900.00

Total.....$245,025.00

"We are proud of the response which most Allegany county communities are making to the War Bond quotas each month," Mr. Rooth said. "We must not, however, adopt the attitude of resting on our laurels. We have an equally large quota for October and our job now is to see that we don't fall down."

GRANGE NEWS

Thanks to the people who attended the Harvest supper. The program "Victory" was well enjoyed consisting of songs, readings, two numbers by the 4-H girls and Geraldine Lynch with baton twirling and dancing. These were followed by a talk by Rev. Helena Champlin on "Victory Among Ourselves," in which she stated: "Victory can be won by our boys on the front only as it is won by us at home, each one at his own task never letting the supply line fail, whether the supplies are tanks or ammunition, or food or the inspiration of the better world for which we are laying the foundation now."
