HOW, WHAT AND WHY?
Special to the Andover News

The Andover News has arranged with the Office of Information of the New York State Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics to answer questions about problems of farm and home. If you enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope and mention the name of this paper you will receive a direct reply to your query from the colleges.

No Egg Yolk
Mrs. K. D. writes: "I am unable to eat anything containing egg yolk. My waffle recipe calls for two whole eggs. Can I use the beaten white of one or two eggs alone?"

No Silage for Calves
Mr. R. M. asks: "I have a large supply of corn silage this year. Is it all right to feed some of this daily to my growing calves, provided they will eat it readily?"

Reduce Furnace Draft
Mr. R. S. asks: "What can I do to reduce the draft in my coal furnace in which I have been burning wood? I can not seem to keep a fire for a long time, without refueling."

Life's Darkest Moment
One of the turns in the entertainment after the annual dinner of a famous London firm was provided by a conjurer. For one of his tricks he asked for the assistance of someone from the audience. A man went up, and while the audience waited for the conjurer to continue the trick, someone in the front row called: "Hi! Don't you make him disappear. 'Es our treasurer!"

Social Security Cards Required For Holiday Season Work
Part time and temporary workers during the Christmas season are required to have Social Security cards whose numbers they must report to their employers, according to Myron Milbouer, manager of the Jamestown office of the Social Security Board.

Acid Indigestion
Relieved in 5 minutes or double your money back
When excess stomach acid causes painful, suffocating gas, acid stomach and heartburn, doctors usually prescribe the fastest-acting medicines known for symptomatic relief—medicines like those in Bell-sans Tablets. No laxative. Bell-sans brings comfort in 5 to 10 minutes—over money back on return of bottle. See it at all drugstores.
