Post War Planning

WE HAVE heard a lot about post war planning in the past few weeks and well that we may, as the majority of us still remember the slack period fol- nearly 2,000 tons of ammunition for shipment over- day why the accounts of William lowing the last war, with the relief rolls overflowing seas. and most every community advancing some kind of work project, which had for its major objective the providing of work.

The situation which will face us at the close of this war will be far better than it was at the close of the last war, because of the scarcity of many items which have not been manufactured during the past two or three years, and of which the supply is extremely short. Also the enormous strain on all of Rev. J.
