ALWAYS faithful "Pvt. Joe" in his weekly letter to his "Pa" this week says:

Joe Zinks, Jr., Somewhere in the Pacific

Dear Pa: Thanks for the letter. Glad to hear you're taking in washings to help Ma pay for her welding

I hear you folks is getting rationing. Did you get your share of sugar before the run started? | I saw a run on sugar the other day that was a peach, too. I'm sending you her pitcher, but don't show it to Ma.

Our cook's name is Gus. He says us guys must be on a Vitamin "A" diet because we eat so much of what starts with the letter "A"—"A" couple steaks, "A" couple potatoes, "A" couple pieces pie. Ha-ha. He's a card. Next week I'll be on K.P. and then I'll be cooking with Gus.

Yesterday I had a fit. That's funny, too, because most of the time the clothes they give you Gro-Pak are too big or too small. Your affe't son,
