Show Case and Bulletin Boards

The show case contains a picturesque scene entitled "Merry Christmas." It is composed of a large church in the background. In the foreground in either corner are two little Christmas trees with brightly colored stars pasted on them. To add to this are a few little angels holding some stars of all colors. The angels are made of paper, shaped for their skirts and wings and cotton for the heads. Colored bits of paper were used for their features and curled paper for the hair. Over their heads are different colored triangled pieces of material to represent their kerchiefs. The show case is very well decorated and looks very attractive.

We congratulate Mrs. Ingerson, Jo Ann Theetge, Barbara Marsh and others.

Hi Herald Now Member of Quill And Scroll Society

A Hi Herald publication, including the winning editorial of three weeks previous, was accepted by the Quill and Scroll Society of Northwestern University, Chicago, Illinois with results that A. C. S. has received a Quill and Scroll certificate of membership in the International Honor Society for High School Journalists.

One can become an individual member by doing outstanding work conforming to the requirements of the Society explained in the material which is in Mrs. McFadden, our adviser's, ownership.

When a charter is granted, the adviser of publications automatically becomes a member of Quill and Scroll and each school granted a charter is sent a copy of the initiation services which may be held any time of the year. There are no dues. When a candidate is accepted for membership he pays two dollars for which he receives the gold badge of the Society, a year's subscription to the "Quill and Scroll" magazine and his individual membership certificate.

The charters and certificates sent to the Hi Herald will be framed and put on display. PET

Senior Meeting

Thursday, December 6, a meeting was held by the members of the Senior Class.

Mr. Cowardin, a cap and gown salesman, showed his stock of caps and gowns. After modeling one on a Senior boy and girl and telling about the material of the gowns, which is "Palm Beach" material, requiring no pressing, and a collar that snaps in he quoted as follows, after giving the price of each: $2.00 for the white gowns and $1.65 for the dark gowns. The class took a vote which was approximately 100 per cent in favor of the gowns presented by Mr. Cowardin. The measurements will be taken in the future.

A vote was taken for the contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution and Patricia Temple, Janice Walton and Betty Spicer were chosen. Patricia Temple was chosen by the faculty.

The Senior Class also decided in favor of a card party. No date has as yet been agreed upon but with the assistance of Mr. Wilson we hope to have one in the near future. CJB

One Performance Of School Play, Due to Epidemic

The general public is invited to attend the Christmas assembly program entitled "And So They Came to Bethlehem" to be held in the central school auditorium this Friday morning, December 21 at 9 o'clock. Since no evening performance of this program will be held this year, it is hoped that parents and friends of the school will find it convenient to be present at the morning performance.

Due to the prevalence of the "flu" and other illnesses in our school and in other schools nearby, it has been necessary to postpone the Belvoir and Richburg basketball games until after the Christmas holidays. On Monday of this week there were 148 pupils absent from school and three teachers were ill. If the illness increases to the point where school operation is seriously affected, it may be necessary to close school.

It is hoped parents will keep close watch of their boys and girls so that they will avoid contacts with people that have colds and are ill. When definite signs of illness are noted, the young people should be kept at home and cared for. Plenty of rest and proper protection against severe weather are additional precautions against illness at this time of year.

CHIT-CHAT

We hear "Jug" Dunham had quite a time a week ago Saturday night. Sparks must have flown and we'll let "Jug" tell you who came out on top!

We hear Betty Spicer had a good time one Saturday night, but the next Wednesday the same guy stood her up. Oh well, no man is really worth it, so why worry.

Who were the two guys up to see Barb Childs one afternoon? Did they really come to see her, or were they "just around"? Better watch her, Duff!

All the girls like to tease Tommy Lynch. Ann Dean hid his rubbers one day, but we'll let him tell where he found them!

Jean Kemp is really floating now! Dexter is home on leave—and o-la-la! Lucky girl.

Well, Lois Jean, what are you going to do when your sailor friend, David, comes home? Do you think "Wes" will stand up for rights? These love affairs certainly mix a person up!

Guess what? Duck Northrup and Betty Jean Howland really got together coming home on the bus last Friday night. Don't tell us the bus was too crowded and you just "happened" to get pushed together. We know better for we are the Voices of Experience. —Yehudii

Panthers Defeat Genesee

The Andover Panthers gave Genesee a fairly good trimming by defeating them 40 to 18 recently. The game was well played by both sides but the advantage for Andover was the height of George Phillipson and Carlton Ordway, who played a very good game.

The high scorer for Andover was Basil Dunham who made 12 points for the Panthers, Ken Howland getting eight and N. McCormick not far behind with five for the Panthers.

Genesee's center, Michalegko, was high scorer for them with 11 points to his credit. Fairman was second with five points.

J. V.'s Wallop Genesee

The Andover Junior Varsity won their fifth game of the year by defeating Genesee with a score of 24 to 6. The boys played a very fast and exciting game.

The high scorer for Andover was the J. V. star, K. Lynch, who made eight points. He has made an average of 6 1/2 points per game. Next for Andover was Jim Smith who made some fancy shots over the heads of his opponents, with a total of six points and F. Green made six points for his share of the credit.

Scoring honors for Genesee was between three players: Cooney, James and Sebastian, each getting two points. EG

Senior Interview

Looking down the halls, we see another boy. His name in full is Carlton Pomeroy Ordway. Carlton was born in Hornell, New York, November 26, 1927.

Carlton's main ambition in life is to become an engineer. I know you will join me in wishing Carlton much luck and success. PAL

GIRLS' SPORTS

On Wednesday, Dec. 12 in the gym took place an exciting game when the Detroit team coached by Pat Joyce met the Pittsburgh team coached by Dickie Ellis. Both teams played a good game in Pittsburgh's favor. Ruth Shutt and Evelyn Glover were high scorers for Pittsburgh while Joan Joyce scored Detroit's only two points, making the final score 4-2, Pittsburgh's favor. The referee was Clarabell Boyce.

The New York-Boston team was the scene of another fascinating game. Boston, coached by Norma Steadman and New York, by Lois Madison. The ball was from one side of the gym to the other which made the game interesting. Pat Dolan scored two points and Edith Fresland four points for New York, and Norma Steadman added two points, Pat Ludden four points and Ruth Shutt two points, making for Boston the final score 8-6, Boston taking the lead. Referee: Mareta Perry, Dickie Ellis.

Freshman Frolics

It seems Mary Ellen couldn't read her own writing Wednesday in English Class. How about it Mary Ellen!

We are pretty proud of our basketball player, Bob Burger.

Aren't you flattered to think that a certain Senior lad would take up his precious time to write poems about you, "Bev" Clair?

We will have to get Dick Lynch a straight jacket so he can sit up straight in English Class.

We see Reta Jean is always picking on Harold Dodge in Introduction Class. Why?

Everyone is being good for the next two weeks because Santa Claus is coming, you know. Well most of the kids, eh. Johnny Connor may be an exception.

Whom did Ann Marie Green attend the show with Dec. 7.

Does Ruth Halsey like her new seat in third period study hall? She doesn't act it.

Boy, Mrs. McFadden gave a certain couple of girls awful looks in eighth period study hall. Know anything about it Ruth Halsey and Reta Goodridge?

We haven't heard anything about our Romeo, Paul McCor. (Hi Herald continued on Page 7)
