Mother and Two Sons Burn to Death at North Bingham

Mrs. Lenora Grover, 41, and two sons, Keith 6 and Leon 8, perished about 6:30 Friday night when flames following a blast of kerosene oil completely destroyed their farm home near North | Bingham.

According to reports, Mrs. Grover started to get supper and poured some kerosene oil into a wood-burning cook stove to speed up the fire. Fumes from the oil exploded, showering her and the entire kitchen with liquid flames.

Another son and a daughter were outside the building when the explosion occurred, but were unable to enter the building. The husband, Ira Grover, was working at the Borden plant in Whitesville at the time.

Religious calendars have arrived. Get your's at your church Sunday or call Mulholland's Funeral Home.
