The Senior Class has made plans for a play which they hope to present in March or April. The play chosen was "The Patsy" by Barry Connors.

Tryouts will be held Friday, February 8, and the directing will be done by Miss Mary C. Sherwood, ACS commercial teacher.

Following are the results of the Infantile Paralysis Fund Drive in Andover Central School in 1946:

Grand total contributed by the pupils, $61.25.

First—Grade 5 (Miss Jordan) $12.61. (prize awarded.)

Second—Grade 4 (Miss Baker) $8.27.

Third—Grade 1 (Mrs. Hall) $6.07.

Symphonies Sophomore

My, what an active little-sophomore class we have. There's lots of news this week.

I noticed Earl Richardson sitting on the floor at the skating rink enjoying (?) the sights.

What was that streak of light down Rochambeau Avenue Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock? Was it Franny Green? I think so.

Where did I see the J.V. team headed for last Thursday night?

Those red F's are nasty looking little things, aren't they? I speak from experience.

The Sophomore history class marks proved to be quite surprising, both ways, considering the students' behavior in class.

Jo Ann Theetge is undecided as to what man to stick to. Stand by next week when you will read her decision. (To be or not to be)

Jim Burgett must like brush cuts, since he just got another one.

The Sophomore class welcomed a new girl, "Madge" Collins. We hope you like Andover as much as we do, Madge.

Ether Grover should go in for professional boxing. If so, we wish you much success in your career.

Frannie Green has been going around, star-eyed lately. Does she have that effect upon you, Frannie?

Freshman Frolics

Ann Marie, who is the Senior you have a crush on? His name couldn't be Ding, could it?

We noticed Joan Woodruff sitting on the opposite bleachers during basketball games. Trying to catch a man, Joan?

A certain eighth grader, Mary Louise by name, comes to the dances and Teddy O'Dell always has first chance to walk her home.

Our homeroom welcomes four new pupils Mary Margaret Dean, Ella Mae Clair, Clara Hall and Bruce Nye.

It couldn't be Barb Wintemberg's rabbit's foot Bob Gorsuch wears during basketball games, could it?

Beverly Clair has another man named Don. Last name, Burger. She seems to like the name, especially the "Dons" from the Senior class.

Bubble gum seems to be the rage in our class. Johnny Baker is quite a professional bubble blower.

Evelyn Glover misses Dewey a lot. The letter she gets daily helps to fill up the gap.

Most of the Freshmen are still complaining about their mid-year exam marks, including three or four Latin pupils.

Art News

The show case in the A. C. S. hall has been brilliantly decorated by pictures contributed by Miss Butler's art classes. In the center of one display was a picture of a football player, contributed by Dick Wheaton. Surrounding the large picture were four sunset scenes, painted by Robert Gorsuch, "Dickie" Ellis, "Pat" Ludden and Basil Dunham.

The large fruit picture now in the showcase was made by Ruth Shutt. These fine paintings prove that there are some good artists in ACS. They really do help to add beauty to our school.

If the helicopter is to replace the auto after the war, the policeman should start learning how to dodge in three directions.

CHIT-CHAT

We noticed Jeanne Stevens was in the Andover theatre Saturday night instead of Wellsville. What happened, Jeanne?

We see most of the Juniors and Seniors passed their exams. Nice going, kids.

Janice Walton came thru her exams with flying colors as usual.

Who was Norma Steadman's guest over the week-end? Didn't you say he was there for 29 hours?

We see Jean Kemp spends quite a bit of time at her future in-laws in Wellsville. Good deal, Jean!

Why don't you invest in a share of the cafeteria, Bob Jackson? We always see you eating.

Did you enjoy your time at the dance in Bolivar Saturday night, Doris W?

Dolan's seems to be no place for you to go, Lella, they use a powerful lot of dishes!

Who remembers when, and why, gasoline was rationed?
